

Mexican Rebels Terrorize Americans

THE WORK OF LOOTING STORES AND THREATENING FOREIGNERS BE-GUN AT CASAS GRANDES

CASAS GRANDES, Mex., July 5.—Rebels under Gen. Salazar, commanding the vanguard of the insurrectionary army, have begun to terrorize this region. Tension among Americans and foreigners was increased today with the imprisonment of C. E. Pollingsworth, manager of the general store of Kettleson and Degetau here, when he refused to give the rebels supplies. They looted the store.

REBELS TO MAKE ATTACK
EL PASO, Tex., July 5.—Organized revolution in Mexico, insofar as it stimulated a military campaign of concentrated forces, was by today's movement of the rebel army shown to have ended, and in its place there was substituted a guerrilla warfare, threatening widespread devastation in northwestern Mexico.

Five troop trains bore the retreating insurgents from the vicinity of Chihuahua City to Juarez, opposite here, and before the day is over it was expected that the most of the rebels would be sent southwest from Juarez, a distance of 75 miles, to Casas Grandes, from which point it was intended to effect an entrance to the rich mining state of Sonora.

Having abandoned Chihuahua to the rebels, the rebels destroyed all bridges between Bachimba and where the last battle occurred, and Sauez, 33 miles north of Chihuahua, the small station at which the rebel outposts now are gathered. The evacuation of Chihuahua means that the zone of rebel control will be greatly diminished. Juarez being the only important point that remains.

General Orozco, the rebel chief, spent the night at Sauez, but was expected in Juarez today to direct the movements of various hands into which the rebel army is now disintegrating. Juarez at present is the rebel capital, trainloads of Archives having been sent there within the last three days.

Though the invasion of Sonora means a rambling campaign in the mountains, the rebels, most of the mountaineers, believe themselves equal to it. The revolution in that form, they say, will prove more vexatious to the government than an ordinary campaign. To check the Rebel invasion of Sonora, the Mexican government is moving forces from Agua Prieta and Western Sonora. Fully 4000 men are believed to be under way to intercept the Rebels.

General Sanjines left Agua Prieta today for Frontera, Sonora, to take command of the main column.

The next battle, if any occurs, should be at Casas Grandes. At Juarez there is little likelihood of a fight, as the Rebels plan to withdraw most of their forces toward Sonora.

Reports early today were to the effect that no Rebels had as yet entered the city of Chihuahua, though a detachment of cavalry under General Rabago was said to be nearing the town.

FEDERAL TROOPS DELAYED
AT GENERAL HUERTA'S HEAD-QUARTERS, Bachimba, Mex., July 5.—The brief resistance of the Rebels which preceded their retreat caused comparatively little loss of life, but the destruction of the railroad for thirty miles to Chihuahua is so extensive as to prevent the arrival of the main Federal columns at the former Rebel capital for at least three days.

new board of health stable in Broadway.

At 2:30 o'clock Ald. Barrett resumed his examination of City Treasurer Stiles and considerable territory was gone over that had already been covered. Mr. Barrett's purpose was to show that money had been borrowed unnecessarily. He said that Mr. Stiles had negotiated a loan of $300,000 when there was $485,000 in the treasury. He asked Mr. Stiles why the loan was negotiated and Mr. Stiles said it was borrowed in order to take advantage of a low rate of interest.

Alderman Barrett was not questioning the proper expenditure of the money, but he did not understand why $300,000 should be borrowed when there was already nearly half a million dollars in the treasury. The loan in question was made in 1907.

Alderman Barrett went on to show that unnecessary money had been borrowed year after year and he said that the city had paid thousands of dollars interest that it should not have paid because there was already money enough on hand when the loans were made. He showed that in 1903 the treasurer got along on less than half the amount used in 1908. Then again a loan was made in 1910 while there was still a good balance in the treasury. Mr. Stiles said he couldn't recall the circumstances. He said that all loans had the approval of the mayor.

"Did the mayor always go to you

FRANCIS NICHOLSON DROWNED IN THE MERRIMACK RIVER

Little Fellow Was Seized With Cramps While He Was in Bathing

Francis Nicholson, aged eight years, son of Frank and Julia Nicholson, of 379 Bridge street, met death by drowning in the Merrimack river this morning. The boy was in swimming in company with several others about his age in the swimming pool off First street, when it is thought he was seized with cramps and went down to his death.

Undertakers C. H. Molloy & Sons were notified and went to the scene and soon recovered the body. Several who were with the lad say he was a fine swimmer.

When he came up they swam to the spot where the unfortunate lad had disappeared and when he was pulled out of the water life was extinct. The body was removed to the funeral parlors of Undertakers Molloy & Sons and was later taken to the home of the heartbroken parents in Bridge street.

BARRETT QUESTIONS STILES ABOUT LOAN OF $300,000

Alderman Says Money Was Borrowed When There Was $485,000 in Treasury

The hearing on the charges preferred against City Treasurer Stiles by Alderman Barrett was resumed before the municipal council this afternoon and the hope was expressed that the hearing would be completed today. It seems to be the general impression, at city hall, at least, that the municipal council will vote to retain Mr. Stiles, though the vote may not be unanimous.

Alderman Barrett appeared in negligence at today's meeting and some comment being made, Mayor O'Donnell said: "As this is not a court of justice your costume, or lack of same, is not a breach of decorum."

City Solicitor Hennessey following the example set by Alderman Barrett relieved himself of his coat and the reporters followed suit.

The bond of Daniel E. Hogan, as assessor of taxes and to allow him to draw his salary from the city, was read by the mayor. The bond was for the purpose of protecting the city in case the courts should decide that he was not legally elected to the place. The matter was laid over for one week.

Mayor O'Donnell called to order at 2:15 o'clock. There was not a soul in the gallery and that was rather unusual. The hot weather was the answer. Petitions having to do with pole locations, conduits, wire attachments, etc., were properly referred. Commissioner Cummings gave notice that Architect Henry L. Bourke had been engaged to prepare plans for the

and suggest about borrowing money?" asked Alderman Barrett.

"Oh, no," said Mr. Stiles. "Did any member of the city council ever bring pressure to bear upon you to borrow money?" asked Alderman Barrett.

"No loans were ever suggested except by the mayor," said Mr. Stiles. "The city paid from $12,000 to $30,000 in unnecessary interest money, and I want to know if you put all the blame on previous mayors," said Mr. Barrett.

"No, the rates of interest had something to do with it."

"Do you say it is wise to borrow three or four months in advance of the time the money is required because you get less than one per cent better rate?" asked Mr. Barrett.

"That depends," said Mr. Stiles. Ald. Cummings wanted to know what the committees on finance of the different governments had been doing. He thought that committee was in a great measure responsible for loans, etc., and he asked Mr. Stiles what he knew about that committee.

Mr. Stiles said that the last time the committee on finance met with him was in 1905 and that meeting had to do with the purchase of something for the trustees of the city library.

TWO ARMY OFFICERS KILLED BY FALL

Aeroplane Lost Balance and Fell

SALISBURY PLAINS, Eng., July 5.—Captain E. E. Lorraine and Sergeant Major Wilson of the army flying corps were killed this morning while flying over the great military encampment here. They were taking their usual early morning practice and the aeroplane had reached a height of 400 feet when the machine lost its balance, turned over and fell to the roadway. Sergeant Major Wilson was killed instantly, but Captain Lorraine lived a short time, although he was unconscious when picked up.

SERGEANT PROCTOR MURDERED FAMILY

He Then Took His Own Life

WALLA WALLA, Wash., July 5.—Seized with a murderous mania late yesterday, Sergt. John Proctor of the 126th Company Coast Artillery at Fort Worden, Port Townsend, Wash., shot and killed his former wife, his son and daughter, then shot himself in the head and died soon afterward. The daughter was 14 and the son 5 years old.

The shooting occurred in a lodging house of which Mrs. Proctor had been proprietress since her divorce last December.

JOHNNY BILLITER WON WRESTLING BOUT WITH JACK FISHER

MUSKOGEE, Okla., July 5.—Johnny Billiter of Toledo, Ohio, champion of the lightweight wrestling champion of the world, after an hour and 20 minutes on the mat last night, broke the right shoulder of Jack Fisher, of Muskogee, and was awarded the match. The announcement was made that the contest was for the world's championship.

COLONEL STAHL STRICKEN BLIND WHILE AT THE THEATRE

TRENTON, N. J., July 5.—Col. E. C. Stahl, a prominent German resident of this city, father of Rose Stahl, the actress, was suddenly stricken blind last night while attending a theatrical performance. Physicians held out little hope for the restoration of his sight. Col. Stahl for a number of years conducted a German newspaper in this city.

A SAFE AND SANE FOURTH OF JULY WAS ENJOYED BY LOWELL PEOPLE

Well, how do you like a safe and sane Fourth? Lowell had one yesterday, and it seems as if everybody enjoyed it. The cannon cracker was relegated to a back seat and just for that the clang of the ambulance was not heard in the street. There was noise enough to be sure, but it wasn't the kind of noise that meant more work for the undertaker and while some of it perhaps could not be properly classified as sane, it was safe, and safety is a redeeming quality. You noticed, too, that there were very few fires, and boys and girls went home with all their fingers on. They had a good time and the only fellow we had reason to aim a kick at was the weather clerk. He attended strictly to the furnace and we all suffered more or less on his account. In order to thoroughly enjoy this new and very commendable notion of a safe and sane Fourth, we will have to get on the good side of the weather clerk, for we certainly need his co-operation. If he will but interpose himself in the movement everything will be fine and dandy.

Now as to our observance of yesterday, what else can be said but that it was safe and sane? It would have been very nice, perhaps, to have had a municipal fireworks display, but we have really arrived at a point where we haven't any money to burn. Yesterday's observance will not cost more than $1000, for that's all that was appropriated, and the chances are that Mayor O'Donnell planned to have the expense well within that amount. Whatever the amount, it will be paid out of the commissioners' fund and not by special appropriation. The observance was really a distinct departure from the observances of other years.

Lowell Council, Knights of Columbus, to Have Club House in Anne Street

THE TWEED ESTATE IN ANNE STREET TO BE PURCHASED BY LOWELL COUNCIL, K. OF C.

The Knights of Columbus have practically completed arrangements for the purchase of the Tweed house adjoining the High school in Anne street. The house will be remodelled and an addition will be made to it. It will be occupied as a clubhouse by Lowell Council, K. of C., when the lease of the present quarters in Associate building expires this year. The alterations will be quite extensive, and when the house is ready for occupancy it will be one of the finest appointed clubhouses in this section.

SERIOUS RIOTING AT HAVRE, FRANCE In Connection With Seamen's Strike

HAVRE, France, July 5.—The strike of seamen and dock laborers, which is spreading rapidly throughout France, was accompanied late last evening by serious rioting here. A number of strikers took possession of a local steamer and when expelled and driven off by the police, gathered again at the docks and met the police and a detachment of infantry which had been called to support them with showers of stones, bricks and other missiles. Many of the soldiers and police were injured by bricks hurled from windows of houses in adjacent streets. The strikers were finally forced to retire, but retreated slowly, erecting barricades consisting of wagons and furniture in many of the streets. They broke all the windows in the two principal police stations of the city. Among the ringleaders of the strike were several excited women wearing flaming red sashes. Military reinforcements arrived here this afternoon from Rouen.

SAFE AND SANE FOURTH

and the very distinct feature of the program was the patriotic exercises held in the councilmanic chamber at city hall during the forenoon. The meeting was not very well attended but was interesting throughout.

Exercises at City Hall

The patriotic exercises at city hall in the forenoon were the most impressive that have been held in this city for many years and while the attendance was not large the meeting was an important and pleasant feature of the day's observance. The exercises were held in the old councilmanic chamber where embryo statesmen were wont to have their sining in words and deeds under the old form of government, and the attendance numbered about 100. The chamber was prettily decorated for the occasion, the doors, windows, speakers' desks and gallery being draped with American flags. The Declaration of Independence was splendidly read by a schoolboy, Master Arthur St. Cyr, and there was an eloquent patriotic address by Solon W. Stevens. A rather striking feature of the proceedings was the arrival of a colored woman who was politely escorted to a front seat just as the quartet was about to sing "My Old Kentucky Home." Her name was Sarah Mann and she lives at 37 June street. Her eyesight was very poor but she made her way to city hall because she said she wanted to attend the patriotic exercises. "It was a lovely meeting," she said, "and I enjoyed it very much. It seemed as if they sang 'My Old Kentucky Home' just for me."

MASTER ARTHUR ST. CYR.
Who Read the Declaration of Independence.

The exercises were scheduled to begin at 10 o'clock, and it was but a very few minutes after that hour when Very Rev. T. Wade Smith, O. M. I., gave the invocation. His prayer was as follows:

"O God, Our Father in heaven: we offer Thee on this glorious Independence day our prayer of thanksgiving and supplication; thanksgiving for the boon of constitutional freedom, and supplication for a continuance of Thy favor."

"O God, whose treasury of goodness is infinite, and from whom alone all good proceeds, who hast chosen us to be the light of freedom to the nations, who hast conferred on us peace and plenty, receive this day our grateful thanks. To Thee alone be all honor and thanksgiving."

"May Thy name be glorified in the lives of us, Thy children, that in spirit and act we may proclaim to the world the nobility with which Thou hast endowed us."

"May we strive in our life's work to accomplish the task Thou hast given us; not envious of our neighbors' goods, not trusting in perishable things and, as we rightfully enjoy the boon of our freedom, teach us to be merciful to our brother, as we claim mercy from Thee."

"Let us not, O Lord, be drawn away from Thy righteous law, seeking to follow the vain fantasies of false prophets; but, by loyalty to God and country, may we be faithful to succeeding generations the glorious inheritance we received from heroic God-fearing predecessors—our independence!"

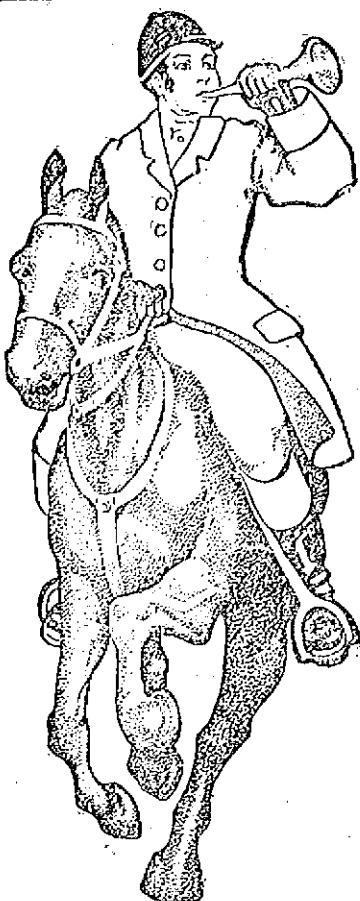

"Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean," was sung by a quartet consisting of Mrs. Lawrence Jordan soprano, Mrs. George F. Burns contralto, Charles G. Martin tenor, and George E. Burns bass.

The Declaration of Independence was read by Master Arthur St. Cyr of Holy Angels college, Buffalo, and despite of the fact that Arthur is but 13 years old, he has established a reputation as a scholar, reader and public speaker. His reading of the Declaration of Independence yesterday was exceptionally good and his listeners showed their appreciation by prolonged applause.

The quartet sang the beautiful "Song of Liberty" (Cyr. H. H. A. Brahm), after which Solon W. Stevens, Esq., gave the oration of the day. He spoke for 20 minutes, and in part said:

Mr. Stevens' Address
"On this anniversary morning of our national birth, when by custom, duty and law, the beam, the axill and the noisy haunts of business are hidden to be still, when we may acknowledge together the magic spell of one great critical hour in our history, when, for the first time, a true is called to the surface of parties, the rivalries of sections, and the rancorous conflicts of factions, when the hour is no longer divided against itself, when ninety millions of people are inseparably united in the bonds of unity and peace, when hitherto unfrequented valleys and lonely waterways are yielding their solitude to the demands of energy and skill, when industry is gathering beautiful harvests on fields once blood-stained with domestic strife, when, with kindredness revived in place of faults forgotten, we may turn from the dark corners of diversity of opinion and in unanimity of friendship, walk hand in hand beneath the symbolic flag of our life and glory, up to the mountain top, and unite in reverent exclamation, 'How beautiful are the tabernacles, O America. Peace be within thy palaces, and joy within thy gates. For what Continued to page eight."

10,000 WELCOME TAFTS TO THE CITY OF BEVERLY

The President Was Given an Enthusiastic Reception—Roses for Mrs. Taft

BEVERLY, July 5.—Greeted by a reception which equalled the day for warmth, President Taft made his entry into Beverly yesterday morning.

Ten thousand persons cheered the president as he rode with Mrs. Taft, Charlie Taft, Maj. Thomas L. Rhoads, his personal aide, and George von L. Meyer, Jr., son of the secretary of the navy. Almost ideal weather conditions prevailed, although before the march was over the mercury was so high that the marchers felt the effects of the heat; still the line was kept intact.

Depot square was roped off for the reception and when the president's special car arrived, an hour late from

Washington, the park and station stands were massed with people. When the president gave his customary smile, doffing his straw hat, in response to the greeting, Mrs. Taft followed the president and was cheered by the crowd while the Dolphin band played the "Star Spangled Banner."

Mrs. Taft was in blue and appeared much rested, even after the tiresome trip from Washington. When three miles from Beverly, the president's motor car was escorted to his big motor car in the square, and while the crowd cheered, the moving picture operators and the newspaper photographers were busy. Arthur E. Kilham was chief marshal of the parade, with Robert Robertson as chief of staff, and L. P. Stanton chief of the personal escort to the president. In line were the Taft club, carrying the Beverly colors, orange and black, the officers of the U. S. S. Dolphin, and a mittee of ladies to welcome Mrs. Taft. In the party were Mrs. Dudley L. Pickman, Mrs. Henry F. Sears, Misses Alice and Julia Meyer and Miss Louisa P. Loring of the summer colony.

Col. Charles L. Dodge, after Mayor F. A. Dodge had extended the greetings of the city, made an address in behalf of the reception committee, consisting of former Representative Albert Vittum, Capt. Isaac H. Elger, Commander T. P. Whiting of the Grand Army and the Hon. Francis Norwood. President Taft was much pleased at the reception, and in reply said:

"I am glad to be here and to be received by the Taft club of Beverly. You have given us a substantial expression of your confidence in me in the late primary, and I very much appreciate it, and return my thanks to you and to those of the city of Beverly who stood with you in this matter."

"Mrs. Taft and my family are glad to be here. We have enjoyed being here during the last three years, and we are glad to have an association with such a city as Beverly and with such people as live in the city of Beverly."

"We are coming to get all the pleasure there is and all the health and all the energy you have up here in Massachusetts, and to renew our claims to being Yankees."

With the formalities over, the president and his party were escorted to his big motor car in the square, and while the crowd cheered, the moving picture operators and the newspaper photographers were busy. Arthur E. Kilham was chief marshal of the parade, with Robert Robertson as chief of staff, and L. P. Stanton chief of the personal escort to the president. In line were the Taft club, carrying the Beverly colors, orange and black, the officers of the U. S. S. Dolphin, and a detail of sailors from the secretary of the navy's yacht, the Beverly Republican club, the republican city committee, the boy scouts and the boys' brigade of the Methodist church.

All along the route there was a display of flags. When the parade moved along Lathrop street, skirting the sea, the guns on the Dolphin moored in the outer harbor boomed a presidential salute. At the soldiers' monument, Post 50, G. A. R. lined up and saluted the president as he rode by.

The entrance to "Parramatta," the summer White house on Corning street, was guarded by a detail of marines from the Dolphin, and the lines parted while the president rode through the cheering paraders.

CHILD WAS DROWNED

IN THE BOOTT CANAL

The Body Was Recovered Last Night

Stanley Tarsa, aged three years, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Tarsa of Brookings street, was drowned in the Boott canal about 7:30 o'clock last night. The little boy had been playing in the street near his home shortly before that time, but he wandered into Amory street and then finding a picket line in the canal he crawled through and undoubtedly walked along the banking and fell into the water.

The first that was known of the accident was when persons living in the vicinity heard the splash when the body fell into the water. Several people in the vicinity rushed to the canal and tried to locate the child, but without avail.

Undertaker Joseph Albert was notified and he later recovered the body and removed it to his workroom.

FLAG CONTEST

A GREAT SUCCESS

At the Vesper Country club yesterday a flag contest was held, with a large list of entries. The players were divided into two classes, each player being allowed 80 strokes, to which was added the handicap, if any. When the last stroke had been played, the flag is planted where the ball lies. R. A. Wood holed out at the 20 hole in his last stroke and won in the first division. A. H. Morton was second, 40 feet from the 18th hole. In the B division, J. F. Coburn holed out at the 18th hole, with Homer Goodwin second, seven feet from the 19th hole.

The Coffee Can Is Becoming a Sensitive Subject

A couple of years ago one could get a pound of fairly decent coffee for from 15 to 25 cts. Now that same coffee costs from 25 cts. to 45 cts per pound and a further raise of ten cents is in prospect.

"THERE'S A REASON"

Four years ago Brazil found that in spite of the fact that it was producing over 90 per cent. of the coffee consumed in the United States, its rich planters were not squeezing as much money out of Americans as they could and the Brazilian government was not receiving enough revenue from a product that was one of that country's chiefest products.

And so Brazil determined to levy tribute upon rich and prosperous America, even as the British taxed our tea in olden days; only this modern type of piracy was engineered and executed in a kid glove way.

Certain foreign capitalists (German, English and others) were called into consultation. They devised a scheme called "valorization." They started by bumping our American Congress into removing the import tax on coffee, and that done, Brazil immediately transferred the income to its own treasury by imposing an export tax. This was followed by perfecting a system whereby the Brazilian government could control the output and the price of coffee.

The net result has been that Brazil for the last three years has sold just what grades of coffee it wanted to sell, at any price it chose to fix; and in consequence the Brazilian government has shared with a syndicate of foreign money kings a profit of Hundreds of Millions of Dollars, every cent of which has come from the pockets of the American People.

This is Where YOU Come in

The average coffee drinker knows that coffee is a really harmful drink to most folks. Headache, biliousness, indigestion and other signs of an up-set liver, as well as heart irritation, nervousness and sleeplessness are too evident to most coffee drinkers to permit of their ignorance of that fact.

STRIKE BREAKER

KILLED BY CARS

Harvard Student's Head
Was Crushed

BOSTON, July 5.—Merrill DeWitt Britton, a Harvard freshman, employed as a strike-breaking conductor by the Boston Elevated Railway company, was killed last night by having his head crushed between two cars in the City Point car barns. Arthur H. Wilson, another Harvard student, was the motorman of the car that crushed out his life.

Britton, who was 21 years old, and who roomed at 9 Trinity hall, had been employed only a few weeks. Last night, about 9:10, Britton and Wilson were making preparations to get their car out of the barn preparatory to making their trip. Britton had left his car and had passed behind it when without warning the car backed down upon him and crushed his head against a car that was standing directly in the rear.

The injured man was attended by Dr. Boland and removed to the Carney hospital, where he died shortly after his arrival. His mother, Mrs. Fred S. Britton of Massachusetts Chambers, Back Bay, was notified.

A PARACHUTE JUMPER

Death

NEW YORK, July 5.—Twenty thousand persons saw "Tom" Moore, 25 years old, a professional balloonist, hurled to death yesterday afternoon from a height of 1200 feet at Hillside Park, an amusement resort of Belleville, N. J. Moore's act was thrilling, and consisted of three successive drops, each plunge halted by the opening of a parachute.

When the balloon had ascended to a height of 3000 feet Moore could be seen cutting loose for his first drop. He plunged earthward, the parachute opened and checked his fall. A moment later he cut loose for the second time and sped toward the earth. The sudden expansion of the second parachute broke the plunge, and Moore, who was then about 1200 feet from the earth, cut away for the third time. This time a frightened shriek went up from the crowd as Moore shot down and his parachute remained unopened. Then it was observed that the aeronaut had evidently been rendered unconscious by the rush of air, for he relaxed his hold on the bar of the unopened parachute, which might even yet have expanded and saved his life, and plunged headlong to his death.

DAVID I. WALSH

IS LOOMING UP AS A CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR

BOSTON, July 5.—David I. Walsh of Fitchburg is assuming prominence as the democratic candidate for governor since Gov. Ross' statement at Baltimore Monday night that he is not to be a candidate for re-election.

The returning delegates talked the matter over informally on the train, and Mr. Walsh's friends were pleased to hear the good things said about him by the governor and others, including Representative James M. Curley. No definite announcement has been made by Mr. Walsh, but he has expressed to friends the interest he has in the nomination if it could come to him under satisfactory conditions.

He has told them he does not want to engage in a fight for the nomination, but, in the event the governor does not seek the nomination again, he would be pleased if the democrats gave him the primary endorsement for the office.

Mr. Walsh has not been able to make any public declaration because of the uncertainty regarding Gov. Ross. Had the governor received one of the nominations at Baltimore Mr. Walsh would have been expected to announce his candidacy at once. There has been some talk that Mayor Fitzgerald would give up his senatorial aspirations to get into the race for governor, but there has been nothing definite from him on this subject.

WOODWORKERS MET TO DISCUSS STRIKE

Statement Issued by the
Press Committee

The striking woodworkers held a meeting in Carpenters hall this morning, with all members present. The action of the employers who were invited to meet the conference committee in the American house on Wednesday evening and failed to do so was discussed at length. The district organizer, C. N. Kimball, was present and addressed the meeting. He said that in his opinion, the mill men, by not attending the conference, lost an opportunity to settle the difficulties but he advised the strikers to be careful and peaceful in their feelings and that they will be successful in their cause.

An advertisement of an employer's bureau with office in Boston, that was taken from a Boston paper, was read, in which the wages offered are much larger than those the men were receiving. The advertisement stated that the wages will be paid during the strike, and the organizer in speaking of the wages said that they explained to the factory men were anxious to have the matter adjusted. He also said that five strike breakers arrived here from Boston this morning, but when notified of the conditions four returned.

The following statement was adopted at the meeting contradicting an article that appeared in a paper yesterday and the secretary was instructed to forward to The Sun the statement. It reads as follows:

"The statement appearing in the press yesterday to the effect that one of the largest firms at present involved in the Millmen's dispute had recently granted a reduction of three hours with the same wages, requires, in common justice to the men who struck work in that particular shop, some little explanation.

"The facts are as follows: Immediately after the corporation had reduced the working hours to 54 per week the employees of the firm in question told their heads together and agreed to petition their employers for a like reduction. A few hours before the time set to present the petition the firm having got wind of their intention and doubtless fearing trouble from the I. M. V. or some other such organization, notified them of their intention of reducing the hours from 53 to 54 with the same pay.

"So far this ready good from the employers' point of view, but as it is well to consider both sides of any question we will proceed to consider the other side. One of the firms at least, also involved, granted the same concessions over eight years ago, and pays a higher rate of wages, as was brought out by a statement made by a member of the first named firm, namely: 'We employ nothing but the cheapest class of help which can easily be replaced; (the inference presumably being in case of the men making a stand for better conditions). Now it is perfectly obvious that as this firm turns out the same class of work as the others with an admittedly lower wage bill it must make a much larger profit, particularly when we take into consideration the fact that it has the advantage of three hours per man per week for eight years plus the difference in the average wage paid by it and I think its nearest competitor, the firm which conceded the 55 hours eight years ago, all of which goes to show that other employers in question have not got a leg to stand on, when they try to barter themselves behind their belated three hours concession.

"Fred H. Dow,
"Chairman of Committee."

A special meeting of the district council of the carpenters has been called for Sunday afternoon in Carpenters' hall at which action on the present strike will be taken.

MANY FRUIT RECIPES

in Different Ways

Have the cantaloupe thoroughly chilled before using, then cut in half, remove the seeds, but be careful not to scrape out the delicate pulp nearest the seeds as this is the most delicious part of the fruit. Place the halves of the melon on plates of cracked ice, reversing the usual order of serving ice in the hollow of the melon, which method draws out the flavor instead of preserving it with the pulp.

Melon Marmalade
Take large citron melons, quarter and remove the seeds. Weigh the melon and to every pound of the fruit allow a pound of loaf sugar (double refined). To every three pounds of melons allow two lemons and a teaspoonful of ground white ginger. Grate the melon on a coarse grater, not too close to the rind. Grate also the yellow rind of the lemons and with the ginger add to the sugar. Mix all the ingredients in a preserving kettle. Set the kettle over a moderate fire, boil, skim and stir until it is a very thick, smooth jam. Put it into warm glasses, lay a double round of tissue paper on the surface and seal the jars.

Melon Mousse
Place the cantaloupe in a preserving kettle with half the quantity of sugar. Stew down until rather thick; rub through sieve and replace on stove. Have dissolved half a box of gelatin for each pint of pulp, first softened in a little cold water, then more thoroughly dissolved by pouring on it a half pint of boiling water and placing it over steam. Add this to the cooked melon, stirring until it begins to cool and thicken, then place in wetted molds and set on ice till firm and serve with cream. Less gelatin may be used if preferred.

Melons for Salads
Perfectly ripe melons are delicious for salads when cut in cubes and served alone or with other fruits such as peaches or bananas. Tomatoes may be used. Serve with mayonnaise plain or flavored with liquor or French dressing, to which has been added a suspicion of maraschino, or serve with whipped cream.

Watermelon Sherbet
Scrape all the red pulp of the melon, carefully saving the juice and retaining sufficient pulp to give strength of flavor. Allow to one gallon of liquid a pound of sugar and freeze. When half frozen add the whipped whites of eggs (one for each quart of the mixture) and finish the freezing.

Watermelon Half Frozen
Break the ripe pulp of a watermelon into fine bits with a silver fork and place it in an ice cream freezer without the dasher. Let it stand for two hours packed in salt and ice. Serve in sherbet glasses.

FIRE DEPARTMENT

NOT KEPT BUSY

Several Small Fires Were Quickly Extinguished

The members of the fire department had a comparatively easy time yesterday and the night before, few fires having taken place. The city was well patrolled by members of the different companies and what incipient fires were started were speedily extinguished by the firemen.

An alarm from box 73 at 2:15 o'clock yesterday morning summoned a portion of the department to 32 Wilson street where a firecracker had exploded on a roof and caused a slight blaze. The building is owned by S. Goldenberg.

Stable Fire

A large firecracker set the roof of the stable in the rear of 135 Chapel street on fire about 1:15 o'clock yesterday afternoon and an alarm was sent in from box 116. The fire was extinguished.

A Hero in a Lighthouse

For years J. S. Donahue, 80 Haven, Mich., a Civil war captain, as a lighthouse keeper, averted awful wrecks, but a queer fact is, he might have been a wreck himself. If Electric Bitters had not prevented, "They cured me of kidney trouble and all this," he writes, "after I had taken other so called cures for years, without benefit and they also improved my sight. Now, at seventy, I am feeling fine." For dyspepsia, indigestion, all stomach, liver and kidney troubles, they're without equal. Try them. Only 50 cents at A. W. Dows & Co.

Roof on Fire

Fire on Bridge

Patrolman Michael Bourke discovered a blaze on the Lundberg street bridge last night and immediately telephoned to the central fire station. The Lawrence street company was sent to the scene and soon had the fire under control.

Brush Fire

FEW ACCIDENTS

REPORTED IN THIS CITY ON THE FOURTH

There were but few accidents during the fourth and the night before for the prohibition of the sale of large crackers prevented many unnecessary accidents that might have occurred if the use of the large explosives had been allowed.

Joseph Christina burned three of his fingers yesterday afternoon while setting off firecrackers. He was taken to the Lowell hospital where the burns were dressed.

Leg Fractured

Lillian St. Peter, aged two and a half years, rolled out of bed at her home at the corner of Bridge and Paige streets yesterday morning and sustained a fracture of the left leg. The ambulance was summoned and she was taken to St. John's hospital where she was cared for.

Badly Injured

Amos Christian, a laborer, employed by E. A. Simpson, was injured by a fall while working at Lawndale farm, recently purchased by Mr. Simpson. He was taken to the Lowell General hospital. His injuries were in the region of the stomach and it was at first feared that internal injury might result.

ECZEMA ON LIMB ITCHED DREADFULLY

Scratched in Sleep, Spread Rapidly, Cuticura Soap and Ointment Worked Wonders. Stopped Itching and In Less Than a Week Healed Entirely. Cost 75 Cents.

27 Whitney Ave., Cambridge, Mass.—"My trouble was eczema. It began on my nose-supporter rubbing and poisoning the skin on my leg just above the knee. The eruption was small pimples which itched dreadfully. When I scratched them they would scab over and they itched so nights that I scratched the scabs off in my sleep. They spread rapidly. I used witch hazel, different carbolic salves but nothing did it any good until a neighbor told me how her hands were cracked open and bleeding and that Cuticura cured her. I had been to so much expense buying remedies that did no good that I sent for samples of Cuticura Soap and Ointment before using. They worked wonders. They stopped the itching and in less than a week's time it had healed entirely, after using a full-sized box of Cuticura Ointment and a cake of Cuticura Soap, costing but 75c." (Signed) Mrs. W. E. Lewis, Nov. 25, 1911.

For treating poor complexion, red, rough hands and dry, thin and falling hair, Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment have been the world's favorite for more than a generation. Sold throughout the world. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32 p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

For tender-faced men should use Cuticura Soap Shaving Stick, 25c. Sample free.

Olive Oil Restores Health

Physicians generally are advising patients to use pure olive oil to restore health and strength. As a result, thousands of men, women and children, knowing its valuable nutritive and laxative properties, are taking olive oil daily as a most beneficial addition to their food.

Pompeian Olive Oil is as different from other kinds as night is from day. It is the purest Italian Olive Oil imported and it comes to you in its virgin state, without any chemical treatment or adulteration. It, therefore, has a distinctive, sweet, nutty flavor not found in other kinds and does not have a greasy taste.

To build up the system and restore health, take Pompeian Olive Oil in this way and very beneficial results will quickly follow:—On arising in the morning, drink a glass of hot water and take one or two teaspoonfuls of the oil. Take the same quantity before dinner, supper and on retiring. As you acquire the taste for the oil, increase the dose to four tablespoonfuls four times a day. Invalids and those run down in health and strength will find Pompeian Olive Oil the best food-medicine and it will build up the body faster than any disease can tear it down.

Pompeian Olive Oil is sold by druggists and grocers. Full one-half pint cans, 25 cents; full pint cans, 50 cents; full quart cans, 90 cents.

BIG SUCCESS

FETE CHAMPETRE WAS OPENED YESTERDAY

The annual "Fete Champetre" opened yesterday on the orphanage grounds in Pawtucket street. During the day thousands of people visited the place and enjoyed themselves. Entertainment was given by the orphans and much credit is due them for the manner in which they carried out their part. During the day the different booths on the orphanage grounds were very busy. During the afternoon the feature of the program was the entertainment given by the group of young orphans who interested the people present to a very great extent. In the evening the independent brass band was supposed to give a concert, but for some reason unknown they did not materialize. But in spite of this disappointment, Rev. Fr. Watelle, O. M. I., managed to make an emergency program which proved very satisfactory to the many spectators present.

SOCIAL AND FRATERNAL

The French-American carpenters met in regular session Wednesday night. There was a large attendance and considerable business was transacted. The feature of the evening was the installation of officers for the ensuing six months. The following are the officers: A. Bellefeuille, president; Joseph Paquin, vice president; Victor Breton, Jr., recording secretary; G. A. Pion, financial secretary; Rosalie Lachere, treasurer; Omar Lahade, conductor; C. Sancerre, warden, and G. A. Pion, J. Paquin, P. Roy, E. Parais and H. Roy, delegates to the annual convention. The installation of officers was followed by pleasant smoke talk under the auspices of the new officers. Mr. A. Bellefeuille, the newly elected president, and many other members of the local addressed the gathering.

Order of Moose

The regular meeting of the Lowell order of Moose was held Wednesday night and at the conclusion of the business meeting an open house was in order and hundreds of the members and their friends spent an enjoyable evening. During the business meeting ten new members were initiated and 25 applications were received.

The entertainment and good time started about 9 o'clock and lasted until morning. Refreshments were served and an enjoyable musical was given.

The program was as follows: Solo by C. K. Nobles; reading of the Declaration of Independence, James W. McKenna; songs by the Moose quartet, composed of the following: Edward Turnbull, first tenor; Robert Means, second tenor; George Crowell, baritone, and C. K. Noble, bass; recitation by John F. Tansey; solo, Julius Parthum; singing of "America" by the entire lodge; and songs by the Moose quartet.

Centralville Social Club

The Centralville Social club held its regular weekly meeting in its headquarters in Lakeview avenue, Wednesday evening, and considerable business was transacted. The officers who are to serve the coming six months were elected and the choice was as follows: Isidore Trudel, president; Joseph Dile, vice president; Omer Ducharme, recording secretary; Ferdinand Lussier, financial secretary; Ludger David, treasurer; and Arsene Trudel, Adolphe Bouchard, Pierre Brousseau and Pierre Gagnon, directors; Hector Silbeau, sergeant-at-arms. After the business meeting a smoke talk was held, and during the course of the evening refreshments were served and music and singing were furnished by the talented members of the club. President Isidore Trudel occupied the chair.

Foresters of America

Court City of Lowell, No. 30, F. of A. held a well attended meeting at the Elks' hall Wednesday evening, and although the weather was warm there was considerable business of importance transacted. District Deputy Grand Chief Ranger N. Gaudin was there and installed the following officers, assisted by District Deputy Grand Chief Ranger John Barrett, who acted as herald; Chief Ranger Eugene P. Sullivan; Sub Chief Ranger Michael Sullivan; Recording Secretary George B. McKenna, Senior Woodward Henry McEvoy, Junior Woodward Lot Healey, Junior Beadle Michael Gilligan and Lecturer William Carson. Past Chief Ranger John F. Connolly was present, and with an emblem in the form of a beautiful chain and Foresters' charm, by Treasurer Thomas E. O'Day, and Bro. Connolly responded with some remarks on the benefits of Foresters. Remarks were also made by District Deputy Grand Chief Ranger N. Gaudin, and by District Deputy Grand Chief Ranger John Barrett. Several songs were sung by the Foresters' quartet, consisting of E. R. Wirt, A. T. Munn, Charles Howard and Harry Needham, by John F. Roane and Richard Donovan, and a very enjoyable musical under the direction of James

FINDS OUELLETTE COMMITTED SUICIDE WHILE INSANE

Medical Examiner Joe V. Meigs, who examined Clovis Ouellette, who died as a result of the explosion of dynamite Wednesday, pronounced his death due to suicide while insane. Ouellette's death occurred when he placed a stick of dynamite in his mouth and touched it with a match. The report of the explosion could be heard a great distance, and along with blowing the man's head and the upper part of his body to atoms, a large hole was torn in the floor directly under where he stood.

HAVERHILL MEN

COMING TO SEE LOWELL'S GREAT "WHITE WAY"

Members of the Haverhill city government, members of the Haverhill board of trade and the citizens' committee of that city will come to Lowell Monday night to inspect the "white way" exhibition in this city. They will be the guests of the Lowell board of trade and Mayor O'Donnell will keep the city hall open to receive the visitors.

The city of Haverhill has raised, by public subscription, enough money, it is stated, to establish a white way, so-called, and maintain it for at least one year, and the Haverhill men are coming here to see the demonstration, that is being made by the Lowell Electric Light corporation in Merrimack street.

MAN WAS DROWNED WHILE IN BATHING

Lost His Life Near Aiken
Street Bridge.

Jose Viera d'Andrade aged 40 years, residing at 63 Worthen street, lost his life in the waters of the Merrimack river between Beaver brook and the Aiken street bridge shortly after 11 o'clock yesterday morning. The man was bathing at the time and was drowned in practically the same spot where the Landry boy sank last Saturday afternoon.

The place where the drowning took place is very dangerous because of the fact that there is a small canal bar running out to it which is covered by very little water at the present time, but when the end of the bar is reached there is a sudden drop of three or four feet.

The unfortunate man had come to the river with a companion in order to cool off but before the companion entered the water d'Andrade walked over the sand bar and disappeared from view.

The body was recovered about two o'clock by Undertaker Joseph Albert. D'Andrade was a married man and about three months ago he sent his wife and three children back to the old country, Portugal, and only last week sent them $50.

AMATEUR BASEBALL

The Cubs will play Graniteville Saturday afternoon at the Nabnasset picnic grounds. A good game is looked for as the Cubs are in first place in the Suburban league and Graniteville one game behind in second place.

The Manhattan will play the T. R. & T. team Saturday afternoon at Faulkner park, Hillerica, and a good game is expected.

The C. Y. M. L. team is without a game for Saturday and would like to hear from the Dixwells or any other strong team.

The Groves will play the Wameets Saturday afternoon, July 6, on the Lawrence street grounds across from the firehouse.

The Shedd Park ball team would like to arrange a game with any of the strong teams of the city. They have secured the services of Tom Quinn, who managed the old Y. M. C. I. team for three seasons in 1903, '04, '05, in the days of Hugh Farley, George Thorne, the late Yag, McCarthy, Chas. Doherty and George Delan, who were among the fastest players of their time. The team is now coming along at a fast gallop and would give any of the other teams a good battle. They would like a return game from the Lincolns on Saturday, July 6th. The Lincolns defeated them early in the season 4 to 1 and the Shedd Park members feel that they can wipe out that decision if the Lincolns make good their promise to give them a return game at Shedd Park. They have open dates in July and August and would like to hear from the Y. M. C. A., Manhattans, Graniteville (South Ends), Tyngsboro, or any other fast teams. Address all challenges to V. Hutton, Boyiston street, City, or through this paper. Manager can be seen at Shedd Park any evening.

ANNUAL RANSACK SALE NEXT WEEK

King Pin Sphere Walloper

Tris Speaker, the agile Red Sox outfielder, continues to hold a safe lead over Ty Cobb in the race for the batting honors of the American league. He now has a hitting average of .358, while the Detroit star is wallowing the ball at a .317 rate. Speaker is a natural hitter and ball player, and having struck his stride in earnest, all pitchers look pretty much alike to him. For instance, he compiled four hits out of five times up against Ed Walsh in his last engagement with the Chicago White Sox, that being one-third of all the hits made off the big spitballer by the Boston club. Boston experts are of the opinion that Tris is the greatest outer gardener in the country, not even barring Cobb.

TWO LOWELL MEN IN SERIOUS ACCIDENT

Thrown Over Embankment Into Creek—Two Arrested and Their Auto Smashed

William N. Thompson of this city yesterday morning. There was a third and Frank Moran, formerly of this man in the automobile whose name the city had a narrow escape from death. The auto was a four-passenger runabout owned by Mr. Thompson and almost every part of the machinery was smashed.

The three men were tossed over a 15-foot embankment when the machine crashed through the fence and turned over and over into Westfield creek. When the automobile, traveling toward the beach at high speed, reached the point where the highway crosses Westfield avenue, at the end of Campbell street, Mr. Thompson, who was driving, evidently did not see that the road turned to the right and the machine continued at an angle across the sidewalk at Waverly avenue. When it struck the fence the top rail gave way and the broken rail was jammed through the automobile radiator. The rail then acted as a lever, on the end of which the machine and its occupants were given a high toss over the embankment.

BIG BONFIRE

SET OFF ON THE FLETCHER ST. LEDGE

A monster bonfire was set off on the Fletcher street ledge in the rear of the fire house the night before the Fourth and owing to the illumination of the sky hundreds of people were attracted to the scene. A number of the younger element of that section of the city gathered together hundreds of barrels and other combustible material and when the bells rang at 12 o'clock the pile was set afire and for several hours the sky was illuminated.

people is indeed like unto them—at such a moment, let me ask you to look in imagination, and interest with me the significance of the movements of that sturdy old woman as heaving and too and fro with a "Tian's" grasp the iron tongue of the Liberty bell in the state house at Philadelphia, 135 years ago.

What's the meaning of this unusual excitement in that goodly city? Why is it that her haberdashers and grocers, her lawyers and doctors, her clergymen and her politicians, her boys and girls shout with glee, and the old men and women act as if their youth had been renewed? Why this roar of cannon, this beating of drums, and this universal outburst of exultation? It is because, in accordance with a vote taken two days previous to the colonial congress, now assembled in Independence hall, has proclaimed to the world the result of the debate on what John Adams termed "the greatest question which was ever debated in America," viz., that these United Colonies are, and of right ought to be, free and independent states; that they are absolved from all allegiance to the British crown, and that political connection between them and the state of Great Britain is and ought to be totally dissolved; By the declaration thus proclaimed the citizen-subject on that day became a sovereign, the colony dependent became a state independent, and the United Colonies asserted their rightful position as the United States. On that day, in mighty words of solemn import, the announcement was made for the first time in the history of the world of the fundamental equality and brotherhood of the human race, the derivation of authority from the will of the people, and the recognition of the individual unit as the basis of political institutions. The Declaration of Independence which the bellman in yonder steeple is ringing out so vigorously is the title-deed of every man to an individual right in a common country; and, as Mr. Frothingham says, it was a test of loyalty whenever upheld it was counted as a friend; whenever spoken against it was an enemy, and whoever took up arms against it was guilty of treason.

The Declaration of Independence was a bold and ceremonious proclamation of the spirit embodied in the famous resolution which preceded it. It was a revolutionary act. It was an act of organized resistance to oppression. It was a solemn appeal to conscience from the decrees of a foreign tyrant to the inherent right of self-government which Christianity had established. It demonstrated the possibility of an inseparable connection between unity and diversity in public affairs. It crystallized the sentiment of nationality into a fact of national life, and made the fact of Union the fact of a republic. It was the expression of that resistless moral power which precedes the acts of organic law. It was the resultant of innumerable spiritual forces which could no longer be controlled beneath smothering hands. It sprung from the inner life, the habits, the customs, and the affections of a people longing for, and determined to have a country which they could call their own. It was an acknowledgment of obedience to an instinct implanted in the human heart by the omniscience of a just and beneficent God. It was a declaration of a state of things which had no existence. It breathed its spirit in the air. It symbolized its power in the flag. It imparted new dignity to manhood, and lifted humanity above the rank of kings. It was the verbal expression of that resistless spirit which pursued Paul Revere in his reckless ride of alarm from ocean to the inland town. It was the response to the unnumbered prayers of the minute man in his struggle at the bridge. It was the answer to the appeal of blood crying from the ground at Concord, Lexington and at Bunker Hill. It was the substance of things hoped for in distant hamlets beyond the mountains in lonely cabins by the sea.

Dawn of Momentous Time

"Friends, we greet at this hour the dawn of a momentous time. While not devoid of anxious suggestion, the outlook is full of promise. Man is gaining the mastery of natural forces while the winds and waters obey his commands. Still, the great mystery of life remains unexplained, and whence we cannot know, and whither we do not, we cannot know. The destiny of the republic is hidden in the depths of the infinite mind. We think, we dream, we plan, but of the tomorrow no man can tell. It is only by faith in the God of nations that we live and move. Trusting in him, let us hope that to our successors American institutions will be as precious, liberty of conscience as sacred, and progress as glorious as they were to our fathers and have been to you and to me. Inspired with anticipations we will welcome to our companionship the worthy of other climes. Together in loyalty we will march step by step beneath the ample folds of one national emblem upon the untrodden paths of a future untied, to the fulfillment of new responsibilities which in their expanding circles of influence may touch the destinies of millions yet unborn."

"My Old Kentucky Home" was sung by the quartet, after which the benediction was given by Rev. Caleb E. Fisher, pastor of the First Universalist church.

Children's Entertainment

The entertainment for the children of Lowell in Associate hall yesterday afternoon, which was provided by the city, was attended by a large crowd, and all were well pleased with the show, despite the extreme heat. The program was one of the best and was given by the Bachelor club troupe, under the direction of Charles D. Slattery, with Richard Noonan as accompanist. Another feature of the entertainment was the exhibition of ventriloquism by Professor Gallaway and his assistants.

Special invitations to the entertainment were sent to the local orphanages and about all were represented. The program was a little late in starting, but when the overture was started there was an outburst of applause. All numbers were well received and applauded, and the soloists were obliged to respond to encores. The solos were given by the following talented performers: John A. Dalton, John Davlin, Henry Curry, Andrew McCarthy, Edward Shea, William Warren and John Glasgow.

Chelmsford Street Hospital

The Bachelor club gave a fine entertainment at the Chelmsford Street hospital last evening. The holiday was thoroughly enjoyed by the inmates and a goodly number of visitors enjoyed the entertainment in the evening. The inmates had a fine roast pork dinner; mince pie was included in the good things for supper and that there was no scarcity of lemonade during the day was evidenced by the fact that three crates of lemons had been used and the empty lemon crates were there to prove it.

The entertainment by the Bachelor club was given in the chapel at 7:30 o'clock in the evening. The chapel was prettily decorated with flags and bunting. The program was as follows:

Opening chorus, melody, "The Rose Song," John Pechin; "Daffodil Rag," Henry Curry; "Ireland I Love You," Andrew McCarthy; "A Dit of Blarney," Edward Shea; topical song, William Warren; "Song of Uncle Sam," John Dalton; song by request, Commissioner J. E. Donnelly; finale, "Dixie Land," "Star Spangled Banner."

Band Concerts Enjoyed

The band concerts, part of the program in connection with the municipal observance of the glorious Fourth, were thoroughly enjoyed, especially the evening concert given at the commons. After a night and a day of sight-seeing and "gadding about" everybody was to have a soothing influence on the nerves, and we all know what it has been said that music will do, even to the savage beast. Band concerts are always popular, July Fourth or any other old time, and never perhaps in the history of the city has larger crowds been seen at band concerts than were in evidence last night. Standing room was at a premium on the South common and there was an immense crowd on the North common. The third of the night concerts was given at the Highland club and to say that it was enjoyed is putting it mildly. The spacious club grounds were thrown open to the public and there was a large attendance. The two afternoon concerts were given at three o'clock, one at Fort Hill park and the other at Lakeview avenue park near Alken street.

Perry Street Bon Fire Enjoyed

The bonfire on Perry street proved to be one of the greatest attractions of the entire celebration. There were certainly not less than ten thousand people scattered around the sides of Fort Hill park and the syndicate land on which the bonfire was built. As stated in The Sun it was over forty feet high, the frame made of railroad ties and well stuffed with combustible material that fed the flames after the match was applied. The blaze was a magnificent spectacle while it lasted, rising sometimes to a height of nearly one hundred feet. The flames first worked around the base and middle part of the great pile and when the supports were burned it was seen that the upper part must necessarily collapse.

At a time when the woodwork was ignited and shone forth through the blaze like red coals of fire, about twenty feet of the pile collapsed and fell to the ground, sending the blaze and flaming embers high in the air. The heat was so intense that it was felt for quite a distance around. Firemen came on hand to look out for the possibility of any buildings in the neighborhood being endangered. The pile continued to blaze from midnight until four o'clock in the morning, and was not burned out until noon yesterday. It lighted up the vicinity for quite a distance around.

About daylight after the crowd and dispersed those who had constructed the bonfire, and some others in the neighborhood, enjoyed refreshments consisting of ice cream, cake and lemonade. They were a happy lot and they deserved credit for providing such a fine show for the thousands who enjoyed it. There was a lineup of automobiles on Rogers and High streets and up towards the entrance of Fort Hill park, all well filled with people to see the bonfire. It was a great success and those who built it were cordially congratulated.

Bunting Club

At the U. S. Bunting cricket club on the "night before," a fine display of fireworks was given instead of the usual bonfire. Many of the members and friends were present and remained during the evening and also yesterday, as "open house" was in order. Yesterday at the grounds cricket was the attraction.

Another Bonfire

A good sized bonfire was provided the residents of Westrickville on Wednesday evening. The scene of the "burning display" was on Chase hill, which owing to its elevation made a most appropriate place for the fire. There was a big crowd assembled and all enjoyed the pyrotechnic of flames.

Orphans Enjoyed the Fourth

The children of St. Peter's orphanage celebrated Independence day in a manner that satisfied the childish hearts of the little ones. The large hall of the building was down to the breezes during the day, and in the morning the little ones romped about the grounds of the place, playing games, the good sisters keeping a watchful eye over the merry throng. At noon an appetizing dinner was given. "Later ice cream and cake were served. In the afternoon, through the kindly consideration of Mayor O'Donnell, the children were permitted to attend the entertainment in Associate hall and the Bachelor club made a big hit with the youngsters as was evident from the applause. Returning home supper was served and play was resumed around the grounds until the bedtime call was sounded and soon the little ones were securely tucked away, supremely happy that the Fourth of July had furnished such an enjoyable time for them.

Walters was holding the gun at the time of the explosion, while Gunther was standing to one side watching the operation. About a foot in length from the breech of the gun is missing and the stock next to the hammer was badly shattered. One of the extra heavy pieces struck Gunther in the knee.

The Store That Rings True Is Surely the Store For You

It was the custom of old-time merchants when a bad piece of money turned up in the cash drawer to nail the bogus coin on the counter. It served as a constant reminder to the clerks to be more careful, and incidentally it made it certain that the counterfeit money would not be passed back on a customer. We have much the same idea about merchandise.

We are everlastingly careful to see that nothing that is false gets into our stocks; and when we detect something below our standards trying to slip by our eyes we are quick to nail it.

A LIGHT HOLIDAY GRIST OF OFFENDERS IN COURT

Man Held For Stealing Watches —A Light Fingered Gent Arrested on Common

This morning's session of the police court in this city was one of the shortest ever held after a holiday. The majority of the defendants were charged with drunkenness and the different cases were disposed of within half an hour. As a general rule the sessions following the Fourth of July are very long, but today it was an exception.

Charged With Larceny

Arthur R. Goodwin was arrested Wednesday night by Patrolman Kenney on a warrant charging him with the larceny of two watches from the store of George H. Wood. The defendant was employed as a watch repairer by the complainant and it is alleged that when he left the place there were several watches and other valuables missing. Goodwin left this city after covering his connection with Mr. Wood and was not seen here until Wednesday night when Patrolman Kenney placed him under arrest.

Larceny of Money

Samuel Kaplan, who claims to be born in Malden, was arrested on the midway on the South common Wednesday night on a complaint of the larceny of $5 in money, the property of George Ramos. To the police Ramos said he was walking through the common when he felt a hand in his pocket and saw Kaplan running away. Ramos gave chase and upon catching up with the fellow held him until an officer arrived. Both men were sent to the police station but later Kaplan was held until this morning and Ramos was released. Kaplan will be brought before the court on Monday morning, he having made an urgent request that his case be continued until that time.

Stole a Bicycle

John Coutros was charged with the larceny of a bicycle, the property of Joseph Parmentier. He admitted his guilt and owing to the fact that he had made restitution the case was placed on file. The young man hired a bicycle from the complainant and failed to return it and therefore a warrant for his arrest was sworn out.

Drunken Offenders

George E. Douglas, a young man, who has appeared before the local court seven times during the past year, was in again this morning. He was charged with being drunk and inasmuch as he had been sentenced to the Mass. reformatory and appealed and also appealed from a sentence of six months in jail within a short time Judge Pickman sentenced him to six months in jail, but he also appealed from the sentence this morning and therefore will have to answer to three appeals.

John H. Quill denied that he had been drinking when arrested in court but after the testimony had been heard he was found guilty and sentenced to six months in jail. Thomas Rhoady was also given a six months sentence to jail but he appealed.

Arthur Levesque who is on parole from the state farm will be returned to that institution.

Thomas Egan was sentenced to the state farm.

James J. McAndrews, Moise Houde, Michael F. Cawley, John J. Smith and Fred J. Vallery were each ordered to pay a fine of $5.

There were 12 simple drunks who were released before the opening of the court.

IT'S WARM TODAY

THE NORMAL TEMPERATURE WAS ABOUT 90 DEGREES

Old Sol got in his work today after laboring all day yesterday and but for the fact that there was a mild breeze this afternoon it would have been a record breaker.

The normal temperature was about 90 degrees which is hot enough for anyone, but in several sections of the city the mercury rose much higher. On Christian Hill the glass showed that it was nearly 100 degrees, and the two which were read were in the shade. In Sawtucketville it went up to 102 and even though Kenwood is on the bay, the Merrimack the mercury was hovering around the 100 mark.

The only persons who did not seem to mind the heat were the youngsters who were able to take a dip in the water, and the Merrimack and Concord rivers, the different canals and various lakes and ponds in the vicinity of Lowell offered comfort to those who had the opportunity to take a swim.

NEW ARRANGEMENT

CANADIAN PACIFIC TRAIN TO RUN IN TWO SECTIONS

Owing to the extra travel the Canadian Pacific train will hereafter run in two sections. This is an innovation for train work, but is necessary at this time on account of the great number of people going north. The sections will be known as the Canadian Pacific and the Quebec Central and will run from Boston at the regular distance apart. Each will have a separate baggage car and the system will remain in vogue until further orders.

AT MT. PLEASANT GOLF CLUB

About twenty-five members of the Mt. Pleasant golf club entered the flag tournament yesterday. The fortunate ones were Fred L. Knapp, who secured first place and A. Gordon Foster securing second place. The contest was unusually close and until the last man had finished play no one had any idea as to who the winner would be.

THREE ASPHYXIATED BY ILLUMINATING GAS

Man Tried to Rescue

Estate Caretakers

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., July 5.—Chas. E. Read, secretary of the D. M. Read company, gave his life last evening in a fruitless endeavor to save the lives of Mr. and Mrs. John Ruhl, caretakers of his estate on Greenfield hill, all three being asphyxiated by illuminating gas fumes.

As far as can be learned, Mr. Ruhl went to the pump-house in which is located the gas plant. Something had gone wrong with the supply and Ruhl in an apparent endeavor to make repairs was overcome. His wife, becoming uneasy over his prolonged absence, followed him and she, too, was overcome.

Mr. Read, hearing her cry, went at once to the pump-house and tried to save Mrs. Ruhl. He was overcome and fell to the floor. In the meantime, Arthur Jennings, a neighbor, hearing of the trouble, went to the rescue. He was nearly overcome, but managed to spread the alarm.

Several doctors responded and it was with difficulty that they were able to make their way into the house. Finally all three bodies were brought out.

A fight occurred late in the evening, with the result that one American citizen named R. W. David was killed and two American marines and six soldiers belonging to the Tenth Infantry regiment, as well as two American civilians, wounded. The wounded men are in American hospital. Two Panama policemen also were wounded.

The United States legation is investigating the affair.

Thomas Riley Marshall Candidate For Vice President is a Well Known Lawyer

THOMAS R. MARSHALL

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 5.—Thos.

Riley Marshall, the democratic candi-

North Manchester, Ind., March 4, 1854.

His father was Daniel M. Marshall and his mother, Martina A. Patterson. The son was graduated from Wabash college in 1875, studied law and was admitted to the bar in 1875. The following year he received his master's degree from Wabash. The same institu-

gree of LL. D. In 1905, Notre Dame also gave him its LL. D. In 1910, and the University of Pennsylvania bestowed the same degree upon him in 1911. Governor Marshall's entry into the law profession was as senior member of the firm of Marshall & Mc-

Nagay, which was formed in 1878. This firm had its office at Columbia City,

Ind., which ever since has been Governor Marshall's home. The firm name of Marshall & McNagay was changed in 1892 to Marshall, McNagay & Clug-

this firm until 1909, when he took office

as governor of Indiana. The governor married on Oct. 2, 1835, Louis I. Kim-sey of Angola, Ind. He is a trustee of Wabash college. In religious matters he is a Presbyterian. Fraternally he is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and of

Mason.

Late Pictures of Mrs. Woodrow Wilson and the Three Charming Wilson Girls

SEA GIRL, N. J., July 5.—Should

Woodrow Wilson become the next president of the United States the White House would have four femi-ne inmates, something that the handsome old building never saw before.

For the first time in history there will

looks more like an elder sister than the mother of such girls. She is a brilliant conversationalist and takes an active interest in all subjects of current interest. Miss Margaret Woodrow

Wilson, the eldest daughter, is 26 years old, Miss Jessie Woodrow Wilson is a year younger, while Miss Eleanor Wilson, known as Nell to all her friends, is 22. The eldest daughter is fond of athletic sports and dancing. She plays a good game of tennis, basket ball and golf and has a fine soprano voice that she is cultivating. Miss Jessie is the executive of the family. She is a member of the national board of the Y. W.

C. A. and has done considerable settlement work in a tenement district in Philadelphia. Only her health prevented her becoming a foreign missionary. Miss Eleanor has a talent for painting, inherited from her mother,

DEMPSEY GIVEN FREEDOM AFTER SERVING 13 YEARS

He Was Convicted of Murder of His Brother-in-Law and Given Life Term

BOSTON, July 5.—Thomas J. Dempsey of Bradford, who was sentenced to life imprisonment for the killing of his brother-in-law, Clarence J. Willey, in Haverhill, in October, 1899, was given his freedom yesterday, the executive council granting him a pardon on the recommendation of Gov. Cahill, chaplain of the state prison.

A LIVELY BLAZE BROKE OUT TODAY

In Storehouse of Walter
Coburn Company

A fire which threatened to destroy adjoining property broke out in the wooden storehouse of the Walter Coburn Co. in Plain street shortly before 4 o'clock this morning. An alarm from box 134 was sent in at 3:51 o'clock and at 4:05 o'clock another alarm was sent in from box 34. Spontaneous combustion was the cause, according to Chief Hosmer's theory, but the amount of damage has not been estimated as yet.

Owing to the material stored in the building volumes of smoke poured into the street and the firemen found it very difficult to get at the centre of the fire. The building, which is one-story high, was filled with baled waste, principally cotton waste and the firemen had considerable trouble in battling with the flames. After the firemen had sent several lines of water into the building it was necessary for them to rip the bales apart and extinguish the spontaneous fires.

Inasmuch as the material in the building would be apt to re-ignite Chief Hosmer had several men remain on the scene with two lines of hose in order to prevent the fire bursting out again.

Two Fires in Same Place
A portion of the fire department was called to Brewery court in the rear of the Richardson hotel at 12:10 o'clock yesterday afternoon where a fire broke out on the roof of one of the houses, presumably from a spark from a chimney on an adjoining building. At 1:51 o'clock this morning the department was called to the same place where another fire had broken out. The damage at both fires, however, will be slight.

FUNERAL NOTICES

DONLAN—The funeral of Miss Mary I. Donlan will take place tomorrow morning from the home of Mrs. Anne O'Connor, 23 Waverley street, at 9 o'clock. At 10 o'clock a solemn high mass of requiem will be sung at the Immaculate Conception church. Burial in St. Patrick's cemetery. Friends invited. J. A. McDonough, undertaker.

BIG FIRE IN WOODS ALARMED THE TOWNS

Of Tyngsboro, Westford
and Chelmsford

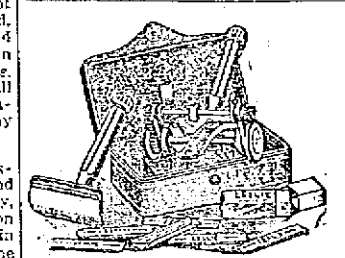

A fire broke out in the woodland district of Ward's quarry near the Westford and Tyngsboro line yesterday noon and it took on such large proportions that alarms were sent in in three towns. Men came from Grantville, Chelmsford and Tyngsboro, and all were armed with instruments of every description to fight the flames. Though the men worked hard it was 9 o'clock last night before the blaze was under control. The damage spread over 200 acres, and the damage to the timber is very heavy.

The cause of the fire is not known, but it was discovered by the fire warden on duty at the Robins hill observation station.

THE TRIP TO CALIFORNIA UNDER SPECIAL CARE

"You feel like sorting out and tying together the memories of this trip and keeping them separate from all other trips." A woman recently said this after a pleasant experience on a Burlington Route Through Tourist Car Excursion party to California. She traveled alone, but met many agreeable people on the car, which was in charge of a special conductor. This good natured official was a well-informed, courteous man who went all the way through with the party, looking after everyone's comfort and attending to all the little details of the trip. Thus a woman or child in one of these parties can travel with perfect safety and freedom from care. If you would like to know more about the Burlington's comfortable and inexpensive personally conducted excursions, please write me a postal and I'll send you maps, booklets, pictures, etc., by return mail. ## Want to Have Grover Cleveland's Birthday Remembered Each Year

Recently three movements have been set afoot to pay honor to the memory of Grover Cleveland, president of the United States from 1885 to 1889 and from 1893 to 1897 and the only democratic president since the Civil war. These movements are for the erection of the Cleveland memorial tower at Princeton university, for the purchase as a permanent memorial of the birthplace of Cleveland at Caldwell, N. J., and, most recent of the three, for the annual observance of his birthday, March 18.

A permanent Cleveland birthday organization, to be known by an appropriate name, has been formed. It consists of friends and admirers of the late president. They will devise plans to have his memory honored annually throughout the country, with addresses, resolutions, etc. At the head of the movement is a body known as an advisory board, with Judson Harmon of Ohio as chairman and Charles S. Fairchild, D. M. Dickinson, Richard Olney, Hilary A. Herbert, Hoke Smith and David R. Francis as members. There is also an executive board, including Dr. Joseph D. Bryant, the physician and most intimate friend of Mr. Cleveland, as chairman. Associated with him are Alton B. Parker, St. Clair McKelway, August Belmont, Dr. John H. Finley and others. These men were prominent among the organizers of the meeting in March, 1912, in New York, when the seventy-fifth anniversary of Mr. Cleveland's birth was celebrated.

The Cleveland birthplace in Caldwell, N. J., to be preserved for all time as a memorial to him, is known as the Old Manse. It was the home of the parents of the future president until he was four years old. His father, the Rev. Richard Falley Cleveland, was pastor of the Presbyterian church in Caldwell. He went with his family later to Fayetteville, N. Y., then to Ulster, N. Y., then to Holland Patent, N. Y. It was in the Caldwell house that the name Stephen Grover was chosen for the man who later in life dropped the first syllable and still later was elected sheriff of Erie county, N. Y., governor of New York state and twice president of the United States.

It was asserted at one time that Mr. Cleveland disliked the place of his birth and never visited it after the removal of the family. The latter assertion seems to be well founded, but the former is not true, since a letter, in which he said he held the place of his birth as hallowed and sacred, was discovered many years ago. The house is a simple, two story frame structure. To purchase it a fund of $50,000 was required. Of this the town of Caldwell contributed $50,000. The fund included a sum for permanent maintenance. When it was decided to preserve the house plans were made also for a near-by memorial library to be known as Princeton hills. It will be forty feet square at the base and 165 feet in height. Four turrets at the corners will rise unbroken from the base and in four gothic spires. The floors beneath will house a collection of Cleveland relics. In the ground floor, facing the entrance, will be placed a statue of the Grover Cleveland Memorial library to be housed in a building given by Andrew Carnegie.

The memorial tower, rising high above the graduate college buildings at Princeton university, will be the memorial of the deceased president at the college which he loved so well and with which he was associated in the latter days of his life. The foundation of the tower has been laid. It will rise, majestic on the crest of the rolling cere gratitude of his countrymen and justified recurring memorial occasions like the one in which we are taking part. He was a great president, not because he was a great lawyer, not because he was a brilliant orator, not because he was a statesman of profound learning, but because he was a patriot with the highest sense of public duty, because he was a statesman of clear perceptions, of the utmost courage of his convictions and of great plainness of speech, because he was a man of the highest character, a father and husband of the best type and because he was a political life he showed those rugged virtues of the public servant and citizen, the emulation of which by those who follow him will render progress of our political life toward better things a certainty.

NEW BATHING CAPS

Imitate the shape of the headgear of the peasant girl of any country having native garb if you wish your summer's bathing cap to be a masterpiece. It is going to be the fad to look picturesque when in the sun, and naturally this effect must be mainly provided by the cap.

If you firmly decide to let your locks get wet you may have a Normandy cap of fluted white silk trimmed with a big bow of ribbon matching the shade of your suit and beach cloak, or you may have the Russian peasant girl's cap of coarse velvet, or the Norwegian woman's headpiece of the equally elaborate one worn by the maidens of Holland. The shape of these caps perfectly suits the Teutonic type of beauty, but they do not accord well with Latin features, and for girls of that strain of blood there is no prettier model in bathing caps than the Italian kerchief of brilliantly striped wash silk or the turban of the masculine Turk, which is also a large handkerchief.

If you will adopt the cap of the Irish peasant woman of mature years you may dive recklessly, for this perfectly protects the hair when made up in silk rubber cut in circular shape and edged with a fluted trim which stands away becomingly from the head and the face.

BEAUTY HINT FOR YOUNG GIRL. If you are a young girl and your face is marked by moles do not be worried. They are not the sign of bad blood or anything else. On growing girls, hairs are coming through the skin. It is an invisible down, but nevertheless it is the cause of skin eruptions often up to 20 years of age.

Plenty of water taken into the body will give you in time a glorious complexion. Tea, coffee, "soft drinks," etc., injure your chances for a clear and attractive skin. So will a diet of pies, doughnuts and pickles.

Never squeeze a pimple. If you do, it is liable to cause much harm, for, remember, pimples are only inflamed spots, and bruising them makes them worse and may bring on a skin affection known as acne. This latter skin affection is a difficult matter to cure.

Wash the face night and morning in warm water and pure soap. Do not use a highly scented soap. After this dash cold water over your face, and let it go out into the cold air. Then be patient—your reward will be well worth it. You cannot hurry nature in her processes of development.

ENJOYABLE TROLLEY PARTY

Last Tuesday a number of the lady friends of Mrs. Thomas Griffin, chartered an electric car and went to Ayer, where they were met by Mr. Griffin who had provided a generous-sized hayrack with comfortable seats and sufficient of the "new-mown" to make the ride to Griffin farm, two miles away, an occasion long to be remembered. When they were safely landed on the spacious lawn and had enjoyed the unusual scenery from every point of the compass, each lady got busy spreading the contents of her box or basket upon long tables under the spreading elms for which Griffin farm is noted.

After the lunch had been disposed of the merry party romped at will over the fields and orchards till the hour for departure, which comes all too soon on such a pleasant occasion.

Just before boarding the hay-rack for their departure Miss Elizabeth O'Connor produced a box which had purposely been left unopened and in a few well-chosen words in behalf of the ladies present, presented the hostess, Mrs. Griffin, a beautiful silver bread tray, as a token of their esteem and friendship which has existed since happy school days. The success of the affair was due to the careful planning of Miss Marietta Urmley.

"SEVEN HOURS IN NEW YORK"

Here are a few facts about "Seven Hours in New York," which comes to the Canobie Lake park theatre on Monday, July 8 for the entire week. This is a mirth-provoking musical play, full of life and continuous action, presented by an exceptionally strong company of all round entertainers from the best companies in the country. In proof of this assertion there can be cited the appearance with the "Seven Hours" company of Maurice Briere, who was but lately featured with Trixie Friganza's "Sweetest Girl in Dixie" company; Grace King, the late prima donna with Elsie Janis, Mr. Fred Bailey, from the two big shows "The Tenderfoot" and "Top of the World" and the famous team of comedians, Thornton and Hall, last season with "The New Yorkers."

The action of the farce itself takes place in New York after a marvelous night of revelry that culminated in a disastrous ride in a taxi. The complications that arise from this ride are extremely ludicrous.

Cast of characters:
Filibert Knott, a human daffodil, Maurice Briere
Mrs. Hazel Knott, a little cracked, Grace King
Richard Batty another nut, Fred Bailey
Mrs. Rena Batty, a little off her base, Mable Oliver
Fuller Wheeler, a regular squirrel, Charles Osborne
Frank Cook, half baked, Frank Thornton
Violet Witte, nearly sane, Lois Hall
Neighbors and guests—Daisy Wayne, Marion Burton, Elmer Perry, Selma Carhorn, Estella Fairview, Blanche Noy.
Scene—The lawn in front of the Knott Bungalow.
Place—Brooklyn, N. Y. Time—Now.

Skin-health for baby in Resinol

If every woman whose little one is troubled by eczema, ringworm, rash or other itching skin disease would stop the itching and burning at once, and quickly clear away all trace of the eruption, there would be fewer suffering, disgruntled babies, fewer mothers worn out by constant worry and care, and fewer lives made miserable by skin troubles which have persisted since infancy.

Chicago, Ill., June 5, 1912: "My little daughter had a running sore, which I was told was a vesicopustule, on the back of her head from ear to ear, and also one which spread from one hip to the other, extending from the waist down, and made her unable to sit down. They itched her constantly. She had to be carried on a pillow, and night she could not sleep on account of the sores. What a relief she got the had to lie on her back. She suffered terribly, and would scratch continually. I bought Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment, and after about two weeks my child was well and happy." (Signed)

BACK VIEW IMPORTANT

As a rule, girls do not pay nearly enough attention to their backs. Yet no one can be well dressed unless she can bear an all round scrutiny. Many a woman would be astonished at the "character revelations" which she carries at her back. To a great extent a girl shows her character in her clothes and the way in which she wears them, but not only viewed from the front.

When a girl dresses her hair to suit her face, with never a thought to what it looks like viewed from behind, she will probably give the same one sided attention to other—more important, perhaps—matters. However charming the hair may look from the front, when the back discloses straggling ends or hair tightly strained—anything which shows carelessness or untidiness of arrangement—the whole effect is ruined.

It is important that a girl should never buy a hat by merely seeing her face beneath it. Viewed so it may suit her, but what of the back? For example, crowds of girls wear big hats which fall over their shoulders and completely hide the neck. The back view in such a case is absolutely ludicrous. Small hats and toques have a reverse habit unless carefully chosen and put on well. Many a toque presents a bird-like appearance at the back, showing a gaping void between hair and hat. Whenever a woman wears a small hat she should be quite sure that people behind can see she has a hat on and that her hair is dressed at the back in a way to accentuate the good appearance of the hat.

Women who wear veils should not be content with an attractive frontal arrangement. A veil is badly arranged when it drags unevenly across the back of a hat or the ends obtrude in an ungraceful way.

Neckwear and the arrangement of it are bad feminine failings. It is a common thing for girls to wear labels and collars which look delightful in front, but which are fastened in an "anyhow" fashion at the back—probably with a big, hideous safety pin. If pins are indispensable, and they seem to be for some collars, use tiny gilt or gold ones and fasten them in such a way as not to strike a note of untidy discard. When pins are not necessary women should provide all their collars and neckwear with proper fastenings put on in the proper places. The latter is important. Unless the fastenings are in the right places on a collar there will either be irritating gaps between them or the collar will fall crooked and the whole back effect be altogether wretched.

The same thing applies to blouses which fasten down the back. Many a woman's blouse, otherwise charming, shows a succession of little gaps, where it is fastened. A blouse, too, should always be well connected with the skirt. Women often give scanty attention to the arrangement of the waist at the back. There should be no separation between blouse, belt and skirt. The blouse should be pulled taut and smooth beneath the skirt. There should be no unevenness above or below ridge of blouse beneath the skirt. The skirt band should be fixed securely into position.

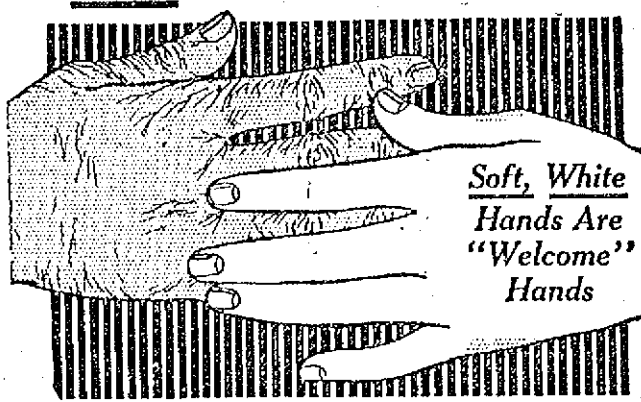

That a skirt should "hang" well is perhaps more essential from the back view than the front. Many girls pay no attention to the back of a skirt when it is in making. Consequently many skirts look all wrong at the back—bad length, tightness or looseness caused by bad arrangement of material.

A girl who does not trouble about the back views of her appearance may be usually depended upon to display a similar spirit with regard to other matters. There are plenty of people who know this people who scrutinize a woman's back carefully to find out what sort of person she really is.

CLOTHES FOR CAMPERS

Some Suggestions on How to Dress in Camp

A well known directress of a girls' camp suggests the following outfit for a stay of some length of time. If the camp is free from intrusion the girl may wear within its confines a cotton niddy blouse or a pair of woolen blouses. In such a costume any form of activity—tennis, fencing, canoeing or basketball—is possible. This must be supplemented, of course, by a bathing suit, preferably of dark colored material. While the suit with the knicker sleeve is exceedingly attractive it should be avoided by the swimmer, as it hampers the movements of the arms. If a girl is fortunate enough to possess two bathing suits she would do well to take both of the suits with her to camp. One can be put to use when the other takes an exceptionally long time to dry.

Tennis shoes for the daytime are a necessity. Unless the beach is a rocky one bathing slippers are not needed. One pair of walking boots for tramping, rubbers and slippers for dress occasions complete the shoe outfit.

After roughing it in serviceable clothes all day the girl often delights to dress in more feminine fashion for the evening. A blue serge of any simple costume with skirt waist effect, pongee or foulard if preferred will be a pleasure in the evenings, which are invariably cool in the mountains. This or a lingerie dress will come in handy when a neighboring hotel attracts the campers to some entertainment.

Instead of a white petticoat a salmon or a gingham one is advisable. The sweater and the coat should be warm, but light to carry about. If the rubber coat is used it should be as long as the skirt, for the latter should not absorb the water which drips off the bottom.

A bath robe, a laundry bag and a hot water bottle are imperative. If there is room left in the trunk musical instruments, sketching materials, radio work, books, games and a hammock and cushions will be welcome additions.

If bedding or pillows are required, as they often are, they can be put in a roll and checked.

With a judicious selection and packing of these articles both the girl and her mother may be sure they have satisfied the demands of beauty and practicality.

The hotel is sometimes attractive by way of contrast, but no girl who has ever summered in a camp will choose any other place for a vacation. The same, healthful influence of camp life, with its exhilaration and freedom, is far better for the growing girl than the forced life of a summer resort.

THINGS YOU SHOULD KEEP CLEAN WITH CARBONOL

SOMETIMES soap-and-water cleanliness is enough. Sometimes aseptic cleanliness is absolutely necessary, and in such cases you should mix Carbonol in the water used in cleaning. A dash of Carbonol in a pail of water gives the whole mixture powerful disinfecting qualities.

Garbage cans and all repositories of refuse should be cleaned with it to kill the germs, to keep away flies and to suppress odors.

Carbonol is equally useful in general cleaning. Put it in the water when you mop the floors or wash the woodwork. Use it especially in cleaning the sickroom where there has been contagious disease. Sprinkle it in the cellar before sweeping and the musty smell will disappear.

A sample bottle with booklet will be sent free on request.

REV. D.A. BARRY O.M.I. HAS BEEN TRANSFERRED TO SEATTLE, WASH.

Rev. D. A. Barry, O. M. I., of the Tewksbury novitiate has gone to Seattle, Washington, where he will do parish work at St. Bernard's church. Fr. Barry, came to this country from Ireland in 1897 and was employed by the John Hancock Insurance company for four years. He was very successful and made many friends while connected with the company. In 1901 he was offered the assistant superintendency of the company, but resigned to study for the priesthood. He then went to Holy Angels college, Buffalo, and upon graduation from that institution he entered the novitiate at Tewksbury. In 1911 he was ordained to the priesthood at the Holy Cross cathedral in Boston by Rt. Rev. Bishop Anderson.

Rev. Fr. Barry will be associated in his work with Rev. Eugene A. Dorgan, O. M. I., the pastor and Rev. Patrick McGrath, O. M. I., formerly of the Immaculate Conception church of this city.

FORTY-ONE WERE KILLED IN WRECK--- EXCURSION TRAIN CUT TO PIECES BY EXPRESS

CORNING, N. Y., July 5.—Westbound Lackawanna passenger train No. 9, from New York, due to arrive at Corning at 4.47 a. m. yesterday, composed of two locomotives, a baggage car, three parlor cars and two day coaches. In the order named, was demolished at Gibson, three miles east of Corning at 5.25 o'clock yesterday morning by express train No. 11, due at Corning at 5.10 a. m.

Forty-one persons were killed and between 50 and 60 injured.

Many of the victims were holiday excursionists bound to Niagara Falls, who had boarded the train at Hoboken along the Lackawanna from Hoboken to Buffalo.

The wreck was the worst in the history of the road. Its cause, according to Engineer Schroeder of the express, was his failure to see the signals set against his train. The morning was so foggy, he said, that he could not distinguish them.

The wrecked train stood on the main track, blocked by a crippled extra freight train No. 61. There was no flag out, according to Engineer Schroeder. The signals were just around the curve. The flying express ploughed past them and crashed into the rear of No. 9, bringing death to more than two score of its passengers.

Running 65 Miles an Hour

Schroeder had taken No. 11 at Elmira 15 minutes before. It was a few minutes late. The stretch of track from Elmira to Corning is fitted for fast running, and he was sending his train along at the rate of 65 miles an hour. No. 9 was supposed to be half an hour ahead of him.

He had no warning until he made out the outline of the rear coach of No. 9 through the fog that was crawling up the mountain from the river far below. Then he saw the lights ahead and threw the reverse without shutting off steam.

The jerk threw the train off the track, and the locomotive plunged on a few rods further, to splinter the two-day coaches filled with excursionists and tear through the last of the parlor cars.

Schroeder said that the impact was so great that it threw him from the cab and landed him on his shoulder on the roadbed, practically unhurt.

Thousands Rush to Scene

The 100-ton monster continued its plunge through the middle of the train, grinding everything in its path. It seemed as if it would cut through every car. When it was finally blocked by a mountain of debris, it remained on the roadbed while thousands rushed to the scene to pry the dead and injured from the tangled mass of wreckage.

Taking advantage Fourth of July morning of the excursion rates the Lackawanna had offered from Hoboken to Buffalo and Niagara Falls, many excursionists had boarded No. 9 at all points from Hoboken including Scranton, Binghamton and Elmira.

There were also many passengers for the west, as there was direct connection through to Chicago at Buffalo. There was such a load by the time the train reached Elmira that a second locomotive was attached there to take the train over the hill at Groveland, 65 miles west.

Long before No. 9 left Elmira, extra freight train No. 61, bound for Buffalo from Scranton, had pulled through. When the heavy grade at Gibson was reached, a draw-head pulled out, and No. 61 was crippled. Signals which she put out stopped No. 9 as the latter came up with her two locomotives.

The first locomotive was uncoupled and set at work to push the dead end of the freight into a siding to allow No. 9 and No. 11 which were due in 25 or 30 minutes to pass. The work was slow and considerable time elapsed. During the monotonous wait many passengers from the day coaches got out and investigated the cause of the delay.

Bodies Badly Mangled

Meanwhile the signals had been thrown against No. 11, which was tearing along at 65 miles an hour toward the stalled train. These failed to stop the express and the crash followed.

Rescuers were quickly on the scene. In what seemed an incredibly short time hundreds of automobiles had lined the highway. By 3 o'clock physicians had started all of the wounded on their way to the hospitals or were giving emergency attention to victims on the scene. The only exceptions were a few persons who had been planned beneath wreckage so difficult to penetrate that it was some time before they were released.

Thirteen of the injured and 10 of the dead were taken to Elmira on a special train. All the other dead were taken to undertaking rooms in Corning and the remainder of the injured were conveyed to the Corning City hospital.

All the physicians in the city were summoned and many ministers and priests were called to administer last sacraments and receive messages for relatives and friends from the dying.

Most of the bodies found were badly mangled. The cars themselves were one heaped up mass of wreckage, jamming into each other in telephone fashion. The last two cars on train No. 11 remained on the track and later were used as hospital coaches.

A special train from Elmira had brought surgical assistance from that city and it was this train that afterwards aided in removing the dead and injured.

Last Rites Performed

At the Corning hospital, which has accommodations for only 10 patients, some of the injured had to lie upon the floors until the physicians could reach them and give them necessary attention.

Those who visited the scene of the wreck before the hospital forces had had time to finish the work of removal, witnessed many scenes of horror. One man picked up a small white sheet which lay upon the ground, only to draw back, when faced as his act revealed the body of a baby only a few months old.

At a late hour the child had not been identified.

Rev. John T. Cassidy, a Catholic priest, was one of the early arrivals at the wreck. He administered to the injured and performed the last rites of the church for those who died.

Once he had a long line of automobiles and several wagons bound for the morgue while he performed the rites across the body of a little girl which lay across the highway. The automobiles and bystanders stood about with bowed heads.

The people of Corning have opened their homes to the injured who could not find accommodations at the hospitals or whose injuries were too slight to warrant their crowding other persons from the institution.

Bracelet Straightened Out

Yesterday afternoon the workmen at the scene of the wreck picked up a human skull which was entirely devoid of marks which would indicate whether it came from man or woman.

A gold bracelet bearing the initials "E. A. H." was found in the wreckage yesterday afternoon. It had been pulled nearly straight. It is supposed to have been upon the wrist of Mrs. Edith A. Hess of Scranton, Pa., who was among those killed.

Although Engineer Schroeder of the express declared there was no flagman to warn him of the presence of the stalled train ahead, Lackawanna offi-

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

No company of players who have come to Lowell were ever greeted more cordially than the members of the Harvard Stock company, who are this week engaged in the presentation of "The Rosary," a four act play founded on present day facts that are not uncommon in the average community. The piece tells a strong story and its manner of unfolding is so cleverly done that it appeals to all classes and tastes. The various characters introduced are not overdrawn but are as realistic as were ever seen on the stage. Mr. Brady, Miss Valaire, Mr. Stevens and the others engaged in the cast seem to be peculiarly fitted for the respective characters to which they have been assigned. The play is staged in a correct and highly artistic manner. Incidental to the presentation of the stock company the program includes the very latest and best of photo-plays and illustrated songs given by Miss Alice Bagley, a local singer of repute. The entire bill from top to bottom is such as to warrant liberal patronage. Next week the management has secured a new series of high class vaudeville acts and picture plays that have never before been shown locally and should serve to provide the same enjoyment which past performances have.

Patrons are reminded of the fact that the temperature of the theatre is kept comfortable at all times. Even in the heat of the past few days, theatregoers who have visited this playhouse have found the conditions such as to almost warrant their attendance simply to escape the uncomfortable weather conditions in the street and at home. Electric fans, ozonators and numerous exits combine in making the place cool and delightful.

Roy & O'Neil, 88 Prescott street, sell The "Ironless" Pant Pressers.

LAKEVIEW DANCE HALL

Lakeview was visited by very large crowds all day yesterday, and while many found enjoyment at the bowling alleys, which are equipped with electric fans, and the theatre and coasters, the majority of those who went to the park could not resist the temptation to take a glide on the floor of the dance hall and whirl around to the entrancing strains of Kittredge's orchestra of eight pieces. The music was grand, and the patriotic selections were particularly enjoyed. The xylophone and bell selections given by Tom Pool were very pleasing and the popular drummer was the recipient of considerable applause and favorable comment for his work. Mr. Pool will entertain for the remainder of the week, with a series of selections. John Y. Myers, who has established a fine reputation for his excellent singing abilities, made a big hit with the holiday crowd. He sang the choruses of all the songs played and his sweet voice resounded through the beautiful hall with great effect. Mr. Myers will also remain at the hall and contribute to the program during the week. The management of the hall arranged with the railway company to provide more cars for the accommodation of the visitors to the park and now when the air in the city is unbearable one may ride to Lakeview where the breezes are invigorating and the hall cool and comfortable.

The Saturday after the Fourth is "Dividend Quarter Day" at The Lowell Five Cent Savings Bank.

The Fakirs Took in Quiet a Sum

The midway was the same old place as of yore and about the same old games were in evidence. The crowd at the South common was not quite as large, perhaps, as in previous years but it was a jolly crowd and money was spent with lavish hand. About all of the fakirs were wearing happy smiles and there was a great demand for cool drinks. It is unnecessary to recite the list of attractions, for they were the same as have been coming here for years and the out-door barker was offering the same lingo. He looked real serious and honest when he said that what was shown on the canvas outside was "really alive and living on the inside." The hobby horses, ferris wheels, "motion of the ocean" and other contrivances that carried one through the air and developed a breeze were well patronized. The Kasino dance hall, however, proved too strong an attraction for the midway and the crowd that surged through the common soon found its way to the Kasino where the "light fantastic toe" was tripped till early morn.

It's a wonderfully good natured crowd that visits the midway. The fellow who would look daggers if you brushed up against him or crowded him in any other place will take it all in good part on the midway and the procession goes merrily on. Everybody seems to know everybody and after all, perhaps, the midway isn't such a terrible nuisance. Sometimes you don't find as many horns on the horned woman and the twenty-toed man may be shy a few toes, but aside from these trifling misrepresentations the midway is not at all bad and we hope that you may live to see and enjoy many more of them.

BOOM LOWELL

It would be a good idea for the Board of Trade to institute annually a prize essay contest on the subject, "How best to boom Lowell."

This is a subject that should be kept to the front among our citizens and that should be impressed upon the young people at school.

Lowell is admirably situated on the confluence of two great rivers to become the greatest manufacturing centre in the world. Already she has attained wide distinction for her carpet factories, her print mills, her hosieries, her cotton mills, her machine shops and above all for her textile school. She is gradually attaining a diversity of industry that will raise the standard of wages in all lines and increase her prosperity at all points. Lowell has a better class of factory help than most of the other mill cities of New England. They are less turbulent and with few exceptions make no trouble unless they are very seriously imposed upon. The best of feeling usually exists between the mill men and their employees, and the same may be said of the employees of most of the other industries throughout the city. The peaceful disposition of the laboring people of this city was shown during the recent strike or lockout when the skilled operatives kept aloof from the turbulent element and went out only when the mills had to shut down because so many of the unskilled operatives had quit.

The mills of Lowell pay at the present time as high a rate of wages as is paid in any mill city, although at the present high cost of living even a higher rate would seem insufficient.

There are many ways in which Lowell can be boomed as a city, and it would be well to interest young and old of all classes in the work of booming Lowell, keeping her business, her prosperity and her reputation to the front. One way to boom Lowell is to improve her advantages and correct what is wrong, not to minimize her worth and shrink her faults from the house-tops.

THE BOSTON CAR STRIKE

The Boston car strike is being carried to dangerous extremes and at a time of year when the public should not be subjected to any such danger or inconvenience. That strike should be arbitrated at once. The legislature, as we pointed out on several occasions, should have enacted a law making all such strikes and lockouts illegal until thoroughly investigated. There is no reason, constitutional or otherwise, why the public should be subjected to such abuse, inconvenience and danger. The contending parties are not to blame, but the legislature is to blame for not making due provision for the protection of the public in its right to safe transportation and to attend to business without interruption.

The state board of arbitration and conciliation is endeavoring to settle the strike, but that is about the most useless of all the commissions, never doing anything worth while until the parties to the strike are sick of the fight and want some excuse for a truce.

When the earthen resort to the use of dynamite, the public is in serious jeopardy. When such danger is threatened it is time to take proper steps to safeguard the traveling public even if the militia must be called upon. But not all the militia in the state could guard all the lines passing in and out of Boston.

This is clearly a case in which the legislature should take control and enact laws to apply to the situation.

DEMOCRATS SHOULD VOTE FOR THEIR OWN INTERESTS.

It is possible that some of the supporters of Champ Clark for the democratic nomination, especially in the west, will be inclined to vote for President Taft instead of Gov. Wilson, the nominee of the democratic party. This is due to a personal attachment to the president, but those who feel so inclined remember that in voting for Taft they vote for the republican tariff and all its extortions and abuses.

A great many democrats have been doing that for the last 20 years, and they see the result. If they want to prolong the life of the trusts, the high cost of living and the domination of the money power, then they should vote the republican ticket. But if they want popular government and a reduction in the tariff that will restore competition; if they want measures that will safeguard the rights and interests of the people at all points, then they should vote for Wilson and not for President Taft who will in all probability be defeated anyhow.

No man should underestimate the value of his vote in the coming contest. It has often happened that a single vote has decided a contest of the greatest importance. The issues involved in this election are the most important since war-times, and it behooves every voter to do his duty. If men make fools of themselves by shouting against the government and voting for the retention of the old regime then they know what they may expect.

The wage-earner who votes for Wilson will vote for his own best interests; but if he votes either for Taft or Roosevelt he will vote against himself and his family.

THE DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM

The democratic platform, though drafted earlier, was not adopted until after the nominations were made late Tuesday night. It is the most comprehensive and progressive platform ever adopted by the party, and yet there is not a single plank in the whole document that can be considered ultra radical.

The first and foremost principle of the platform is that of popular rule by which the trusts and combines can be overthrown, the tariff justly reduced to a revenue basis, competition restored so as to cut down the cost of living, and the currency system so revised that it may be protected alike against contraction and inflation while at the same time being elastic enough to meet all the needs of the country and prevent panics such as we have suffered from in the past.

While strictly progressive the platform is remarkably free from that ultra radicalism which characterized the platform of 1896. It is truly a platform that must appeal to all fair-minded men and in conjunction with the strong nominations made, it should greatly assist in the onward march to victory.

The protection of state rights against federal encroachment, the income tax, popular election of senators, presidential primaries, single term, rate regulation and the conservation of national resources, are all provided for in this platform, so that the chief issues advocated by progressive democrats for years are dealt with in this platform in a manner that must satisfy the most progressive.

SEEN AND HEARD

William M. Chase, at the recent sale of his pictures in New York, said to a reporter:

"Yes, there are all good things things collected with great care. You can't comment on them as the teacher once commented on the pupils' drawing."

"I draw what I see," the pupils said complacently.

"Well, the shock will come," the teacher answered, "when you see what you have drawn."

A minister's wife, a doctor's wife and a traveler's wife met one day recently, and were talking about the forgetfulness of their husbands. The minister's wife thought her husband was the most forgetful man living, because he would go to church and forget his notes, and no one could make out what he was trying to preach about.

The doctor's wife thought her husband the most forgetful, for he would often start out to see a patient and forget his medicine case, and therefore travel miles for nothing.

"Well," said the traveler's wife, "my husband beats that. He came home the other day and patted me on the cheek, and said, 'I believe I have seen you before, little girl. What is your name?'"

Not far from Boston, says the New York Sun, there is a sign bearing this announcement:

"No trespassing except on business."

In the railway carriages running between Calais and Paris there used to be a peculiar device for summoning the conductor or guard. In each compartment dangled a ring fastened to the end of a cord. Below, in French, German and English was the notice, (the English version of which read: "Should at any time the presence of the guard be deemed necessary, the passenger will please break the glass, pull the cord and agitate his arm out the hand window according as the train is going."

Here is another notice which was designed to put travelers on their guard against unauthorized guides to Mount Vesuvius and to warn tourists to take the guides' numbers if they wished to make complaint:

"The Vesuvius guides acknowledged by the company are only those who have a number of recognition at the hotel and an inscription 'Guida del Vesuvio.' Travelers are earnestly requested to remember that number of recognition to the guide who escort them, and to declare it if they have any complaint to do; differently the company will be in the impossibility to pursue such reclamation."

AT THE END OF THE WAY
Have done with love forever—
With all its peace and pain,
And never more—ah, never,
Still we shall meet again!
Not as in days departed—
Not as in rose-sweet years;
You leave me broken-hearted—
Your gift to me was tears!

Not that I doubt you love me—
Or did through wreck and wrong,
From flower-fair heights above me
You loved me for a song!
Underneath of bells were ringing,
Skies that were dark seemed blue,
And all my sweetest seemed,
Was of the love of you!

Strange stars above you gleaming,
Lost ships that came to shore;
You knew that you were dreaming
With you must dream no more.
With you and certain seeing
I mark the dream's decline
And feel your radiant being
Slip from the clasp of mine.

With tears, perchance, and sighing,
Where all is gloom and blight,
I feel it as the dying
Feel the vague loss of light;
And as the shadows darken,
Stretch unavailing hands,
To where no loved ones hearken
In undiscovered lands.

Farewell, Love's richest treasure—
The beauty and the beam!
Farewell the pain, the pleasure,
Farewell the dream—the dream!
The Future is adorning
For you a splendid sky;
Love only said "Good morning,"
To say "Good-night—Good-bye!"
—Atlanta Constitution.

APPETIZING SANDWICHES
Red pepper sandwiches are artistic and appetizing. Use the canned sweet red peppers, chop fine and mix to a smooth paste with mayonnaise.

A rather snappy filling is made from cheese thinned with mayonnaise, with chopped nuts and red peppers stirred in. On top of the mixture is placed an anchovy or a bit of boned and skinned sardine.

People who are pale, languid, with slight palpitation of the heart, some difficulty in breathing and a tendency to fatigue are suffering from thin blood. They need only the resolution to take the right treatment and stick to it until cured. The remedy that can be relied upon is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. With every dose they make new blood and new blood means health and strength. They stop the progress of the disease and their success as a blood-builder can be plainly seen after a short trial. Thinned cheeks, good appetite, increased weight and strength, cheerful disposition and relief from the symptoms, all declare the general improvement in health. It is pure blood now that is traveling everywhere through the body and the fundamental good health is restored.

Mrs. E. J. King, of No. 124 Poplar street, Cardiff, Pa., says:

"A few years ago I began to fail in health because of the poor condition of my blood. I was weak and tired out all of the time and sleep. I had frequent sick headaches and suffered terribly with them. I lost in weight. I was so blue and down-hearted that I felt as though I was never going to be well and strong again. I couldn't sleep well and had terrible dreams. I was nervous and irritable and couldn't stand still a minute.

"My mother advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. After I had used the first box, I began to gain. I used them perhaps longer than I need to, but continued taking them until I was certain that I was cured."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills contain the elements necessary to make new blood, and as the nerves get their nourishment from the blood, have been found invaluable in a wide range of diseases of the blood and nerves, such as rheumatism, after-effects of the grip and fever, neuritis, nervous debility, St. Vitus' dance and even partial paralysis and locomotor ataxia.

The remedy which gave Mrs. King complete health can be obtained at any drug store or direct from the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., at 60 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50.

POPULAR TEACHER

MISS MARY I. DONLAN

Formerly of Lowell Died

Suddenly

The news of the sudden death of Miss Mary I. Donlan while visiting her brother, Dr. Donlan, superintendent of the Long Island hospital in Boston harbor, came as a severe shock to her relatives as well as to her wide circle of friends and former associates in this city.

Miss Donlan was formerly a teacher in the Butler school and was beloved by all with whom she came in contact for her genial, cheerful ways, her cordiality as a friend and her helpfulness to those around her. She was a highly talented girl and although successful as a grammar school teacher, still she had ambitions in other lines of work. The introduction of manual training in the schools of Lowell and other cities attracted her attention. Miss Donlan, gifted with mechanical genius, realizing that with a little preparation she could teach this branch, immediately began to study the various branches of the art. She took a course of training in the Shoda system, mastering it in a wonderfully short time. She had already become an expert in bookbinding, paper box and wicker work. In before the end came. Death was due to thrombosis of a clot in a blood vessel. She leaves besides her brother, Dr. Charles E. Donlan, one sister, Miss Esther Donlan, also a teacher, now in Europe.

The body was brought to the home of Mrs. Ann O'Connor, her aunt, at 23 Wamesit street, by Undertaker O'Donnell.

Money deposited today at The Lowell Five Cent Savings Bank begins to draw interest July 6th.

Lowell 14 Brockton 2

INNINGS	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Lowell	0	1	3	0	2	0	0	8	X

Brockton, the topnotchers of the New England league clashed with Lowell at Spaulding park this afternoon and inasmuch as the Shoe City aggregation dropped two games to Lawrence yesterday the local fans were very enthusiastic and about 500 turned out to witness the game.

Zeiser was on the slab for Lowell with Lavigne behind the bat, while for the visitors Anderson did the pitching and Wadleigh was catching.

Umpire Kerins called the game shortly after three o'clock. The batting order was as follows:

Lowell
Clemens of Miller 2b
De Groff rf
Halstein lb
Mabee lf
Bouttes 3b
Loneragan ss

Brockton
J. Sullivan started off with a fly to Halstein. Smith hit one too hot for Bouttes to handle and he reached first, but when he tried to steal second he was thrown out. Lavigne to Loneragan. Howard drew a free pass but Boardman was third out on strikes. Clemens tied to Smith and Miller walked. Miller tried to steal second and lost. De Groff sent the ball to right field for a two-bagger. Halstein hit to Anderson and died at first.

Runs	Hits	Errors

First Inning
There was nothing doing in the first inning. J. Sullivan started off with a fly to Halstein. Smith hit one too hot for Bouttes to handle and he reached first, but when he tried to steal second he was thrown out. Lavigne to Loneragan. Howard drew a free pass but Boardman was third out on strikes. Clemens tied to Smith and Miller walked. Miller tried to steal second and lost. De Groff sent the ball to right field for a two-bagger. Halstein hit to Anderson and died at first.

Score—Lowell 0, Brockton 0.

Second Inning
In the second inning Barry struck out and McLane tied to Clemens while Kauff was third out. Miller to first. Mabee sent the ball to Anderson and failed to reach first and Bouttes hit to Howard and was out at first. Loneragan singled to left and then stole second. Lavigne doubled to left field, scoring Loneragan. Zeiser went out, Sullivan to first.

Score—Lowell 1, Brockton 0.

Third Inning
Wadleigh hit to Miller and died at first and Anderson followed with a single to right. Sullivan hit to Halstein who threw to Loneragan getting Anderson. Smith tied to Clemens.

Fourth Inning
The visitors scored two runs in the fourth inning. Howard flied out to Lavigne and Boardman followed with a single over second. Barry drew a free pass. McLane singled and Boardman scored. Kauff singled over second scoring Barry. Wadleigh sent up an infield fly and was out. Anderson was third out. Loneragan to first.

Fifth Inning
Sullivan opened the fifth with a single but Smith hit to Loneragan and died at first. Howard, the former Lowell player, had three balls called on him but Zeiser got to the merry and handed three strikes over the plate. Boardman was third out. Zeiser to first. Miller tied to Anderson and De Groff walked. Halstein sent the sphere to right field for two bases scoring De Groff. Halstein went to third on a bad throw which Anderson made to get him. Mabee sent a grounder to Barry. Bouttes singled to centre field scoring Halstein. Loneragan went to first after being hit by a pitched ball. Zeiser took a lead off second and when Anderson threw to get him his aim was poor and Bouttes went to third while Loneragan traveled to second. Lavigne closed the inning by flying to Smith.

Sixth Inning
In the sixth inning Barry hit to Miller and was retired at first and then McLane went to first after being hit by a pitched ball. Kauff walked. Wadleigh tied to De Groff and then Anderson sent a fly to De Groff and the latter after a long hard run caught the ball.

Seventh Inning
Sullivan tied to Clemens. Smith went out. Miller to Halstein and Howard got a base on balls. Boardman tied to De Groff.

Eighth Inning
Barry tied to De Groff. McLane tied to Zeiser and Kauff flied to Boardman. Loneragan singled to left field and then stole second base. Lavigne sent the ball over the left field fence for a home run scoring Loneragan and himself. Zeiser tied to Kauff. Clemens got an infield hit to Anderson and Barry dropped the ball and was safe. De Groff walked, filling the bases. Halstein singled to centre and Clemens and Miller scored. Mabee sent the ball to the extreme right field corner for a home run, scoring De Groff, Halstein and himself. Bouttes hit to Sullivan and was out at first. Loneragan walked. Lavigne made a three bagger to right field scoring Loneragan but in trying to make a home run he was nailed; the plate.

Ninth Inning
Wadleigh tied to Miller. Garrison went to bat for Anderson. He hit out. Zeiser to first. Sullivan hit to Halstein and threw to Zeiser, who covered first.

Score—Lowell 14, Brockton 2.

A SAFE AND SANE FOURTH OF JULY WAS ENJOYED BY LOWELL PEOPLE

Well, how do you like a safe and sane Fourth? Lowell had one yesterday, and it seems as if everybody enjoyed it. The cannon cracker was relegated to a back seat and just for that the clang of the ambulance was not heard in the street. There was noise enough to be sure, but it wasn't the kind of noise that meant more work for the undertaker, and while some of it perhaps could not be properly classified as safe, it was safe, and safety is a redeeming quality. You noticed, too, that there were very few fires, and boys and girls went home with all their fingers on. They had a good time and the only fellow we had reason to aim a kick at was the weather clerk. He attended strictly to the furnace and we all suffered more or less on his account. In order to thoroughly enjoy this new and very commendable notion of a safe and sane Fourth, we will have to get on the good side of the weather clerk, for we certainly need his co-operation. If he will but intercede himself in the movement everything will be fine and dandy.

Now as to our observance of yesterday, what else can be said but that it was safe and sane? It would have been very nice, perhaps, to have had a municipal fireworks display, but we have really arrived at a point where we haven't any money to burn. Yesterday's observance will not cost more than $1000, for that's all that was appropriated, and the chances are that Mayor O'Donnell planned to have the expense well within that amount. Whatever the amount, it will be paid out of the commissioners' fund and not by special appropriation. The observance was really a distinct departure from the observances of other years.

BARRETT QUESTIONS STILES ABOUT LOAN OF $300,000

Alderman Says Money Was Borrowed When There Was $485,000 in Treasury

The hearing on the charges preferred against City Treasurer Stiles by Alderman Barrett was resumed before the municipal council this afternoon and the hope was expressed that the hearing would be completed today. It seems to be the general impression, at city hall, at least, that the municipal council will vote to retain Mr. Stiles, though the vote may not be unanimous.

Alderman Barrett appeared in negligence at today's meeting and some comment being made. Mayor O'Donnell said: "As this is not a court of justice your costume, or lack of same, is not a breach of decorum."

City Solicitor Hennessey following the example set by Alderman Barrett relieved himself of his coat and the reporters followed suit.

The bond of Daniel E. Hogan, an assessor of taxes and to allow him to draw his salary from the city, was read by the mayor. The bond was for the purpose of protecting the city in case the courts should decide that he was not legally elected to the place. The matter was laid over for one week.

Mayor O'Donnell called to order at 2:15 o'clock. There was not a soul in the gallery and that was rather unusual. The hot weather was the answer. Petitions having to do with pole locations, conduits, wire attachments, etc., were properly referred.

Commissioner Cummings gave notice that Architect Henry L. Bourke had been engaged to prepare plans for the new board of health stable in Broadway.

At 2:30 o'clock Ald. Barrett resumed his examination of City Treasurer Stiles and considerable territory was gone over that had already been covered.

Mr. Barrett's purpose was to show that money had been borrowed unnecessarily. He said that Mr. Stiles had negotiated a loan of $300,000 when there was $485,000 in the treasury. He asked Mr. Stiles why the loan was negotiated and Mr. Stiles said it was borrowed in order to take advantage of a low rate of interest.

Alderman Barrett said he was not questioning the proper expenditure of the money, but he did not understand why $300,000 should be borrowed when there was already nearly half a million dollars in the treasury. The loan in question was made in 1907.

Alderman Barrett went on to show that unnecessary money had been borrowed year after year and he said that the city had paid thousands of dollars interest that it should not have paid because there was already money enough on hand when the loans were made. He showed that in 1909 the treasurer got along on less than half the amount used in 1908. Then again a loan was made in 1910 while there was still a good balance in the treasury.

Mr. Stiles said he couldn't recall the circumstances. He said that all loans had the approval of the mayor.

"Did the mayor always go to you and suggest about borrowing money?" asked Alderman Barrett.

"Oh, no," said Mr. Stiles.

"Did any member of the city council ever bring pressure to bear upon you to borrow money?" asked Alderman Barrett.

"No loans were ever suggested except by the mayor," said Mr. Stiles.

"The city paid from $12,000 to $20,000 in unnecessary interest money. I want to know if you put all the blame on previous mayors," said Mr. Barrett.

"No, the rate of interest had something to do with it."

"Do you say it is wise to borrow three or four months in advance of the time the money is required because you get less than one per cent better rate?" asked Mr. Barrett.

"That depends," said Mr. Stiles.

Ald. Cummings wanted to know what the committees on finance of the different governments had been doing. He thought that committee was in a great measure responsible for loans, etc., and he asked Mr. Stiles what he knew about that committee.

Mr. Stiles said that the last time the committee on finance met with him was in 1906 and that meeting had to do with the purchase of something for the trustees of the city library.

Followed Instructions
In reply to a question by Mr. Donahue, Mr. Stiles said he borrowed money only as he was instructed to by the mayor.

The question of the blots on certain books as referred to by the expert accountant in his report were touched upon by Mr. Donahue and he asked to have Clerk Reardon of the assessors' office called upon to answer a few questions. The messenger was dispatched to the assessors' office to notify Mr. Reardon.

"Do you remember Mr. Rex coming to your office with Mr. Farrell, and bringing a book with him?" asked Mr. Donahue.

"Yes sir."

"Did Mr. Farrell ask you to explain something?"

"Mr. Farrell gave me the book. It was what we call the creditor's books. Mr. Rex pointed out a wrong footing or total, and Mr. Farrell asked me to explain. The book showed 32 cents to represent $100. I showed him the original book and papers carrying the proper total and Mr. Rex was satisfied. The book was changed in the presence of Mr. Rex."

"What is the purpose of an overlay?" asked Ald. Barrett.

"For the purpose of taking care of fractional tax rates," said Mr. Reardon.

Asked if he thought the sum of $55,000 was at any time necessary to take care of fractional rates, Mr. Reardon said he didn't know as it was.

Use of Overlays
"Could overlays be used for any other purpose than the abatement of taxes and to avoid fraction of rates?" asked Mr. Barrett.

"Yes, for any purpose that the city council might authorize," said Mr. Reardon.

"Did you tell me, Mr. Reardon, that when the assessors found out that the money raised by them to take care of fractional taxes was not being used for that purpose that they decided not to raise any money?" asked Mr. Barrett.

"I might have made some such statement," said Mr. Reardon.

Mr. Barrett said he had gone over the records for the last ten or eleven years and was unable to find where the city council had at any time voted to appropriate money raised by the assessors of taxes for the purpose of taking care of fractional rates.

Alderman Cummings, getting back to arrangements for loans, said things had come to a pretty pass when all a city treasurer had to do was to pass a loan order to a member of the city council and have it passed.

"Do you mean to say," said Mr. Cummings, "that the three shining lights who served in the city council and later went to the legislature allowed the city's business to be conducted in that manner?"

No answer.

Mr. Barrett declared, without reserve, that the mayor has nothing to do with the borrowing of money.

"The mayor never had anything to do with the making of loans and when they are made he might as well be in Timbuctoo," said Mr. Barrett.

Going to the defence of the city treasurer, Ald. Brown said, "When he was mayor, Mr. Stiles did not make any loans before consulting him."

At 3:15 all parties concerned agreed that they had no more evidence to put in and on motion of Ald. Brown the hearing was continued to Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at which time the arguments will be made.

Mayor O'Donnell preferred to have the arguments made in the day time and voted against the motion. "I voted against the motion," said the mayor, "because I dislike to see a free show made of these meetings, and that is what has happened in a good many cases."

SERIOUS RIOTING AT HAVRE, FRANCE

In Connection With Seamen's Strike

HAVRE, France, July 5.—The strike of seamen and dock laborers, which is spreading rapidly throughout France, was accompanied late last evening by serious rioting here. A number of strikers took possession of a local steamer and when expelled and driven off by the police, gathered again at the docks and met the police and a detachment of infantry which had been called to support them with showers of stones, bricks and other missiles.

Many of the soldiers and police were injured by bricks hurled from windows of houses in adjacent streets.

The strikers were finally forced to retire, but retreated slowly, erecting barricades consisting of wagons and furniture in many of the streets. They broke all the windows in the two principal police stations of the city. Among the ringleaders of the strike were several excited women wearing flaming red sashes.

and the very distinct feature of the program was the patriotic exercises held in the councilmanic chamber at city hall during the forenoon. The meeting was not very well attended but was interesting throughout.

Exercises at City Hall

The patriotic exercises at city hall in the forenoon were the most impressive that have been held in this city for many years and while the attendance was not large the meeting was an important and pleasant feature of the day's observance. The exercises were held in the old councilmanic chamber where the city fathers were wont to leave their slogs in words and deeds under the old form of government, and the attendance numbered about 100. The chamber was prettily decorated for the occasion, the doors, windows, speaker's desk and gallery being draped with American flags. The Declaration of Independence was solemnly read by a schoolboy, Master Arthur St. Cyr, and there was an eloquent patriotic address by Solon W. Stevens. A rather striking feature of the proceedings was the arrival of a colored woman who was politely escorted to a front seat just as the quartet was about to sing "My Old Kentucky Home." Her name was Sarah Mann and she lives at 37 June street. Her eyesight was very poor but she made her way to city hall because she said she wanted to attend the patriotic exercises. "It was a lovely meeting," she said, "and I enjoyed it very much. It seemed as if they sang 'My Old Kentucky Home' just for me."

MASTER ARTHUR ST. CYR.
Who Read the Declaration of Independence.

The exercises were scheduled to begin at 10 o'clock, and it was but a very few minutes after that hour when Very Rev. T. Wade Smith, O. M. I., gave the invocation. His prayer was as follows:

"O God, Our Father in heaven: we offer Thee on this glorious Independence day our prayer of thanksgiving and supplication, for the boon of constitutional freedom, and supplication for a continuance of Thy favor."

"O God, whose treasury of goodness is infinite, and from whom alone all good proceeds, who hast chosen us to be the light of freedom to the nations, who hast conferred on us peace and plenty, receive this day our grateful thanks. To Thee alone be all honor and thanksgiving."

"May Thy name be glorified in the lives of us, Thy children, that in spirit and act we may proclaim to the world the nobility with which Thou hast endowed us."

"May we strive in our life's work to accomplish the task Thou hast given us; not envious of our neighbor's goods, not trusting in perishable things, and, as we rightfully enjoy the boon of our freedom, teach us to be merciful to our brother, as we claim mercy from Thee."

"Let us not, O Lord, be drawn away from Thy righteous law, seeking to follow the vain fantasies of false prophecies; but, by loyalty to God and country, may we bequeath to succeeding generations the glorious inheritance we received from heroic, God-fearing predecessors—our Independence!"

"Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean," was sung by a quartet consisting of Mrs. Lawrence Jordan soprano, Mrs. George F. Burns contralto, Charles G. Martin tenor, and George E. Burns bass.

The Declaration of Independence was read by Master Arthur St. Cyr of Holy Angels college, Buffalo, and despite of the fact that Arthur is but 13 years old, he has established a reputation as a scholar, reader and public speaker. His reading of the Declaration of Independence yesterday was exceptionally good, and his listeners showed their appreciation by prolonged applause.

The quartet sang the beautiful "Song of Liberty" (Mrs. H. H. A. French), after which Solon W. Stevens, Esq., gave the oration of the day. He spoke for 20 minutes, and in part said:

"On this anniversary morning of our national birth, when by custom, duty and law, the loom, the anvil and the busy hands of business are silent to be still, when we may acknowledge to another the marks of our great and glorious birth hour in our history, when, for the moment, a truce is called to the strife of parties, the rivalries of sections, and the passions of egotism, when the heart of the nation is no longer divided against itself, when millions of people are inseparably united in the bonds of unity and peace, when hither to strife-ridden valleys and lonely water-courses are yielding their resources to the demands of energy and skill, when industry is gathering harvests on fields once blood-stained with domestic strife, when, with kindred voices raised in place of facile tergiversation, we may turn from the dark corners of gloomy of evil and in continuity of friendship, with hand in hand beneath the symbolic flag of our pride and glory, up to the mountain top, and unite in fervent exclamation: 'How beautiful are the landmarks of America! Peace be within the nation, and joy within the gates. For what'

10,000 WELCOME TAFTS TO THE CITY OF BEVERLY

The President Was Given an Enthusiastic Reception—Roses for Mrs. Taft

BEVERLY, July 5.—Greeted by a reception which equalled the day for warmth, President Taft made his entry into Beverly yesterday morning.

Ten thousand persons cheered the president as he rode with Mrs. Taft, Charlie Taft, Maj. Thomas L. Rhodes, his personal aide, and George von L. Meyer, Jr., son of the secretary of the navy. Almost ideal weather conditions prevailed, although before the march was over the mercury was so high that the marchers felt the effects of the heat; still the line was kept intact.

Depot square was roped off for the reception and when the president's special car arrived, an hour late from

Washington, the park and station stands were massed with people. When the president gave his customary smile, doffing his straw hat, in response to the greeting, Mrs. Taft followed the president and was cheered by the crowd while the Dolphin band played the "Star Spangled Banner."

Mrs. Taft was in blue and appeared much rested, even after the tiresome trip from Washington. When there was a lull in the cheering, Miss Alice Meyer, daughter of the secretary of the navy, presented Mrs. Taft with a beautiful basket of flowers and another basket was there to present to Mrs. Taft, who was unable to get back from Cincinnati, where she went to attend a wedding, in time to make the trip to Beverly with her parents. Mrs. George von L. Meyer headed the committee of ladies to welcome Mrs. Taft. In the party were Mrs. Dudley L. Pickman, Mrs. Henry F. Sears, Misses Alice and Julia Meyer and Miss Louisa P. Loring of the summer colony.

Col. Charles L. Dodge, after Mayor F. A. Dodge had extended the greetings of the city, made an address in behalf of the reception committee, consisting of former Representative Albert Vittum, Capt. Isaac H. Edgett, Commander T. F. Whiting of the Grand Army and the Hon. Francis Norwood. President Taft was much pleased at the reception, and in reply said:

"I am glad to be here and to be received by the Taft club of Beverly. You have given us a substantial expression of your confidence in me in the late primary, and I very much appreciate it, and return my thanks to you and to those of the city of Beverly who stood with you in this matter."

"Mrs. Taft and my family are glad to be here. We have enjoyed being here during the last three years, and we are glad to have an association with such a city as Beverly and with such people as live in the city of Beverly."

"We are coming to get all the pleasure there is and all the health and all the energy you have up here in Massachusetts, and to renew our claims to being Yankees."

With the formalities over, the president and his party were escorted to his big motor car in the square, and while the crowd cheered, the moving picture machine operators and the newspaper photographers were busy. Arthur E. Kilham was chief marshal of the parade, with Robert Robertson as chief of staff, and L. P. Stanton chief of the personal escort to the president. In line were the Taft club, carrying the Beverly colors, orange and black, the officers of the U. S. S. Dolphin, and a detail of sailors from the secretary of the navy's yacht, the Beverly Republican club, the republican city committee, the boy scouts and the boys' brigade of the Methodist church.

All along the route there was a display of flags. When the parade moved along Lothrop street, skirting the sea, the guns on the Dolphin moored in the outer harbor boomed a presidential salute. At the soldiers' monument, Post 59, G. A. R. lined up and saluted the president as he rode by.

The entrance to "Parramatta," the summer White house on Corning street, was guarded by a detail of marines from the Dolphin, and the lines parted while the president rode through the cheering paraders.

STRIKE BREAKER

KILLED BY CARS

Harvard Student's Head Was Crushed

BOSTON, July 5.—Merrill DeWitt Britton, a Harvard freshman, employed as a strike-breaking conductor by the Boston Elevated Railway company, was killed last night by having his head crushed between two cars in the City Point car barns. Arthur H. Wilson, another Harvard student, was the motorman of the car that crushed out his life.

Britton, who was 21 years old, and who roomed at 9 Trinity hall, had been employed only a few weeks. Last night, about 2:10, Britton and Wilson were making preparations to get their car out of the barn, preparatory to making their trip. Britton had left his car and had passed behind it, when without warning the car backed down upon him and crushed his head against a car that was standing directly in the rear.

The injured man was attended by Dr. Boland and removed to the Carney hospital, where he died shortly after his arrival. His mother, Mrs. Fred S. Britton of Massachusetts Chambers, Back Bay, was notified.

A PARACHUTE JUMPER

Fell 1200 Feet to His Death

NEW YORK, July 5.—Twenty thousand persons saw "Tom" Moore, 25 years old, a professional balloonist, hurried to death yesterday afternoon from a height of 1200 feet at Hills/da Park, an amusement resort of Belleville, N. J. Moore's act was thrilling, and consisted of three successive drops, each plunge halted by the opening of a parachute.

When the balloon had ascended to a height of 3000 feet Moore could be seen cutting loose for his first drop. He plunged earthward, the parachute opened and checked his fall. A moment later he cut loose for the second time and sped toward the earth. The sudden expansion of the second parachute broke the plunge, and Moore, who was then about 1200 feet from the earth, cut away for the third time. This time a frightened shriek went up from the crowd as Moore shot down and his parachute remained unopened. Then it was observed that the aeronaut had evidently been rendered unconscious by the rush of air, for he relaxed his hold on the bar of the unopened parachute, which might even yet have expanded and saved his life, and plunged headlong to his death.

DAVID I. WALSH

IS LOOMING UP AS A CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR

BOSTON, July 5.—David I. Walsh of Fitchburg is assuming prominence as the democratic candidate for governor since Gov. Foss' statement at Baltimore Monday night that he is not to be a candidate for re-election.

The returning delegates talked the matter over informally on the train, and Mr. Walsh's friends were pleased to hear the good things said about him by the governor and others, including Representative James M. Curley. No definite announcement has been made by Mr. Walsh, but he has expressed to friends the interest he has in the nomination if it could come to him under satisfactory conditions.

He has told them he does not want to engage in a fight for the nomination, but in the event the governor does not seek the nomination again, he would be pleased if the democrats gave him the primary endorsement for the office.

Mr. Walsh has not been able to make any public declaration because of the uncertainty regarding Gov. Foss. Had the governor received one of the nominations at Baltimore Mr. Walsh would have been expected to announce his candidacy at once. There has been some talk that Mayor Fitzgerald would give up his senatorial aspirations to get into the race for governor, but there has been nothing definite from him on this subject.

CHILD WAS DROWNED

street near his home shortly before that time, but he wandered into Amory street and then finding a pocket intruding from the fence which borders on the canal he crawled through and undoubtedly walked along the banking and fell into the water.

The first that was known of the accident was when persons living in the vicinity heard the splash when the body fell into the water. Several people in the vicinity rushed to the canal and tried to locate the child, but without avail.

Undertaker Joseph Albert was notified and he later recovered the body and removed it to his waterworks.

FLAG CONTEST

AT THE VESPER COUNTRY CLUB A GREAT SUCCESS

At the Vesper Country club yesterday a flag contest was held, with a large list of entries. The players were divided into two classes, each player being allowed 80 strokes, to which was added the handicap, if any. When the last stroke has been played, the flag is planted where the ball lies. R. A. Wood holed out at the 20 hole in his last stroke and won in the first division. A. H. Morton was second, 40 feet from the 15th hole. In the B division, J. F. Colburn holed out at the 15th hole, with Homer Goodwin second, seven feet from the 15th hole.

The Coffee Can Is Becoming a Sensitive Subject

A couple of years ago one could get a pound of fairly decent coffee for from 15 to 25 cts. Now that same coffee costs from 25 cts. to 45 cts per pound and a further raise of ten cents is in prospect.

"THERE'S A REASON"

Four years ago Brazil found that in spite of the fact that it was producing over 90 per cent. of the coffee consumed in the United States, its rich planters were not squeezing as much money out of Americans as they could and the Brazilian government was not receiving enough revenue from a product that was one of that country's chiefest products.

And so Brazil determined to levy tribute upon rich and prosperous America, even as the British taxed our tea in olden days; only this modern type of piracy was engineered and executed in a kid glove way.

Certain foreign capitalists (German, English and others) were called into consultation. They devised a scheme called "valorization." They started by buncing our American Congress into removing the import tax on coffee, and that done, Brazil immediately transferred the income to its own treasury by imposing an export tax. This was followed by perfecting a system whereby the Brazilian government could control the output and the price of coffee.

The net result has been that Brazil for the last three years has sold just what grades of coffee it wanted to sell, at any price it chose to fix; and in consequence the Brazilian government has shared with a syndicate of foreign money kings a profit of Hundreds of Millions of Dollars, every cent of which has come from the pockets of the American People.

This is Where YOU Come in

The average coffee drinker knows that coffee is a really harmful drink to most folks. Headache, biliousness, indigestion and other signs of an up-set liver, as well as heart irritation, nervousness and sleeplessness are too evident to most coffee drinkers to permit of their ignorance of that fact.

WOODWORKERS MET TO DISCUSS STRIKE

Statement Issued by the
Press Committee

The striking woodworkers held a meeting in Carpenters hall this morning, with all members present. The action of the employers who were invited to meet the conference committee in the American house on Wednesday evening and failed to do so was discussed at length. The district organizer, C. N. Kimball, was present and addressed the meeting. He said that in his opinion the mill men, by not attending the conference, lost an opportunity to settle the difficulties but he advised the strikers to be careful and peaceful in their dealings and that they will be successful in their cause.

An advertisement of an employer:

bureau with office in Boston, that was taken from a Boston paper, was read, in which the wages offered are much larger than those the men were receiving. The advertisement stated that the wages will be paid during the strike, and the organizer in speaking of the wages said that they explained that the factory men were anxious to have the matter adjusted. He also said that five strike breakers arrived here from Boston this morning, but when notified of the conditions they returned.

The following statement was adopted at the meeting contradicting an article that appeared in a paper yesterday and the secretary was instructed to forward to The Sun the statement. It reads as follows:

"The statement appearing in the press yesterday to the effect that one of the largest firms at present involved in the Millmen's dispute had recently granted a reduction of three hours with the same wages, requires, in common justice to the men who struck work in that particular shop, some little explanation.

"The facts are as follows: Immediately after the corporation had reduced the working hours to 54 per week the employees of the firm in question laid their heads together and agreed to petition their employers for a like reduction. A few hours before the time set to present the petition the firm having got wind of their intention and doubtless fearing trouble from the I. M. V. or some other such organization, notified them of their intention of reducing the hours from 58 to 55 with the same pay.

"So far this reads good from the employers' point of view, but as it is well to consider both sides of any question we will proceed to consider the other side. One of the firms at least, also involved, granted the same concessions over eight years ago, and pays a higher rate of wages, as was brought out by a statement made by a member of the first named firm, namely: 'We employ nothing but the cheapest class of help which can easily be replaced.' (The inference presumably being in case of the men making a stand for better conditions). Now it is perfectly obvious that as this firm turns out the same class of work as the others with an admittedly lower wage bill it must make a much larger profit, particularly when we take into consideration the fact that it has had the advantage of three hours per man per week for eight years plus the difference in the average wage paid by it and I think its nearest competitor, the firm which conceded the 55 hours eight years ago, all of which goes to show that other employers in question have not set a leg to stand on when they try to harden themselves behind their belated three hours concession.

"Fred H. Dow,
"Chairman of Committee."

A special meeting of the district council of the carpenters has been called for Sunday afternoon in Carpenters' hall at which action on the present strike will be taken.

MANY FRUIT RECIPES

in Different Ways

Have the cantaloupe thoroughly chilled before using, then cut in half, remove the seeds, but be careful not to scrape out the delicate pulp nearest the seeds as this is the most delicious part of the fruit. Place the halves of the melon on plates of cracked ice, reversing the usual order of serving, i.e. in the hollow of the melon, which method draws out the flavor instead of preserving it with the pulp.

Melon Marmalade
Take large citron melons, quarter and remove the seeds. Weigh the melon and to every pound of the fruit allow a pound of loaf sugar (double refined). To every three pounds of melons allow two lemons and a teaspoonful of ground white ginger. Grate the melon on a coarse grater, not too close to the rind. Grate also the yellow rind of the lemons and with the ginger add to the sugar. Mix all the ingredients in a preserving kettle. Set the kettle over a moderate fire, boil, skim and stir until it is a very thick, smooth jam. Put it into warm glasses, lay a double round of tissue paper on the surface and seal the jars.

Melon Mousse
Place the cantaloupe in a preserving kettle with half the quantity of sugar. Stew down until rather thick, rub through sieve and replace on stove. Have dissolved half a box of gelatin in a little cold water, then more the half pint of boiling water and placing it over steam. Add this to the cooked melon, stirring until it begins to cool and thicken, then place in wetted molds and set on ice till firm and serve with cream. Less gelatin may be used if preferred.

Melons for Salads
Perfectly ripe melons are delicious for salads when cut in cubes and served alone or with other fruits such as peaches or bananas. Tomatoes may be used. Serve with mayonnaise plain or flavored with liquor or French dressing, to which has been added a suspicion of murrachino, or serve with whipped cream.

Watermelon Sherbet
Scrape all the red pulp of the melon, carefully saving the juice and retaining sufficient pulp to give strength of flavor. Allow to one gallon of liquid a pound of sugar and freeze. When half frozen add the whipped whites of eggs (one for each quart of the mixture) and finish the freezing.

Watermelon Half Frozen
Break the ripe pulp of a watermelon into fine bits with a silver fork and place it in an ice cream freezer without the dasher. Let it stand for two hours packed in salt and ice. Serve in sherbet glasses.

EVERY HOUR, EVERY DAY, RIKER-JAYNES' PRICES ARE THE LOWEST, QUALITY THE HIGHEST

Day after day, the prices on all the goods in Riker-Jaynes stores are uniformly low. Almost every day we have one or more Special Sales in progress, during which we make exceptionally low prices in leading articles. But every hour of every day our regular day-by-day prices are the lowest you can find in drug store goods. We have no system of "bait" which lure you to purchase one article at a low price to induce you to buy others at high prices.

If you trade with Riker-Jaynes' stores the year round, you will count a good many dollars saved at the end of twelve months.

Several Small Fires Were Quickly Extinguished

The members of the fire department had a comparatively easy time yesterday and the night before, few fires having taken place. The city was well patrolled by members of the different companies and what incipient fires were started were speedily extinguished by the firemen.

An alarm from box 73 at 2:15 o'clock yesterday morning summoned a portion of the department to 32 Wilson street where a firecracker had exploded on a roof and caused a slight blaze. The building is owned by S. Goldenberg.

Stable Fire

A large firecracker set the roof of the stable in the rear of 135 Chapel street on fire about 1:16 o'clock yesterday afternoon and an alarm was sent in from box 115. The fire was extinguished by the firemen.

A Hero in a Lighthouse

For years J. S. Donahue, 50, Haven, Mich., a civil war captain, as a lighthouse keeper, averted awful wrecks, but a queer fact is, he might have been a wreck himself. He cured me of kidney trouble and chills," he writes, "after I had taken other so called cures for years, without benefit and they also improved my sight. Now, at seventy, I am feeling fine." For dyspepsia, indigestion, all stomach, liver and kidney troubles, they're without equal. Try them. Only 50 cents at A. W. Dows & Co.

gushed before any material damage was done. The property is owned by Thomas Coleman.

Roof on Fire

Fire on Bridge

Patrolman Michael Rourke discovered a blaze on the Lundberg street bridge last night and immediately telephoned to the central fire station. The Lawrence street company was sent to the scene and soon had the fire under control.

Brush Fire

REPORTED IN THIS CITY ON THE FOURTH

There were but few accidents during the Fourth and the night before for the prohibition of the sale of large crackers prevented many unnecessary accidents that might have occurred if the use of the large explosives had been allowed.

Joseph Christina burned three of his fingers yesterday afternoon while setting off firecrackers. He was taken to the Lowell hospital where the burns were dressed.

Leg Fractured

Gillian St. Peter, aged two and a half years, pulled out of bed at her home at the corner of Bridge and Polge streets yesterday morning and sustained a fracture of the left leg. The ambulance was summoned and she was taken to St. John's hospital where she was cared for.

Badly Injured

Amos Christian, a laborer, employed by E. A. Simpson, was injured by a fall while working at Lawndale farm recently purchased by Mr. Simpson. He was taken to the Lowell General hospital. His injuries were in the region of the stomach and it was at first feared that internal injury might result.

ECZEMA ON LIMB ITCHED DREADFULLY

Scorched in Sleep, Spread Rapidly. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Worked Wonders. Stopped Itching and in Less Than a Week Healed Entirely. Cost 75 Cents.

27 Whitney Ave., Cambridge, Mass.

"My trouble was eczema. It began by my horse-supporter rubbing and poisoning the skin on my leg just above the knee. The eruption was small pimples which itched dreadfully. When I scratched them they would scab over and they itched so nights that I scratched the scabs off in my sleep. They spread rapidly. I used witch hazel, different carbolic ointments but nothing did it any good until a neighbor told me how her hands were cracked open and bleeding and that Cuticura cured her. I had been to so much expense buying remedies that did no good that I sent for samples of Cuticura Soap and Ointment before using. They worked wonders. They stopped the itching and in less than a week's time it had healed entirely, after using a full-sized box of Cuticura Ointment and a cake of Cuticura Soap, costing but 75c." (Signed) Mrs. W. E. Lewis, Nov. 25, 1911.

For treating poor complexions, red, rough hands, and dry, thin and falling hair, Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment have been the world's favorites for more than a generation. Sold throughout the world. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

Teacher-faced men should use Cuticura Soap Shaving Stick, 25c. Sample free.

Olive Oil Restores Health

Physicians generally are advising patients to use pure olive oil to restore health and strength. As a result, thousands of men, women and children, knowing its valuable nutritive and laxative properties, are taking olive oil daily as a most beneficial addition to their food.

Pompeian Olive Oil is as different from other kinds as light is from day. It is the purest Italian Olive Oil imported and it comes to you in its virgin state, without any chemical treatment or adulteration. It, therefore, has a distinctive, sweet, nutty flavor not found in other kinds and does not have a greasy taste.

To build up the system and restore health, take Pompeian Olive Oil in this way and very beneficial results will quickly follow:—On arising in the morning, drink a glass of hot water and take one or two teaspoonsful of the oil. Take the same quantity before dinner, supper and on retiring. As you acquire the taste for the oil, increase the dose to four tablespoonfuls four times a day. Invalids and those run down in health and strength will find Pompeian Olive Oil the best food-medicine and it will build up the body faster than any disease can tear it down.

Pompeian Olive Oil is sold by druggists and grocers. Full one-half pint cans, 25 cents; full pint cans, 50 cents; full quart cans, 90 cents.

FETE CHAMPETRE WAS OPENED YESTERDAY

The annual "Fete Champetre" opened yesterday on the orphanage grounds in Pawtucket street. During the day thousands of people visited the place and enjoyed themselves. Entertainment was given by the orphans and much credit is due them for the manner in which they carried out their program. During the day, the different booths on the orphanage grounds were very busy. During the afternoon the feature of the program was the entertainment given by the group of young orphans who interested the people present to a very great extent. In the evening the Independent brass band was supposed to give a concert, but for some reason unknown they did not materialize. But in spite of this disappointment, Rev. Fr. Watelle, O. M. I., managed to make an emergency program which proved very satisfactory to the many spectators present.

SOCIAL AND FRATERNAL

The French-American carpenters met in regular session Wednesday night. There was a large attendance and considerable business was transacted. The feature of the meeting was the installation of officers for the ensuing six months. The following are the officers: A. Bellefeuille, president; Joseph Paquin, vice president; Victor Breton, Jr., recording secretary; G. A. Plon, financial secretary; Rosalie Leclerc, treasurer; Omer Labadie, conductor; C. Smeaton, Jr., warden; and G. A. Plon, J. Paquin, R. Roy, E. Paradis and H. Roy, delegates to the annual convention. The installation of officers was followed by a pleasant smoke talk under the auspices of the new officers. Mr. A. Bellefeuille, the newly elected president, and many other members of the local addressed the gathering.

Order of Moose

The regular meeting of the Lowell order of Moose was held Wednesday night and at the conclusion of the business meeting an open house was in order and hundreds of the members and their friends spent an enjoyable evening. During the business meeting ten new members were initiated and 25 applications were received.

The entertainment and good time started about 9 o'clock and lasted until morning. Refreshments were served and an enjoyable musical was given. The program was as follows: Solo by C. K. Nobles; reading of the Declaration of Independence; James W. McKenna; songs by the Moose quartet, composed of the following: Edward Turnbull, first tenor; Robert Means, second tenor; George Crowell, baritone; and C. K. Noble, basso; recitation by John F. Tansey; solo, Julius Parthum; singing of "America" by the entire lodge; and songs by the Moose quartet.

Centralville Social Club

The Centralville Social club held its regular weekly meeting in its headquarters in Lakeview avenue, Wednesday evening, and considerable business was transacted. The officers who are to serve the coming six months were elected and the choice was as follows: Isidore Trudel, president; Joseph Elie, vice president; Omer Ducharme, recording secretary; Ferdinand Lussier, financial secretary; Ludwig David, treasurer; and Arsene Trudel, Adolphe Bonchard, Pierre Brousseau and Pierre Gagnon, directors. After the business meeting, a smoke talk was held, and during the course of the evening, refreshments were served and music and singing were furnished by the talented members of the club. President Isidore Trudel occupied the chair.

Foresters of America

Court City of Lowell, No. 30, F. of A. held a well attended meeting at the Elks' hall Wednesday evening, and although the weather was warm there was considerable business of importance transacted. District Deputy Grand Chief Ranger N. Gaudin was there and installed the following officers, assisted by District Deputy Grand Chief Ranger John Barrett, who acted as herald: Chief Ranger Eugene P. Sullivan; Sub Chief Ranger Michael Sullivan; Recording Secretary George B. McKenna; Senior Woodward Henry McEwen; Junior Woodward Lot Henley; Junior Beattie Michael Gilliam; and Lecturer William Cassin. Fast Chief Ranger John F. Connolly was presented with an emblem in the form of a beautiful chain and Foresters' charm, by Treasurer Thomas E. O'Day, and Bro. Connolly responded with some remarks on the benefits of Foresters. Remarks were also made by District Deputy Grand Chief Ranger N. Gaudin, and by District Deputy Grand Chief Ranger John Barrett. Several propositions were read and voted upon. Refreshments were served and a good time was had even if the weather was hot. The auditor's report showed the treasury to be in a flourishing condition.

Royal Arcanum

Industry council of the Royal Arcanum held open house the night before the Fourth. During the early part of the evening a business meeting was held after which a social time was enjoyed. Present at the meeting were several of the state officers of the Royal Arcanum. During the evening there were songs by the Arcanum quartet, consisting of E. R. Wirt, A. T. Munn, Charles Howard and Harry Needham, by John F. Roane and Richard Donovan, and a very enjoyable musical under the direction of James

AND ATHLETICSJOHNSON DEFEATED FLYNN
IN THE NINTH ROUNDCaptain of Police Stopped the Bout—Flynn Was Completely
Outclassed

RINGSIDE, LAS VEGAS, N. M., July 5.—Jim Flynn as a white hope expired yesterday in the ninth round of his scheduled 45-round bout with Champion Jack Johnson. Flynn's face was chopped and cut frightfully by Johnson's deliberate blows, and in the ninth round Capt. Cowles of the New Mexican state police pushed his way to the ring and declared the contest closed as a brutal exhibition.

For the rounds Flynn had realized his inability to defend himself and frantically tried to butt his way to victory. At times he leaped a foot from the ground, endeavoring to crash his skull against the champion's jaw.

Time and again Referee Smith warned him to stop and Flynn made no defense. "He's holding me, he's holding me," he would declare to Smith, and in the next clinch he would try it again.

When the police interfered Referee Smith, through the announcer, awarded Johnson the fight. Johnson made no serious effort to hurt Flynn at any time during the nine rounds. Apparently he had himself in check even when Flynn's butting tactics were at their worst.

Johnson bore not a single mark of the fight beyond a slight cut inside his lower lip.

Many Women Present

At 204 the announcer called the attention of the fans to "several hundred ladies who have graced the occasion with their attendance" and asked them to remember their presence when commenting on the fight.

Two boys from Colorado Springs, named Day, with their father as referee, made an amusing curtain raiser of four one-minute rounds.

The usual program that precedes a big fight began with the introduction of Cass Tarver, a huge Texas unknown, with white hope aspirations. He challenged the winner. A message from Joe Jeanette requested that Al Falzer be challenged for him. Al Falzer wired a challenge to the winner.

Johnson entered the ring at 2:30 and Flynn a minute later.

At the request of Johnson, Mrs. Johnson was transferred to another box nearer the champion's corner. Flynn appeared to be in exceptionally good humor and spent much of the time sniggering about the ring greeting friends.

Flynn, spying Mrs. Johnson, shouted, "Ain't you pulling for me, Mrs. Johnson?" The champion's wife smiled, but said nothing.

The principals then donned the gloves. Johnson withdrew his objection to the gloves provided by the ring officials, having previously ordered a special set for his own use. It was noticed that the champion wore the same striped bathrobe that had given him service in his Reno battle.

Flynn was given a noisy greeting when he first appeared, which was repeated when he was announced as the "fighting freeman from Pueblo." Johnson had only a lukewarm reception. The ring was cleared finally and time called at 2:15.

The Fight Begins

Round One—"Will you shake hands, Jack?" queried Flynn as he opened the battle by rushing into a clinch. "No," retorted the black.

Round Two—As Flynn rushed Johnson simply grasped him about the shoulders and held him at bay, all the while grinning like an ape. The champion peeked at the fireman's face with left fists, and as they clinched up percent twice heavily with rights to the jaw.

The champion toyed with Flynn, twice more shooting right uppercuts to the jaw, one of which sent the fireman's head bobbling.

The champion easily indicated it was not a battle of words as he went on as to land a blow on the chin, the black's defense proving impregnable.

Johnson made the blood fairly spurt as he rained blow after blow on his bewildered opponent. There was not a drop of blood on Johnson as he took his seat.

Beginning of the End

Round Eight—Flynn again tried to butt, but was warned. The round was very much like his predecessors, with Johnson upper-cutting and Flynn butting viciously, at the same time landing a world of blows.

Flynn was helpless in the champion's hands and for the fifth time in this round was warned, the referee adding: "Once more and I'll disqualify you." Johnson held the fireman at arm's length.

Johnson at close range landed half a dozen punches on the stomach, but Johnson only smiled and again made no apparent attempt to protect his midsection.

Johnson aroused the crowd to merriment by releasing Flynn's hold and clapping his own gloves together. "Kiss my schoolgirl," "I can't fight while he's holding me," shouted Flynn protesting to the referee. The round ended then with Johnson holding a running conversation with his wife and seconds.

Butting Tactics

Round Six—Flynn hunted with his head, claiming that Johnson made it justifiable by holding him. Flynn was severely reprimanded for deliberately butting the champion. Flynn tried to find a loophole to stem the buzzing given him.

JACK JOHNSON

Johnson dazed the fireman with his stiff, landing left and right to the jaw. "He's holding me," was Flynn's cry. Johnson, maddened, landed a volley of straight left and right punches to the face, fairly bewildering Flynn, then he stopped himself, apparently with a view to prolonging the contest. Flynn's second also warned him to cease butting, when he sat down.

Round Seven—Johnson landed rapid-fire rights and lefts to the fireman's face and also held himself so as to withstand Flynn's butting tactics. "Wait a minute," cried Johnson to a spectator who had shouted for him to end it.

Flynn bled profusely from the nose as Johnson beat a tattoo with left and right to that organ. Flynn failed to land a blow on the chin, the black's defense proving impregnable.

Johnson made the blood fairly spurt as he rained blow after blow on his bewildered opponent. There was not a drop of blood on Johnson as he took his seat.

Round Nine—Johnson held the fireman at arm's length in an attempt to guard himself against the fireman's constant butting. Flynn finally got in close, jumped a foot in the air, and landed with the top of his head against Johnson's jaw.

Capt. of State Police Fred Fornoff, realizing that the referee seemed loath to end the contest on a foul, jumped into the ring and brought the battle to an end. Referee Smith thereupon gave the decision to Johnson. Johnson was given a terrific cheer, while the crowd roared its way out.

LOWELL AND HAVERHILL SPLIT
IN YESTERDAY'S SWATTING BEESLowell First 6 to 5, Haverhill Second, 14 to 9—White, Lowell
Boy, Star of Game

Lowell and Haverhill played two games in this city yesterday, one in the morning, which Lowell won by the score of 6 to 5, and the other in the afternoon, which was captured by Haverhill by the score of 14 to 9. Both games were largely attended, the crowd in the afternoon being so large that ground rules were necessary. The heat at the park was intense, but the fans did not mind that, and the players showed their patriotism several times by giving a "line" display of fireworks.

Both games were replete with good plays, bad plays, and other mixtures, but it was the fourth of July and also it was hot, and the rays of the sun were very strong. Aside from the two games, another feature that proved a most enjoyable one, was the reception accorded Herb White, the Lowell boy who is playing with the Haverhill team. The first time that he stepped to the plate in the afternoon game he was presented a beautiful watch and fob, the gift of his many admirers here. The presentation was made by William H. Sullivan of The Sun. At the conclusion of the speaker's remarks, there were rounds of applause for the recipient of the gift, and the latter certainly made good with capital.

After getting the present he showed his friends that he was there with the come back and he made a beautiful single that scored Cross, who was on second. The run was the first for his team to register. Later in the game the Lowell boy made another single, a double and a triple, which is some hitting for a beginner. He also played centre field in a manner that would do credit to any of the veterans in the league. White's many friends, who wished him success, are now confident that he will stick with the big show, and we all wish him luck.

The morning game which Lowell captured was a steal for Johnson, the erstwhile big leaguer, who pitched for Haverhill, was in fine form and should have won his game. In the seventh inning Lowell had three men on bases, with none out, and the big blond, Johnson, by striking out Miller, causing De Groat to go out on a foul fly, and fanning Halstein, pulled out of a great hole. Wolfgang pitched a good game and had nine strikeouts.

Lowell's first run came in the second inning. Halstein hit to centre for two bases, but he went out at third when Magee hit to Young. Bouldes hit to Young, forcing Magee at second. Lowery was there with the single, getting a fine three bagger to centre, that sent Bouldes home. Joe Monahan then came across with a crash to the centre field fence for a homer, sending Lonny in ahead of him. Wolfgang closed the inning on a fly to Matthews.

Haverhill got one run in the opening inning and also another one in the second. In the first with two out Matthews hit a fine home run, and a fine two bagger to left and traveled home on a double to the same place by Young. In the second inning Campbell singled and was advanced to second on a sacrifice by White. Pratt hit to centre and Campbell trotted home.

There was no more scoring until the fifth, when with one down Matthews hit by Bouldes and stole second and came home on Cross' left to centre.

Lowell took the lead again in the sixth after Miller had died on a fly by De Groat doubled. Halstein got on by an error by Young. Magee went out and Bouldes scored the Ruben on a single to centre.

Haverhill went ahead in the seventh. Courtney got on by Lowery's error and Carney singled to left. Magee doubled the ball in fine style, after the ball was thrown ahead for a while Wolfgang finally got it and as he targeted Courtney who was making for third, the ball dropped. Carney then started for second and Monahan's peg to the bag went like a sky rocket, going to Clemens and Lizzie Courtney came home. Matthews went out on a grounder. Young hit to Lowery, who threw high to the counting station and Carney scored. Cross singled to right. Campbell hit a liner to Lowery and the latter tossed the pill to first for a double.

It was in the latter part of the seventh that the three Lowell men, who were resting on the bases were left there.

With the game practically won by Haverhill, Campbell's hand was injured and Bill Cooney, who was also on the sick list, was sent out to take his place, and Bill wanted to show Jimmy Gray that he had no hard feelings against us and he gave Lowell the game.

In the ninth after Clemens had gone out on a fly the fans started to go, but Miller came to bat and went to first after being hit. He then stole second and there was some hope. De Groat bled and both men advanced when Pratt let one get by. Halstein hit to Cooney, who made the bad throw to the plate and two runs came home and all repaired to the exit for the cars back home.

AFTERNOON GAME

The second game was a regular swatfest, Haverhill getting 20 hits and Lowell 18. The heat was responsible in no small measure for the work of the pitchers. Lowell used three pitchers, while Haverhill sent to two men. All were hit hard and they also worked very hard, but it was a day for celebration and the batters wanted to make some noise. They did. Herb White got four hits, while Matthews, Cross and Pratt got three each. Clemens and Halstein got three each, and all players but three of the five pitchers connected with the pill.

The runs were so numerous that it was all we could do to count them, and as space is very valuable after the holiday we will append the box score, so you may look it over.

DIAMOND NOTES

Andy and Jim, the men behind, were there with the long smiles yesterday.

All players boosted their averages a wee bit yesterday.

White played a great game, all round, and his work was certainly pleasing to his numerous friends, who were in attendance at the game.

Brooklyn here today and tomorrow. Two games will be played tomorrow, the first starting at 2 o'clock.

Some Bull Durham handed out yesterday. Courtney, Courtney and Perkins were the recipients of checks calling for the 72 packages.

Halstein was there with the stick yesterday and his work on the bag was also O. K. He seems to improve in every game.

White Lowery made a few bad misplays yesterday he also pulled some very classy ones. He covers lots of ground and goes after everything, hence the increased number of errors charged against him.

Of the many remarks from the side lines heard yesterday, a chap in the rear of the grandstand pulled a pretty good one. When Applegate was sent in to pitch, the comedian yelled: "You'll get yours, Pratt!" He did.

WOLGAST GOT DECISION
ALTHOUGH KNOCKED OUTAlmost a Riot When the Referee Gave Decision—Champion
Carried From Ring

VERNON, Arena, July 5.—Ad Wolgast, with the aid of Referee Jack Welch, retained his claim to the lightweight championship yesterday in the Vernon Arena when he was given the decision over Joe Rivers of Los Angeles in the 13th round. Rivers had practically all the better of every round save one or two, in which Wolgast had a slight shade.

In the 13th round Wolgast, tired and bleeding profusely, suddenly struck Rivers a vicious left in the groin. At the same instant Rivers' right hand rushed on Wolgast's jaw and the champion went down and out. Disregarding claims of foul made by Rivers' manager, Referee Welch counted the Mexican youth out and then, turning, picked up the unconscious Wolgast and declared him the winner.

It was the worst case of robbery in the history of the American ring," said Manager Levy. "Never before have I seen a referee pick up a man and then give him the decision. The foul blow struck by Wolgast was seen by every man near the ringside. It was the fourth or fifth foul the champion had landed on Rivers. The sum total of it all is that Wolgast knew he was whipped and resorted to his foul tactics to save himself."

No one connected with Wolgast's camp would say a word and all of them jumped in an automobile and quickly left the pavilion.

Two preliminaries were held. In the first, Tommy Moloney, the English middleweight, was given the decision over Bob Graham of Los Angeles, at the end of the 10th round.

The second preliminary of 10 rounds was between Pete McVey, one of Wolgast's sparring partners and Dan Cullen of Los Angeles at 135 pounds. McVey was given the decision. Cullen was all out at the end of the fight.

Round One—Rivers led the fighting and they clinched. Rivers landed three lefts to the face in quick succession and Wolgast covered. Rivers was

Lost His Life Near Aiken
Street Bridge

Jose Viera d'Andrade aged 40 years, residing at 63 Worthen street, lost his life in the waters of the Merrimack river between Heaver brook and the Aiken street bridge shortly after 11 o'clock yesterday morning. The man was bathing at the time and he was drowned in practically the same spot where the Landry boy sunk last Saturday afternoon.

The place where the drowning took place is very dangerous because of the fact that there is a small sand bar running out to it which is covered by very little water at the present time, but when the end of the bar is reached there is a sudden drop of three or four feet.

The unfortunate man had come to the river with a companion in order to cool off but before the companion entered the water d'Andrade walked over the sand bar and disappeared from view.

The body was recovered about two o'clock by Undertaker Joseph Albert.

D'Andrade was a married man and about three months ago he sent his wife and three children back to the old country, Portugal and only last week sent them $60.

INSTANTLY KILLED

TOP OF CAR

HAVERHILL, July 5.—Dalea La-belle, aged 11, was instantly killed while watching a circus train arrive here yesterday morning. La-belle, with other boys, had climbed on top of a box car near the freight station, and a shifter with other cars bumped into it, knocking La-belle off. He fell between the cars, the wheels passing over him. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. George La-belle of Apple street.

AMATEUR BASEBALL

The Cubs will play Graniteville Saturday afternoon at the Nabasset picnic grounds. A good game is looked for as the Cubs are in first place in the Suburban league and Graniteville one game behind in second place.

The Manhattan will play the T. R. & T. team Saturday afternoon at Paulkner park, Billerica, and a good game is expected.

The C. Y. M. L. team is without a game for Saturday and would like to hear from the Diawells or any other strong team.

The Groves will play the Wamesita Saturday afternoon, July 6, on the Lawrence street grounds across from the firehouse.

The Shedd Park ball team would like to arrange a game with any of the strong teams of the city. They have secured the services of Tom Quinn, who managed the old Y. M. C. I. team for three seasons in 1903, '04, '05, in the days of Hugh Farley, George Plome, the late Yag, McCarthy, Chas. Doherty and George Dolan, who were among the fastest players of their time.

The team is now coming along at a fast gait and would give any of the other teams a good battle. They would like a return game from the Lincoln on Saturday, July 6th. The Lincoln defeated them early in the season 4 to 1 and the Shedd Park members feel that they can wipe out that decision if the Lincoln make good their promise to give them a return game at Shedd Park. They have open dates in July and August and would like to hear from the Y. M. C. A., Manhattans, Graniteville (South Ends), Tyngsboro, or any other fast team. Address all challenges to V. Hutton, Boylston street, City, or through this paper. Manager can be seen at Shedd Park any evening.

ANNUAL RANSACK SALE NEXT WEEK

King Pin Sphere Walloper

Tris Speaker, the agile Red Sox outfielder, continues to hold a safe lead over Ty Cobb in the race for the batting honors of the American league. He now has a hitting average of .369, while the Detroit star is wallowing the ball at a .377 rate. Speaker is a natural hitter and ball player, and, having struck his stride in earnest, all pitchers look pretty much alike to him. For instance, he compiled four hits out of five times up against Ed Walsh in the last engagement with the Chicago White Sox, that being one-third of all the hits made off the big spitballer by the Boston club. Boston experts are of the opinion that Tris is the greatest outer gardener in the country, not even barring Cobb.

WOLGAST BOOSTS O'BRIEN

"I consider young Jack O'Brien faster than either Gibbons or Kilbane," said Ad Wolgast, the lightweight champion, who met the youngster in Philadelphia a short time ago. "The boy is like a flash. Why, he made me miss punch after punch in the first two rounds, and it was not until I dropped him for the count in the second round that I could get any of my body blows home."

DERRICKING TWIRLERS

"Topsy" Hartsel, the former member of the Athletics and at present manager of the Toledo Mud Hens, is one of those who believe that too frequent use of the derrick spoils a good pitcher. Let him know that you are confident of his ability to pull together and come through and he will work all the harder, says "Topsy."

TWO LOWELL MEN IN SERIOUS ACCIDENT Thrown Over Embankment Into Creek—Two Arrested and Their Auto Smashed

William N. Thompson of this city and Frank Moran, formerly of this city, had a narrow escape from death in an automobile accident on the River beach parkway about 3.30 o'clock yesterday morning. There was a third man in the automobile whose name the police have not learned. The automobile was a four-passenger runabout owned by Mr. Thompson and almost every part of the machinery was smashed.

The three men were tossed over a 15-foot embankment when the machine crashed through the fence and turned end over end into the river. When the automobile, traveling toward the beach at high speed, reached the point where the parkway crosses Winthrop avenue, at the end of Campbell street, Mr. Thompson, who was driving, evidently did not see that the road turned to the right and the machine continued at an angle across the sidewalk at Waverly street. It struck the fence, the top rail gave way and the broken rail was jammed through the automobile radiator. The car then acted as a lever, on the end of which the machine and its occupants were given a high toss over the embankment.

All three men were thrown beyond the machine into the water, out of which they climbed without assistance, and Thompson and Moran were standing on the bank dazed when Patrolman White of the Metropolitan park motor squad found them. The other man had gone to seek assistance and the police were unable to find him. Thompson and Moran were placed under arrest on charge of drunkenness, and Thompson was also charged with operating an automobile while under the influence of liquor.

BIG BONFIRE

SET OFF ON THE FLETCHER ST. LEDGE

A monster bonfire was set off on the Fletcher street ledge in the rear of the fire house the night before the Fourth and owing to the illumination of the sky hundreds of people were attracted to the scene. A number of the younger element of that section of the city gathered together hundreds of barrels and other combustible material and when the bells rang at 12 o'clock the pile was set afire and for several hours the sky was illuminated.

SAFE AND SANE FOURTH

people is indeed like unto thee!—at such a moment, let me ask you to go back in imagination, and interpret with me the significance of the movements of that sturdy old woman as she swings too and fro with a "flam" grasp the iron tongue of the bell in the state house at Philadelphia, 136 years ago.

What's the meaning of this unusual excitement in that lovely city? Why is it that hitherto sad and anxious faces now look joyous and defiant? Why do the boys and girls shout with glee, and the old men and women act as if their youth has been renewed? Why this roar of cannon, this beating of drums, and this universal outburst of exultation? It is because, in accordance with a vote taken two days previous, the colonial congress, now assembled in Independence hall, has proclaimed to the world the result of the debate on what John Adams termed "the greatest question which has ever debated about it," viz., that these United Colonies are, and of right ought to be, free and independent states; that they are absolved from all allegiance to the British crown, and that political connection between them and the state of Great Britain is and ought to be, totally dissolved. By the declaration this proclaimed the citizenry of the colony dependent became a state independent, and the United Colonies asserted their rightful position as United States. On that day in mighty words of solemn import, the announcement was made for the first time in the history of the world of the final and irrevocable brotherhood of the human race, the declaration of authority from the will of the people, and the recognition of the individual unit as the basis of political institutions. The Declaration of Independence which the bellman in yonder temple is ringing out so vigorously is the title-deed of every man to an individual right in the government, and as Mr. Frothingham says it was a test of loyalty whoever upheld it was counted as a friend; whoever spoke against it was an enemy, and whoever took up arms against it was guilty of treason.

The Declaration of Independence was a bold and ceremonial proclamation of the spirit embodied in the famous resolution which preceded it. It was a revolutionary act. It was an act of organized resistance to oppression. It was a solemn appeal to conscience from the decrees of a foreign tyrant to the inherent right of self-government which Christianity had established. It demonstrated the ability of a free and rational connection between unity and diversity in public affairs. It crystallized the sentiment of nationality into a fact of nationality, and made the fact of Union the fact of a republic. It was the expression of that restless moral power which precedes the dicta of organic law. It was the result of an insuperable spiritual force which could no longer be controlled beneath smothering bonds. It sprang from the inner life, the habits, the customs, and the affections of a people longing for a year determined to have a country which they could call their own. It was an acknowledgment of obedience to an instinct implanted in the human heart by the omnipotence of a just and beneficent God. It was a declaration of a state of things already in existence. It breathed its spirit in song. It imparted new dignity to manhood, and lifted humanity above the rank of kings. It was the verbal expression of that resistless spirit which inspired Paul Revere in his reckless ride of alarm from ocean to the inland town. It was the response to the unuttered prayer of the minute-man in his struggle at the bridge. It was the answer to the appeal of blood crying from the ground at Concord, Lexington and at Bunker Hill. It was the substance of things hoped for in distant hamlets beyond the mountains in lonely cabins by the sea.

Dawn of Momentous Time

"Friends, we greet at this hour the dawn of a momentous time. While not devoid of anxious suggestion, the outlook is full of promise. We are gaining the mastery of natural forces while the winds and waters obey his commands. Still, the great mystery of life remains unexplained, and whence we came and whither we go we do not, we cannot know. The destiny of the republic is hidden in the depths of the infinite mind. We think, we dream, we plan, but of the tomorrow no man can tell. It is only by faith in the God of nations that we live and move. Trusting in him, let us hope that to our successors American institutions will be as precious, liberty of conscience as sacred, and progress as glorious as they were to our fathers and have been to you and to me. Inspired with anticipations we will welcome to our companionship the worthy of other climes. Together in loyalty we will march step by step beneath the ample folds of one national emblem upon the unbroken path to a future unto the fulfillment of new responsibilities which in their expanding circles of influence may touch the destinies of millions yet unborn."

"My Old Kentucky Home" was sung by the quartet, after which the benediction was given by Rev. Caleb E. Fisher, pastor of the First Universalist church.

"America" was sung by the entire assembly. After which Asa C. Russell moved that a vote of thanks be extended to the mayor, who had arranged the program, and to all those who had participated in it. The motion was seconded by C. Oliver Barnes and was voted unanimously.

Children's Entertainment

The entertainment for the children of Lowell in Association hall yesterday afternoon, which was provided by the city, was attended by a large crowd, and all were well pleased with the show despite the extreme heat. The program was one of the best and was given by the Bachelor club troupe, under the direction of Charles D. Slattery, with Richard Noonan as accompanist. Another feature of the entertainment was the exhibition of ventriloquism by Professor Gallaway and his assistants. Special invitations to the entertainment were sent to the local orphanages and about all were represented. The program was a little late in starting but when the overture was started there was an outburst of applause. All numbers were well received and applauded, and the soloists were obliged to respond to encores. The solos were given by the following: Henry Devlin, Henry Curry, Andrew McCarthy, Edward Shea, William Marren and John Gleason.

Chelmsford Street Hospital The Bachelor club gave a fine entertainment at the Chelmsford Street hospital last evening. The holiday was thoroughly enjoyed by the inmates and a goodly number of visitors enjoyed the entertainment in the evening. The inmates had a fine roast pork dinner; mince pie was included in the good things for supper and that there was no scarcity of lemonade during the day was evidenced by the fact that three crates of lemons had been used and the empty lemon crates were there to prove it.

The entertainment by the Bachelor club was given in the chapel at 7.30 o'clock in the cool of the evening. The chapel was prettily decorated with flags and bunting. The program was as follows:

Opening chorus, melody, "The Rose Song," John Devlin; "Daffodil Rag," Henry Curry; "Ireland I Love You," Andrew McCarthy; "A Bit of Plurancy," Edward Shea; topical song, William Marren; "Sons of Uncle Sam," John Dalton; song, by request, Commissioner J. E. Donnelly; finale, "Dixie Land," "Star Spangled Banner."

Band Concerts Enjoyed

The band concert, part of the program in connection with the observance of the glorious Fourth, was thoroughly enjoyed, especially the evening concert on the commons. After a night and a day of sight-seeing, the band concert was a welcome relief and the music of the band seemed to have a soothing influence on the nerves, and we all know what it has been said that music will do even to the savage. Band concerts are always popular. July Fourth or any other day and never perhaps in the history of the city has larger crowds been seen at band concerts than were in evidence last night. Standing room was at a premium on the South common and there was an immense crowd on the North common. The third of the night concert was given at the Highland club and to say that it was enjoyed is putting it mildly. The spacious club grounds were thrown open to the public and there was a large attendance. The two afternoon concerts were given at three o'clock, one at Fort Hill park and the other at Lakeview avenue park near Allen street.

Perry Street Bon Fire Enjoyed

The bonfire on Perry street proved to be one of the greatest attractions of the entire celebration. There were certainly not less than ten thousand people scattered around the sides of Fort Hill park and the syndicate land on which the bonfire was built. As stated in The Sun it was over forty feet high, the frame made of railroad ties and well stuffed with combustible material that fed the flames after the match was applied. The blaze was a magnificent spectacle while it lasted, rising sometimes to a height of nearly one hundred feet. The flames worked about the base and middle of the great pile and when the supports were burned it was seen that the upper part must necessarily collapse.

At a time when the woodwork was ignited and shone forth through the blaze like red coals of fire, about twenty feet of the pile collapsed and fell to the ground, sending the blaze and flaming embers high in the air. The heat was so intense that it was felt for quite a distance around. Firemen were on hand to look out for the possibility of any buildings in the neighborhood being endangered. The pile continued to blaze from midnight until four o'clock in the morning, and was not burned out until noon yesterday.

About daylight after the crowd had dispersed those who had constructed the bonfire, and some others in the neighborhood, enjoyed refreshments consisting of ice cream, cake and lemonade. They were a happy lot and they deserved great credit for providing such a fine show for the thousands who enjoyed it. There was a lineup of automobiles on Rogers and High streets and up towards the entrance of Fort Hill park, all well filled with people to see the bonfire. It was a great success and those who built it were cordially congratulated.

Bunting Club

At the U. S. Bunting cricket club on the "night before" a fine display of fireworks was given instead of the usual bonfire. Many of the children and friends were present and remained during the evening and also yesterday, as "open house" was in order. Yesterday at the grounds cricket was the attraction.

Another Bonfire A good sized bonfire was provided the residents of Pawtucketville on Wednesday evening. The scene of the "burning display" was on Chase hill, which owing to its elevation made a most appropriate place for the fire. There was a big crowd assembled and all enjoyed the pyramid of flames.

Orphans Enjoyed the Fourth

The children of St. Peter's orphanage celebrated Independence day in a manner that satisfied the childish hearts of the little ones. The large flag on the building was flown to the breezes during the day, and in the morning the little ones romped about the grounds of the place, playing games, the good sisters keeping a watchful eye over the merry throng. At noon an appetizing dinner was given. Later ice cream and cake were served. In the afternoon, through the kindly consideration of Mayor O'Donnell, the children were permitted to attend the entertainment in Association hall and the Bachelor club made a big hit with the youngsters as was evident from the applause. Returning home supper was served and play resumed around the grounds, until the bedtime call was sounded and soon the little ones were securely tucked away, supremely happy that the Fourth of July had furnished such an enjoyable time for them.

TWO MEN INJURED BY AN EXPLOSION

They Were Engaged in Firing Salutes

Edward Walters of Dracut and John H. Gunther of this city, who formerly resided in Dracut, met with an accident while firing salutes with a large army musket yesterday morning about three o'clock, in Dracut. As a result of the accident both men are in the Lowell hospital in a rather serious condition.

The GILBRIDE COMP'Y

The Store That Rings True
Is Surely the Store For You

It was the custom of old-time merchants when a bad piece of money turned up in the cash drawer to nail the bogus coin on the counter. It served as a constant reminder to the clerks to be more careful, and incidentally it made it certain that the counterfeit money would not be passed back on a customer. We have much the same idea about merchandise.

We are everlastingly careful to see that nothing that is false gets into our stocks; and when we detect something below our standards trying to slip by our eyes we are quick to nail it.

This Store Must Ring True All the Time---

True in merchandise; True in service; and True in the statements made in the newspapers.

TODAY we start in on our July Stock Reduction Sale with splendid merchandise—just the kind you want—and every bit of it rings as true as a bright new dollar.

A LIGHT HOLIDAY GRIST OF OFFENDERS IN COURT

Man Held For Stealing Watches —A Light Fingering Gent Arrested on Common

This morning's session of the police court in this city was one of the shortest ever held after a holiday. The majority of the defendants were charged with drunkenness and the different cases were disposed of within half an hour. As a general rule the sessions following the Fourth of July are very long, but today it was an exception.

Charged With Larceny
Arthur R. Goodwin was arrested Wednesday night by Patrolman Kenney on a warrant charging him with the larceny of two watches from the store of George H. Wood. The defendant was employed as a watch repairer by the complainant and it is alleged that when he left the place there were several watches and other valuables missing. Goodwin left this city after severing his connection with Mr. Wood and was not seen here until Wednesday night when Patrolman Kenney placed him under arrest.

When he appeared in court this morning he was charged with the larceny of two watches from Mr. Wood on November 11th. He entered a plea of not guilty and asked for a continuance of one week but later when counsel appeared it was decided to try the case tomorrow, he being held under $500 bonds for his appearance at that time.

Larceny of Money
Samuel Kaplan, who claims to be long in Malden, was arrested on the highway on the South common Wednesday night on a complaint of the larceny of $5 in money, the property of George Ramos. To the police Ramos said he was walking through the common when he felt a hand in his pocket and saw Kaplan running away. Ramos gave chase and upon catching up with the fellow held him until an officer arrived.

Man Tried to Rescue Estate Caretakers

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., July 5.—Chas. B. Read, secretary of the D. M. Read company, gave his life last evening in a fruitless endeavor to save the lives of Mr. and Mrs. John Ruhl, caretakers of his estate on Greenfield hill, all three being asphyxiated by illuminating gas fumes.

As far as can be learned, Mr. Ruhl went to the pump house in which is located the gas plant. Something had gone wrong with the supply and Ruhl in an apparent endeavor to make repairs was overcome. His wife, becoming uneasy over his prolonged absence, followed him and she, too, was overcome.

Mr. Read, hearing her cry, went at once to the pump house and tried to save Mrs. Ruhl. He was overcome and fell to the floor. In the meantime, Mr. Jennings, a neighbor, learning of the trouble, went to the rescue. He was nearly overcome, but managed to spread the alarm.

Several doctors responded and it was with difficulty that they were able to make their way into the house. Finally all three bodies were brought out.

ONE MAN KILLED SEVERAL INJURED

U.S. Marines and Panama Police Clash

PANAMA, July 5.—The report of a serious brawl between the Panama police and a number of United States Marines while the Americans were celebrating the Fourth of July last night is confirmed this morning. A fight occurred late in the evening, with the result that one American citizen named R. W. David was killed and two American Marines and six soldiers belonging to the Tenth Infantry regiment, as well as two American civilians, wounded. The wounded men are in Ancon hospital. Two Panama policemen also were wounded.

AT MT. PLEASANT GOLF CLUB

About twenty-five members of the Mt. Pleasant golf club entered the first tournament yesterday. The fortunate ones were Fred L. Knapp, who secured first place and A. Gordon Foster securing second place. The contest was unusually close and until the 18th had finished play no one had any idea as to who the winner would be.

THE WORK OF LOOTING STORES AND THREATENING FOREIGNERS BE- GUN AT CASAS GRANDES

CASAS GRANDES, Mex., July 5.—Rebels under Gen. Salazar, commanding the vanguard of the insurgent army, have begun to terrorize the rich mining state of Sonora. Tension among Americans and foreigners was increased today with the imprisonment of C. E. Pollingsworth, manager of the general store of Kettleson and Degetau here, when he refused to give the rebels supplies. They looted the store.

REBELS TO MAKE ATTACK
EL PASO, Tex., July 5.—Organized revolution in Mexico, insofar as it simulates a military campaign of concentrated forces, was by today's movement of the rebel army shown to have ended, and in its place there was substituted a guerrilla warfare, threatening widespread devastation in northwestern Mexico.

Five troop trains bore the retreating insurgents from the vicinity of Chihuahua City to Juarez, opposite here, and before the day is over it was expected that the most of the rebels would be sent southwest from Juarez, a distance of 75 miles, to Casas Grandes, from which point it was intended to effect an entrance to the rich mining state of Sonora.

Having abandoned Chihuahua to the federalists, the rebels destroyed all bridges between Bachimba, where the last battle occurred, and Saez, 30 miles north of Chihuahua, the small station at which the rebel outposts now are gathered. The evacuation of Chihuahua means that the zone of rebel control will be greatly diminished, Juarez being the only important point that remains.

General Orozco, the rebel chief, spent the night at Saez, but was expected in Juarez today to direct the movements of various bands into which the rebel army is now disintegrating. Juarez at present is the rebel capital, trainroads of Archives having been sent there within the last three days.

Through the invasion of Sonora means a rambling campaign in the mountains, the rebel, most of the mountaineers, believe themselves equal to it. The revolution in that form, they say, will prove more vexatious to the government than an ordinary campaign.

To check the rebel invasion of Sonora, the Mexican government is moving forces from Auga Prieta and Western Sonora. Fully 4000 men are believed to be under way to intercept the rebels.

General Sanjines left Auga Prieta today for Frontera, Sonora, to take command of the main column.

Reports early today were to the effect that no federalists had as yet entered the city of Chihuahua, though a detachment of cavalry under General Rabago was said to be nearing the town.

FEDERAL TROOPS DELAYED
AT GENERAL HUERTA'S HEADQUARTERS, Bachimba, Mex., July 5.—The brief resistance of the rebels which preceded their retreat caused comparatively little loss of life, but the destruction of the railroad for thirty miles to Chihuahua is so extensive as to prevent the arrival of the main federal columns at the former rebel capital for at least three days.

STOCK MARKET
WAS WEAK AT THE CLOSE THIS AFTERNOON

Lowest Prices Ruled in the Final Hour — A Fairly Wide Spilling Movement — Set to Various Specialties Fell Off With the Leaders

NEW YORK, July 5.—An irregular tone was manifested by the stock market at today's opening. American Tobacco rose 2 points and Canadian Pacific one point, with strength in Great Northern preferred, Northern Pacific, Brooklyn Transit and General Electric. There were declines, however, in Union Pacific Amalgamated, Steel and some others.

Fractional advances after the opening in which Atchafalaya and Reading were conspicuous, were not held, the market breaking later on active selling of Union Pacific, Steel, Reading and Amalgamated.

Much of the mid-week steadiness in the stock market was suddenly dissipated today. The selling was impartially distributed among such leaders as Union Pacific, Reading, Steel and Amalgamated, with weakness most marked in the latter. No special cause was advanced to explain the decline, which doubtless and bear assistance. Shares of the grain carrying roads were inclined to further improvement but fell back on the counter-movement in the more active issues. Dealings divided as the list made feeble recovery from its low level and a portion of a cent gain followed. Bonds were steady.

Dullness was the foremost feature of the noon hour with absence of leadership on the constructive side. A reported advance in warehouse prices of steel and iron products was ignored. Some activity in Can. common and pfd. and a slight hardening in the speculative leaders constituted features of the late afternoon.

The market closed weak. Lowest prices ruled in the final hour when a fairly wide selling movement set in. Various specialties fell off with the leaders, some of the latter making net losses of 2 points and more.

IT'S WARM TODAY

THE NORMAL TEMPERATURE WAS ABOUT 90 DEGREES

Old Sol got in his work today after laboring all day yesterday and but for the fact that there was a mild breeze this afternoon it would have been a record breaker.

The normal temperature was about 90 degrees which is not enough for anyone, but in several sections of the city the mercury rose much higher. On Christian Hill the glass showed that it was nearly 100 degrees and in two which were read were in the shade, in Pawtucketville it went up to 92 and even though Kenwood is on the bay, the thermometer the mercury was hovering around the 100 mark.

The only persons who did not alter to mind the heat were the youngsters who were able to take a dip in the water, and the Merrimack and Concord rivers, the different canals and various lakes and ponds in the vicinity of Lowell offered comfort to those who had the opportunity to take a swim.

NEW ARRANGEMENT

CANADIAN PACIFIC TRAIN TO RUN IN TWO SECTIONS

Owing to the extra travel the Canadian Pacific train will hereafter run in two sections. This is an innovation for train work, but is necessary at this time on account of the great number of people going north. The sections will be known as the Canadian Pacific and the Quebec Central and will run from Boston at the regular distance apart. Each will have a separate baggage car and the system will remain in vogue until further orders.

FRANCIS NICHOLSON DROWNED IN THE MERRIMACK RIVER

Little Fellow Was Seized With Cramps While He Was in Bathing

Francis Nicholson, aged eight years, son of Frank and Julia Nicholson, of 379 Bridge street, met death by drowning in the Merrimack river this morning. The boy was in swimming in company with several others about his age in the swimming pool off First street, when it is thought he was seized with cramps and went down to his death.

The accident happened about 11:50.

Undertakers C. H. Molloy & Sons were notified and went to the scene and soon recovered the body. Several who were with the lad say he was a fine swimmer.

When he came up they swam to the spot where the unfortunate lad had disappeared and when he was pulled out of the water life was extinct. The body was removed to the funeral parlors of Undertakers Molloy & Sons and was later taken to the home of the heartbroken parents in Bridge street.

A LIVELY BLAZE BROKE OUT TODAY

In Storehouse of Waller
Coburn Company

A fire which threatened to destroy adjoining property broke out in the wooden storehouse of the Waller Coburn Co. in Plain street shortly before 4 o'clock this morning. An alarm from box 134 was sent in at 3:54 o'clock and at 4:05 o'clock another alarm was sent in from box 34. Spontaneous combustion was the cause, according to Chief Hosmer's theory, but the amount of damage has not been estimated as yet.

Owing to the material stored in the building volumes of smoke poured into the street and the firemen found it very difficult to get at the centre of the fire. The building, which is one-story high, was filled with baled waste, principally cotton waste and the firemen had considerable trouble in battling with the flames. After the firemen had sent several lines of water into the building it was necessary for them to rip the bales apart and extinguish the smoldering embers.

Inasmuch as the material in the building would be apt to re-ignite Chief Hosmer had several men remain on the scene with two lines of hose in order to prevent the fire bursting out again.

Two Fires in Same Place

A portion of the fire department was called to Brewery court in the rear of the Richardson hotel at 12:10 o'clock yesterday afternoon where a fire broke out on the roof of one of the houses, presumably from a spark from a chimney on an adjoining building. At 1:51 o'clock this morning the department was called to the same place where another fire had broken out. The damage at both fires, however, will be slight.

A Rubbish Fire

A telephone alarm at 3:15 o'clock yesterday summoned a portion of the department to a rubbish fire in the rear of a building in Fayette street, near the corner of East Merrimack street.

The body will be taken to Union Village, Vt., where the interment will take place tomorrow.

LAKEVIEW THEATRE

There is every promise that next week at the Lakeview theatre will be a particularly attractive one, for the management announces that beginning Monday and continuing for the balance of the week it will present the Majestic players, a New York company of leading artists, in the great comedy drama, "The Minister's Sweetheart." While the attractiveness of this play is its intense appeal to the good that is in everybody and its strong character studies that appear in the striking personages of the play, it is nevertheless brimming over with clean and wholesome fun. The play will be adequately staged with every care as to detail. The leading lady, Miss Elsie Gladys, is a young lady whose personality will stand out strongly over the other characters of the play and we predict that she will be one of the most popular players.

BIG FIRE IN WOODS ALARMED THE TOWNS

Of Tyngsboro, Westford
and Chelmsford

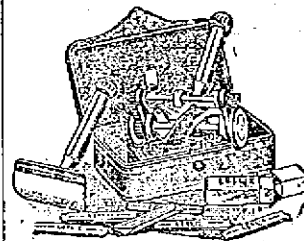

A fire broke out in the woodland district of Ward's quarry near the Westford and Tyngsboro line yesterday noon and it took on such large proportions that alarms were sent in in three towns. Men came from Granville, Chelmsford and Tyngsboro, and all were armed with instruments of every description to fight the flames. Though the men worked hard it was 9 o'clock last night before the blaze was under control. The damage spread over 200 acres, and the damage to the timber is very heavy.

The cause of the fire is not known, but it was discovered by the fire warden on duty at the Robins hill observation station.

THE TRIP TO CALIFORNIA UNDER SPECIAL CARE

"You feel like sorting out and tying together the memories of this trip and keeping them separate from all other trips." A woman recently said this after a pleasant experience on a Burlington Route Through Tourist Car Excursion party to California. She traveled alone, but met many agreeable people on the car, which was in charge of a special conductor. This good natured official was a well-informed, courteous man who went all the way through with the party, looking after everyone's comfort and attending to all the little details of the trip. Thus a woman or child in one of these parties can travel with perfect safety and freedom from care. If you would like to know more about the Burlington's comfortable and inexpensive personally conducted excursions, please write me a postal and I'll send you maps, booklets, pictures, etc., by return mail. ## Want to Have Grover Cleveland's

Birthday Remembered Each Year

Recently three movements have been set afoot to pay honor to the memory of Grover Cleveland, president of the United States from 1885 to 1889 and from 1893 to 1897 and the only democratic president since the Civil war. These movements are for the erection of the Cleveland memorial tower at Princeton university, for the purchase as a permanent memorial of the birthplace of Cleveland at Caldwell, N. J., and, most recent of the three, for the annual observance of his birthday, March 18.

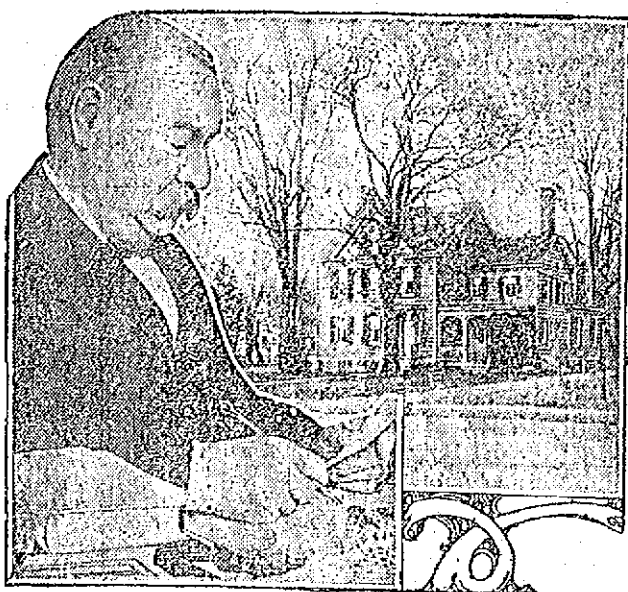

A permanent Cleveland birthday organization, to be known by an appropriate name, has been formed. It consists of friends and admirers of the late president. They will devise plans to have his memory honored annually throughout the country with addresses, resolutions, etc. At the head of the movement is a body known as an advisory board, with Judson Harroon of Ohio as chairman and Charles S. Fairchild, D. M. Dickinson, Richard Olney, Hilary A. Herbert, Hoke Smith and David R. Francis as members. There is also an executive board, including Dr. Joseph D. Bryant, the physician and most intimate friend of Mr. Cleveland, as chairman. Associated with him are Alton B. Parker, St. Clair McKelway, August Belmont, Dr. John H. Finley and others. These men were prominent among the organizers of the meeting in March, 1912, in New York, when the seventy-fifth anniversary of Mr. Cleveland's birth was celebrated.

The Cleveland birthplace in Caldwell, N. J., to be preserved for all time as a memorial to him, is known as the Old Manse. It was the home of the parents of the future president until he was four years old. His father, the Rev. Richard Falley Cleveland, was pastor of the Presbyterian church in Caldwell. He went with his family later to Fayetteville, N. Y., then to Utica, N. Y., then to Holland Patent, N. Y. It was in the Caldwell house that the name Stephen Grover was chosen for the man who later in life dropped the first appellation and still later was elected sheriff of Erie county, N. Y., governor of New York state and twice president of the United States.

It was asserted at one time that Mr. Cleveland disliked the place of his birth and never visited it after the removal of the family. The latter assertion seems to be well founded, but the former is not true, since a letter, in which he said he held the place of his birth as hallowed and sacred, was discovered many years ago.

The house is a simple, two-story frame structure. To purchase it a fund of $50,000 was required. Of this the town of Caldwell contributed $5,000. The fund included a sum for permanent maintenance. When it was decided to preserve the house plans were made also for a nearby memorial library to be known as

Princeton hills. It will be forty feet square at the base and 165 feet in height. Four turrets at the corners will rise unbroken from the base and in four gothic spires. The floors beneath will house a collection of Cleveland relics. In the ground floor, facing the entrance, will be placed a statue of the Grover Cleveland Memorial library to be housed in a building given by Andrew Carnegie.

The memorial tower, rising high above the graduate college buildings at Princeton university, will be the memorial of the deceased president at the many men. None of them was more appreciated by Mrs. Cleveland and the latter days of his life. The foundation of the tower has been laid. It will rise majestic on the crest of the rolling former president. At the Cleveland memorial celebration in New York March 17, this year, to mark the completion of the seventy-fifth year since Mr. Cleveland's birth, tributes were paid to his memory by many men. None of them was more appreciated by Mrs. Cleveland and the latter days of his life. The foundation of the tower has been laid. It will rise majestic on the crest of the rolling justified recurring memorial occasions like the one in which we are taking part. He was a great president, not because he was a great lawyer, not because he was a brilliant orator, not because he was a statesman of profound learning, but because he was a patriot with the highest sense of public duty, because he was a stranger of clear perceptions, of the utmost courage of his convictions and of great plainness of speech, because he was a man of the highest character, a father and husband of the best type and because throughout his political life he showed those rugged virtues of the public servant and citizen, the emulation of which by those who follow him will render progress of our political life toward better things a certainty.

NEW BATHING CAPS

Imitate the shape of the headgear of the peasant girl of any country having native garb if you wish your summer's bathing cap to be a masterpiece. It is going to be the fad to look picturesque when in the surf, and naturally this effect must be mainly provided by the cap.

If you firmly decline to let your looks get wet you may have a Normandy cap of fluted white silk trimmed with a big bow of ribbon matching the shade of your suit and beach cloak, or you may have the Russian peasant girl's cap unless you prefer the Norway woman's headress or the equally elaborate one worn by the maidens of Holland. The shape of these caps perfectly suits the Teutonic type of beauty, but they do not accord well with Latin features, and for girls of that strain of blood there is no prettier model in bathing caps than the Italian kerchief of brilliantly striped wash silk or the turban of the masculine Turk, which is also a large handkerchief.

If you will adopt the cap of the Irish peasant woman of mature years you may dive recklessly, for this perfectly protects the hair when made up in a rubber cut in circular shape and edged with a fluted trim which stands away becomingly from the head and the face.

BEAUTY HINT FOR YOUNG GIRL

If you are a young girl and your face is marred by pimples do not be worried. They are not the sign of bad blood or anything else. On growing girls, pimples are coming through the skin. It is an inevitable down but nevertheless it is the cause of skin eruptions often up to 20 years of age.

Plenty of water taken into the body will give you in time a glorious complexion. Tea, coffee, "soft drinks," etc., injure your chances for a clear and attractive skin. So will a diet of pies, doughnuts and pickles.

Never squeeze a pimple. If you do, it is liable to cause much harm, for, remember, pimples are only inflamed spots, and bruising them makes them worse and may bring on a skin affection known as acne. This latter skin affection is a difficult matter to cure.

Wash the face night and morning in warm water and pure soap. Don't use a highly scented soap. After this dash cold water over the face if you are going out into the cold air. Then be patient—your reward will be well worth it. You cannot hurry nature in her processes of development.

ENJOYABLE TROLLEY PARTY

Last Tuesday a number of the lady friends of Mrs. Thomas Griffin, chartered an electric car and went to Ayer, where they were met by Mr. Griffin who had provided a generous-sized hay rack with comfortable seats and sufficient of the "hobby-horse" to make the ride to Griffin farm, two miles away, an occasion long to be remembered. When they were safely landed on the spacious lawn and had enjoyed the unusual scenery from every point of the compass, each lady got busy spreading the contents of her box or basket upon long tables under the spreading elms for which Griffin farm is noted.

After the lunch had been disposed of the merry party romped at will over the fields and orchards till the hour for departure, which comes all too soon on such a pleasant occasion. Just before reaching the hay-rack for their departure, Miss Elizabeth O'Connor produced a box which had purposely been left unopened and in a few well-chosen words in behalf of the ladies present, presented the hostess, Mrs. Griffin, a beautiful silver bread tray, as a token of their esteem and friendship which has existed since happy school days. The success of the affair was due to the careful planning of Miss Marietta Gurnley.

"SEVEN HOURS IN NEW YORK"

Here are a few facts about "Seven Hours in New York," which comes to the Canobie Lake park theatre on Monday, July 8, for the entire week. This is a miracle-producing musical play, full of life and continuous action, presented by an exceptionally strong company of all round entertainers from the best companies in the country. In proof of this assertion there can be cited the appearance with the "Seven Hours" company of Maurice Briere, who was but lately featured with Trivie Eriogana's "Sweetest Girl in Dixie" company; Grace King, the late prima donna with Elsie Janis, Mr. Fred Bailey, from the two big shows "The Tenderfoot" and "Top o' the World," and the famous team of comedians, Thornton and Hall, last season with "The New Yorkers."

The action of the farce itself takes place in New York after a marvelous night of revelry that culminated in a disastrous ride in a taxi. The complications that arise from this ride are extremely ludicrous.

Cast of characters:
Hubert Knott, a human daffydill, Maurice Briere
Mrs. Hazel Knott, a little cracked, Grace King
Richard Batty another nut, Fred Bailey
Mrs. Rena Batty, a little off her base, Madie Oliver
Fuller Wheeler, a regular squirrel, Charles Osborne
Frank Cook, half baked, Frank Thornton
Violet Wills, nearly sane, Lois Hall
Neighbors and guests—Daisy Mayne, Marion Borden, Mary Terry, Stella Cathers, Estella Fairview, Blanche Nash

Skin-health for baby in Resinol

If every woman whose little one is troubled by eczema, ringworm, rash or other skin ailments, knew that simple Resinol Ointment spread on the afflicted skin would stop the itching and burning at once, and quickly clear away all trace of the eruption, there would be fewer suffering, disfigured babies, fewer mothers worn out by constant worry and care, and fewer lives made miserable by skin troubles which have persisted since infancy.

Chicago, Ill., June 5, 1912: "My little daughter had a running sore, which I was told was a wet ringworm, on the back of her head from ear to ear, and also one which spread from one hip to the other, extending from the waist down, and made her unable to sit down. They itched her continually. She had to be carried on a pillow, and night she could not sleep on account of the sores. What else she got she had to lie on her face. She suffered terribly, and would scratch continually. I bought Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment, and after about two weeks my child was well and happy." (Signed)
Mrs. Emily Klein, 200 Graham Ave.

Girl Shows Her Character in Clothes

As a rule, girls do not pay nearly enough attention to their backs. Yet no one can be well dressed unless she can bear an all round scrutiny. Many a woman would be astonished at the "character revelations" which she carries at her back. To a great extent a girl shows her character in her clothes and the way in which she wears them, but not only viewed from the front.

When a girl dresses her hair to suit her face, with never a thought to what it looks like viewed from behind, she will probably give the same one sided attention to other—more important, perhaps—matters. However charming the hair may look from the front, when the back discloses straggling ends or hair tightly strained—anything which shows carelessness or untidiness of arrangement—the whole effect is ruined.

It is important that a girl should never buy a hat by merely seeing her face beneath it. Viewed so it may suit her, but what of the back? For example, crowds of girls wear big hats which fall over their shoulders and completely hide the neck. The back view in such a case is absolutely ludicrous. Small hats and bouffants have a reverse habit unless carefully chosen and put on well. Many a toque presents a bird-like appearance at the back, showing a yawning void between hair and hat. Whenever a woman wears a small hat she should be quite sure that people behind can see she has a hat on and that her hair is dressed at the back in a way to accentuate the good appearance of the hat.

Women who wear veils should not be content with an attractive frontal arrangement. A veil is badly arranged when it drags unevenly across the back of a hat or the ends obtrude in an unattractive way. Neckwear and the arrangement of it are bad feminine failings. It is a common thing for girls to wear jabots and collars which look delightful in front, but which are fastened in an "anyhow" fashion at the back—probably with a big, hideous safety pin. If pins are indispensable, and they seem to be for some collars, use tiny gilt or gold ones and fasten them in such a way as not to strike a note of untidy discord. When pins are not necessary women should provide all their collars and neckwear with proper fastenings put on in the proper places. The latter is important. Unless the fastenings are in the right places on a collar there will either be irritating gaps between them or the collar will fall crooked and the whole back effect be altogether wretched.

The same thing applies to blouses which fasten down the back. Many a woman's blouse, otherwise charming, shows a succession of little gaps where it is fastened. A blouse, too, should always be well connected with the skirt. Women often give scanty attention to the arrangement of the waist at the back. There should be no separation between blouse, belt and skirt. The blouse should be pulled taut and smooth beneath the skirt. There should be no unevenness above or ugly ridge of blouse beneath the skirt. The skirt band should be fixed securely into position.

That a skirt should "hang" well is perhaps more essential from the back view even than the front. Many girls pay more attention to the back of a skirt when it is in making. Consequently many skirts look all wrong at the back—bad length, tightness or looseness, unevenness, all due to bad arrangement of material.

A girl who does not trouble about the back views of her appearance may be usually depended upon to display a similar spirit with regard to other matters. There are plenty of people who know this, people who scrutinize a woman's back carefully to find out what sort of person she really is.

should be banished. Cracked, smarting, tender hands—rough and unsightly—are mostly some soap's fault. The proof lies in a change to a soap that is soothing.

Welcome Soap outsells all other soaps in New England because it outwashes them. Yet it keeps the hands cool, soft and white.

One reason is "Borax." We use five times as much Borax every year as all other New England makers combined.

Some Suggestions on How to Dress in Camp

A well known directress of a girls' camp suggests the following outfit for a stay of some length of time. If the camp is free from intrusion the girl may wear within its confines a cotton middie blouse or a pair of woolen bloomers. In such a costume any form of activity—tennis, fencing, canoeing or basketball—is possible. This must be supplemented, of course, by a bathing suit, preferably of dark colored material. While the suit with the kimono sleeve is exceedingly attractive it should be avoided by the swimmer, as it hampers the movements of the arms. If a girl is fortunate enough to possess two bathing suits she would do well to take both of the suits with her to camp. One can be put to use when the other takes an exceptionally long time to dry.

Tennis shoes for the daytime are a necessity. Unless the beach is a rocky one bathing slippers are not needed. One pair of walking boots for tramping, rubbers and slippers for dress occasions complete the shoe outfit.

After roughing it in serviceable clothes all day the girl often delights to dress in more feminine fashion for the evening. A blue serge or any simple costume with skirt waist effect, pongee or foulard if preferred will be a pleasure in the evenings, which are invariably cool in the mountains. This or a lingerie dress will come in handy when a neighboring hotel allures the campers to some entertainment.

Instead of a white petticoat a saten or a gingham one is advisable. The sweater and the coat should be warm, but light to carry about. If the rubber coat is used it should be as long as the skirt, for the latter should not absorb the water which drips off the bottom.

A bath robe, a laundry bag and a hot water bottle are imperative. If there is room left in the trunk musical instruments, sketching materials, radio work, books, games and a hammock and cushions will be welcome additions.

If bedding or pillows are required, they often are, they can be put in a roll and checked.

With a judicious selection and packing of these articles both the girl and her mother may be sure they have satisfied the demands of beauty and practicality.

The hotel is sometimes attractive by way of contrast, but no girl who has ever summered in a camp will choose any other place for a vacation. The same, healthful influence of camp life, with its exhilaration and freedom, is far better for the growing girl than the forced life of a summer resort.

MATRIMONIAL

Mr. Harold L. Grogins of Chelmsford and Miss Vera B. Davis, of this city, were married Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, 29 Washington street, by Rev. J. C. Wilson, pastor of the Chelmsford Street Baptist church.

Only the immediate friends and relatives were present. After a wedding tour they will live at 47 Emory street, in this city, where they will be at home to their friends after August 1st.

GAUDETTE-LACOURSE

The wedding of George Gaudette and Miss Alice Lacourse was celebrated at a nuptial mass at St. John's church, North Chelmsford, last Monday morning. Rev. Edmund T. Schofield was the officiating clergyman. This is the youngest couple that has been married in this church for some time, the ages of the contracting parties being 17 and 15 years, respectively. The happy couple are now spending their honeymoon in Manchester, N. H., and will reside in North Chelmsford upon their return.

BRAULT-WILLIAMS

Miss Clara Williams was united in marriage to Ernest Alexander Brault of Lowell Wednesday evening. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bridegroom, 63 Florence avenue, Rev. William C. H. Moe of the Congregational church in No. Chelmsford by the nuptial knot. The wedding was of a very pretty character and was attended by the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. The bride wore a dress of white voile over white mesline and carried bride's roses. After a brief wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Brault will make their home at Fairview cottage, a pretty bungalow that has recently been built on the border of Crystal lake.

THINGS YOU SHOULD KEEP CLEAN WITH CARBONOL

SOMETIMES soap-and-water cleanliness is enough. Sometimes aseptic cleanliness is absolutely necessary, and in such cases you should mix Carbonol in the water used in cleaning. A dash of Carbonol in a pail of water gives the whole mixture powerful disinfecting qualities.

Garbage cans and all repositories of refuse should be cleaned with it to kill the germs, to keep away

Carbonol is equally useful in general cleaning. Put it in the water when you mop the floors or wash the woodwork. Use it especially in cleaning the sickroom where there has been contagious disease. Sprinkle it in the cellar before sweeping and the musty smell will disappear.

A sample bottle with booklet will be sent free on request.

MATRIMONIAL

Mr. Harold L. Grogins of Chelmsford and Miss Vera B. Davis, of this city, were married Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, 29 Washington street, by Rev. J. C. Wilson, pastor of the Chelmsford Street Baptist church.

Only the immediate friends and relatives were present. After a wedding tour they will live at 47 Emory street, in this city, where they will be at home to their friends after August 1st.

GAUDETTE-LACOURSE

The wedding of George Gaudette and Miss Alice Lacourse was celebrated at a nuptial mass at St. John's church, North Chelmsford, last Monday morning. Rev. Edmund T. Schofield was the officiating clergyman. This is the youngest couple that has been married in this church for some time, the ages of the contracting parties being 17 and 15 years, respectively. The happy couple are now spending their honeymoon in Manchester, N. H., and will reside in North Chelmsford upon their return.

BRAULT-WILLIAMS

Miss Clara Williams was united in marriage to Ernest Alexander Brault of Lowell Wednesday evening. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bridegroom, 63 Florence avenue, Rev. William C. H. Moe of the Congregational church in No. Chelmsford by the nuptial knot. The wedding was of a very pretty character and was attended by the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. The bride wore a dress of white voile over white mesline and carried bride's roses. After a brief wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Brault will make their home at Fairview cottage, a pretty bungalow that has recently been built on the border of Crystal lake.

REV. D.A. BARRY O.M.I.

HAS BEEN TRANSFERRED TO SEATTLE, WASH.

Rev. D. A. Barry, O. M. I., of the Tewksbury novitiate has gone to Seattle, Washington, where he will do parish work at St. Bernard's church. Fr. Barry, came to this country from Ireland in 1897 and was employed by the John Hancock Insurance company for four years. He was very successful and made many friends while connected with the company. In 1901 he was offered the assistant superintendency of the company, but resigned to study for the priesthood. He then went to Holy Angels college, Buffalo, and upon graduation from that institution he entered the novitiate at Tewksbury. In 1911 he was ordained to the priesthood at the Holy Cross cathedral in Boston by Rt. Rev. Bishop Anderson. Rev. Fr. Barry will be associated in his work with Rev. Eugene A. Dorgan, O. M. I., the pastor and Rev. Patrick McGrath, O. M. I., formerly of the Immaculate Conception church of this city. If you want help at home or in

CORNING, N. Y., July 6.—Westbound Lackawanna passenger train No. 9, from New York, due to arrive at Corning at 4:47 a. m. yesterday, composed of two locomotives, a baggage car, three parlor cars and two day coaches. In the order named, was demolished at Gibson, three miles east of Corning at 5:25 o'clock yesterday morning by express train No. 11, due at Corning at 5:10 a. m.

Forty-one persons were killed and between 50 and 60 injured.

Many of the victims were holiday excursionists bound to Niagara Falls, who had boarded the train at points along the Lackawanna from Hoboken to Buffalo.

The wreck was the worst in the history of the road. Its cause, according to Engineer Schroeder of the express, was his failure to see the signals set against his train. The morning was so foggy, he said, that he could not distinguish them.

The wrecked train stood on the main track, blocked by a crippled extra freight train No. 61. There was no flag out, according to Engineer Schroeder. The signals were just around the curve. The flying express ploughed past them and crashed into the rear of No. 9, bringing death to more than two score of its passengers.

Running 65 Miles an Hour

Schroeder had taken No. 11 at Elmira 15 minutes before. It was a few minutes late. The stretch of track from Elmira to Corning is fitted for fast running, and he was sending his train along at the rate of 65 miles an hour. No. 9 was supposed to be half an hour ahead of him.

He had no warning until he made out the outline of the rear coach of No. 9 through the fog that was crawling up the mountain from the river far below. Then he saw the lights ahead and threw the reverse without shutting off steam.

The jerk threw the train off the track, and the locomotive plunged on a few rods further, to splinter the two-day coaches filled with excursionists and tear through the last of the parlor cars.

Schroeder said that the impact was so great that it threw him from the cab and landed him on his shoulder on the roadbed, practically unhurt.

Thousands Rush to Scene

The 100-ton monster continued its plunge through the middle of the train, grinding everything in its path. It seemed as if it would cut through every car. When it was finally blocked by a mountain of debris, it remained on the roadbed while thousands rushed to the scene to pry the dead and injured from the tangled mass of wreckage.

Taking advantage Fourth of July morning of the excursion rates the Lackawanna had offered from Hoboken to Buffalo and Niagara Falls, many excursionists had boarded No. 9 at all points from Hoboken including Scranton, Binghamton and Elmira.

There were also many passengers for the west, as there was direct connection through to Chicago at Buffalo. There was such a load by the time the train reached Elmira that a second locomotive was attached there to take the train over the hill at Groveland, 65 miles west.

Long before No. 9 left Elmira, extra freight train No. 51, bound for Buffalo from Scranton, had pulled through. When the heavy grade at Gibson was reached, a draw-head pulled out, and No. 61 was crippled. Signals which she put out stopped No. 9 as the latter came up with her two locomotives.

The first locomotive was uncoupled and set at work to push the dead end of the freight into a siding to allow No. 9 and No. 11 which were due in 25 or 30 minutes to pass. The work was slow and considerable time elapsed. During the monotonous wait many passengers from the day coaches got out and investigated the cause of the delay.

Bodies Badly Mangled

Meanwhile the signals had been thrown against No. 11, which was tearing along at 65 miles an hour toward the stalled train. These failed to stop the express and the crash followed.

Rescuers were quickly on the scene. In what seemed an incredibly short time hundreds of automobiles had lined the highway. By 8 o'clock physicians had started all of the wounded on their way to the hospitals or were giving emergency attention to victims on the scene. The only exceptions were a few persons who had been pinned beneath wreckage so difficult to penetrate that it was some time before they were released.

Thirteen of the injured and 10 of the dead were taken to Elmira on a special train. All the other dead were taken to undertaking rooms in Corning and the remainder of the injured were conveyed to the Corning City hospital.

All the physicians in the city were summoned and many ministers and priests were called to administer last sacraments and receive messages from relatives and friends from the dying.

Most of the bodies found were badly mangled. The cars themselves were one heaped up mass of wreckage, jamming into each other in tangle fashion. The last two cars on train No. 11 remained on the track and later were used as hospital coaches.

A special train from Elmira had brought surgical assistance from that city and it was this train that afterwards aided in removing the dead and injured.

Last Rites Performed

At the Corning hospital, which has accommodations for only 10 patients, some of the injured had to lie upon the floors until the physicians could reach them and give them necessary attention.

Those who visited the scene of the wreck before the hospital forces had had time to finish the work of removal, witnessed many scenes of horror. A special train from Elmira had brought surgical assistance from that city and it was this train that afterwards aided in removing the dead and injured.

At a late hour the child had not been identified.

Rev. John T. Cassidy, a Catholic priest, was one of the early arrivals at the wreck. He administered to the injured and performed the last rites of the church for those about to die.

Once he halted a long line of automobiles and several wagons bound for the morgue while he performed the rites across the body of a little girl which lay upon the ground only to draw back, aghast faced, as his act revealed the body of a baby only a few months old.

The people of Corning have opened their homes to the injured who could not find accommodations at the hospitals or whose injuries were too slight to warrant their crowding other persons from the institution.

Bracelet Straightened Out

Yesterday afternoon the workmen at the scene of the wreck picked up a human skull which was entirely devoid of marks which would indicate whether it came from man or woman.

A gold bracelet bearing the initials "E. A. H." was found in the wreckage yesterday afternoon. It had been pulled nearly straight. It is supposed to have been upon the wrist of Mrs. Edith A. Hessel of Scranton, Pa., who was among those killed.

Although Engineer Schroeder of the express declared there was no flagman to warn him of the presence of the stalled train ahead, Lackawanna officials declare that a flagman had been sent back in the rear of No. 9 was held up.

Some of Injured Will Die

Of the injured in the wreck, four of the unidentified died at the Corning hospital, where they were removed after the accident. Several of the injured who are unconscious had nothing about their persons by means of which they could be identified. Of the injured 11 are being cared for at St. Joseph's hospital in Elmira, while the remainder are at the Corning hospital.

No company of players who have come to Lowell were ever greeted more cordially than the members of the Harvard Stock company, who are this week engaged in the presentation of "The Rosary," a four act play founded on present day facts that are not uncommon in the average community.

The piece tells a strong story and its manner of unfolding is so cleverly done that it appeals to all classes and tastes. The various characters introduced are not overdrawn but are as realistic as were ever seen on the stage. Mr. Brady, Miss Valaire, Mr. Stevens and the others engaged in the cast seem to be peculiarly fitted for the respective characters to which they have been assigned. The play is staged in a correct and highly artistic manner. Incidental to the presentation of the stock company the program includes the very latest and best of photo-plays and illustrated songs given by Miss Alice Bagley, a local singer of repute. The entire bill from top to bottom is such as to warrant liberal patronage. Next week the management has secured a new series of high class vaudeville acts and picture plays that have never before been shown locally and should serve to provide the same enjoyment which past performances have.

Patrons are reminded of the fact that the temperature of the theatre is kept comfortable at all times. Even in the heat of the past few days theatre-goers who have visited this playhouse have found the conditions such as to almost warrant their attendance simply to escape the uncomfortable weather conditions in the street and at home. Electric fans, ozonators and numerous exits combine in making the place cool and delightful.

MANY ATTRACTIONS ON THE MIDWAY

The Fakirs Took in Quiet a Sum

The midway was the same old place as of yore and about the same old games were in evidence. The crowd at the South common was not quite as large, perhaps, as in previous years but it was a jolly crowd and money was spent with lavish hand. About all of the fakirs were wearing happy smiles and there was a great demand for cool drinks. It is unnecessary to recite the list of attractions, for they were the same as have been coming here for years and the out-door barker was offering the same lingo. He looked real serious and honest when he said that what was shown on the canvas outside was "really alive and living on the inside." The hobby horses, ferris wheels, "motion of the ocean" and other contrivances that carried one through the air and developed a breeze were well patronized. The Kasino dance hall, however, proved too strong an attraction for the midway and the crowd that surged through the common soon found its way to the Kasino where the "light fantastic toe" was tripped till early morn.

It's a wonderfully good natured crowd that visits the midway. The fellow who would look daggers if you brushed up against him or crowded him in any other place will take it all in good part on the midway and the procession goes merrily on. Everybody seems to know everybody and after all, perhaps, the midway isn't such a terrible nuisance. Sometimes you don't find as many horns on the horned woman and the twenty-toed man, may be a few toes, but aside from those trifling misrepresentations the midway is not at all bad and we hope that you may live to see and enjoy many more of them.

ROOM LOWELL

It would be a good idea for the Board of Trade to institute annually a prize essay contest on the subject, "How best to boom Lowell."

This is a subject that should be kept to the front among our citizens and that should be impressed upon the young people at school. Lowell is admirably situated on the confluence of two great rivers to become the greatest manufacturing centre in the world. Already she has attained wide distinction for her carpet factories, her print mills, her hosiery, her cotton mills, her machine shops and above all for her textile school. She is gradually attaining a diversity of industry that will raise the standard of wages in all lines and increase her prosperity at all points. Lowell has a better class of factory help than most of the other mill cities of New England. They are less turbulent and with few exceptions make no trouble unless they are very seriously imposed upon. The best of feeling usually exists between the mill men and their employees, and the same may be said of the employees of most of the other industries throughout the city. The peaceful disposition of the laboring people of this city was shown during the recent strike or lockout when the skilled operatives kept aloof from the turbulent element and went out only when the mills had to shut down because so many of the unskilled operatives had quit.

The mills of Lowell pay at the present time as high a rate of wages as is paid in any mill city, although at the present high cost of living even a higher rate would seem insufficient.

There are many ways in which Lowell can be boomed as a city, and it would be well to interest young and old of all classes in the work of booming Lowell, keeping her business, her prosperity and her reputation to the front. One way to boom Lowell is to improve her advantages and correct what is wrong, not to minimize her worth and shrink her faults from the house-tops.

THE BOSTON CAR STRIKE

The Boston car strike is being carried to dangerous extremes and at a time of year when the public should not be subjected to any such danger or inconvenience. That strike should be arbitrated at once. The legislature, as we pointed out on several occasions, should have enacted a law making all such strikes and lockouts illegal until thoroughly investigated. There is no reason, constitutional or otherwise, why the public should be subjected to such abuse, inconvenience and danger. The contending parties are not to blame, but the legislature is to blame for not making due provision for the protection of the public in its right to safe transportation and to attend to business without interruption.

The state board of arbitration and conciliation is endeavoring to settle the strike, but that is about the most useless of all the commissions, never doing anything worth while until the parties to the strike are sick of the fight and want some excuse for a truce.

When the carmen resort to the use of dynamite, the public is in serious jeopardy. When such danger is threatened it is time to take proper steps to safeguard the traveling public even if the militia must be called upon. But not all the militia in the state could guard all the lines passing in and out of Boston.

This is clearly a case in which the legislature should take control and enact laws to apply to the situation.

DEMOCRATS SHOULD VOTE FOR THEIR OWN INTERESTS.

It is possible that some of the supporters of Champ Clark for the democratic nomination, especially in the west, will be inclined to vote for President Taft instead of Gov. Wilson, the nominee of the democratic party. This is due to a personal attachment to the president, but those who feel so inclined remember that in voting for Taft they vote for the republican tariff and all its extortions and abuses.

A great many democrats have been doing that for the last 20 years, and they see the result. If they want to prolong the life of the trusts, the high cost of living and the domination of the money power, then they should vote the republican ticket. But if they want popular government and a reduction in the tariff that will restore competition; if they want measures that will safeguard the rights and interests of the people at all points, then they should vote for Wilson and not for President Taft who will in all probability be defeated anyhow.

No man should underestimate the value of his vote in the coming contest. It has often happened that a single vote has decided a contest of the greatest importance. The issues involved in this election are the most important since war-times, and it behooves every voter to do his duty. If men make fools of themselves by shouting against the government and voting for the retention of the old regime then they know what they may expect.

The wage-earner who votes for Wilson will vote for his own best interests; but if he votes either for Taft or Roosevelt he will vote against himself and his family.

THE DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM

The democratic platform, though drafted earlier, was not adopted until after the nominations were made late Tuesday night. It is the most comprehensive and progressive platform ever adopted by the party, and yet there is not a single plank in the whole document that can be considered ultra radical.

The first and foremost principle of the platform is that of popular rule by which the trusts and combines can be overthrown, the tariff justly reduced to a revenue basis, competition restored so as to cut down the cost of living, and the currency system so revised that it may be protected alike against contraction and inflation while at the same time being elastic enough to meet all the needs of the country and prevent panics such as we have suffered from in the past.

While strictly progressive the platform is remarkably free from that ultra radicalism which characterized the platform of 1896. It is truly a platform that must appeal to all fair-minded men and in conjunction with the strong nominations made, it should greatly assist in the onward march to victory.

The protection of state rights against federal encroachment, the income tax, popular election of senators, presidential primaries, single term, rate regulation and the conservation of national resources, are all provided for in this platform, so that the chief issues advocated by progressive democrats for years are dealt with in this platform in a manner that must satisfy the most progressive.

SEEN AND HEARD.

William M. Chase, at the recent sale of his pictures in New York, said to a reporter:

"Yes, there are all good things, things collected with great care. You can't comment on them as the teacher once commented on the pupils' drawing."

"I draw what I see," the pupil said complacently.

"Well, the shock will come," the teacher answered, "when you see what you have drawn."

A minister's wife, a doctor's wife and a traveler's wife met one day recently, and were talking about the forgetfulness of their husbands. The minister's wife thought her husband was the most forgetful man living, because he would go to church and forget his notes, and no one could make out what he was trying to preach about.

"The doctor's wife thought her husband the most forgetful, for he would often start out to see a patient and forget his medicine case, and therefore travel miles for nothing."

"Well," said the traveler's wife, "my husband beats that. He came home the other day and patted me on the cheek, and said, 'I believe I have seen you here, little girl. What is your name?'"

Not far from Boston, says the New York Sun, there is a sign bearing this announcement:

"No trespassing except on business."

In the railway carriages running between Calais and Paris there used to be a peculiar device for summoning the conductor or guard. In each compartment dangled a ring fastened to the end of a cord. Below, in French German and English was the notice, the English version of which read:

"Should at any time the presence of the guard be deemed necessary; the

Here is another notice which was designed to put travelers on their guard against unauthorized guides to Mount Vesuvius and to warn tourists to take the guides' numbers if they wished to make complaint:

"The Vesuvius guides acknowledged by the company are only those who have a number of recognition at the hornet and an inscription 'Guida del Vesuvius.' Travelers are earnestly requested to remember that number of recognition to the guide who escort them, and to declare it if they have any complaint to do; differently the company will be in the impossibility to pursue such reclamation."

AT THE END OF THE WAY

Have done with love forever—
With all its peace and pain,
And never more—ah, never,
Shall we 'twain meet again!

Not as in days departed—
Not as in rose-sweet years;
You leave me broken-hearted—
Your gift to me was tears!

Not that I doubt you love me—
Or did through wreck and wrong;
From flower-fair fields above me
You loved me for a song!

Unreclaimed of bells were ringing,
Skies that were dark seemed blue,
And all my sweetest singing,
Was of the love of you!

Strange stars above you gleaming,
Lost ships that came to shore,
You knew that you were dreaming
Who now must dream no more.

With far and certain seeping
I mark the dream's decline
And feel your radiant being
Slip from the clasp of mine.

With tears, perchance, and sighing,
Where all is gloom and blight,
I feel it as the dying
Feel the vague loss of light;

And as the shadows darken,
Stretch unavailing hands
To where no loved ones hearken
In undiscovered lands.

Farewell, Love's richest treasure—
The beauty and the beam!
Farewell the pain, the pleasure,
Farewell the dream—the dream!

The Future is adorning
For you a splendid sky;
Love only said "Good morning,"
To say "Good-night—Good-bye!"

—Atlanta Constitution.

APPETIZING SANDWICHES

Red pepper sandwiches are artistic and appetizing. Use the canned sweet red peppers, chop fine and mix to a smooth paste with mayonnaise.

A rather snappy filling is made from cheese thinned with mayonnaise, with chopped nuts and red peppers stirred in. On top of the mixture is placed an anchovy or a bit of boned and skinned sardine.

POPULAR TEACHER

Formerly of Lowell Died Suddenly

The news of the sudden death of Miss Mary I. Donlan while visiting her brother, Dr. Donlan, superintendent of the Long Island hospital in Boston harbor, came as a severe shock to her relatives as well as to her wide circle of friends and former associates in this city.

Miss Donlan was formerly a teacher in the Butler school and was beloved by all with whom she came in contact for her genial, cheerful ways, her cordiality as a friend and her helpfulness to those around her. She was a highly talented girl and although successful as a grammar school teacher, still she had ambitions in other lines of work. The introduction of manual training in the schools of Lowell and other cities attracted her attention. Miss Donlan, gifted with mechanical genius, realizing that with a little preparation she could teach this branch, immediately began to study the various branches of the art. She took a course of training in the Sloyd system, mastering it in a wonderfully short time. She had already become an expert in bookbind-

Moderate Charges for Board in Colorado

A vacation in Colorado is by no means beyond the reach of the person of average means. There are hundreds of nice, clean, wholesome boarding houses and ranch houses in Colorado where the rates are from $10 to $15 a week, and where you can live well and comfortably. Then, of course, there are elaborate Modern Hotels for those who require more, but even then it will surprise you to know how moderate their charges are.

I would like to send you, without charge, a copy of the "Burlington Route Handbook of Colorado." It tells all about the country, gives a complete list of Hotels and Boarding Houses, names of the proprietors, addresses, rates, conveniences and nearby attractions. Then, too, it has a big map of Colorado and is full of pictures. Let me send you a copy, (no charge) and if you wish I can tell you all about the trains and cost of railway tickets, and I will gladly help you in planning for a trip to the most wonderfully interesting and altogether charming country in America.

A LITTLE NONSENSE

THOUGHTS.

"That man proposed to me four times." "I'm not surprised." "You think I am so attractive?" "I was thinking what a daredevil he is. I saw him blow in the muzzle of a gun one time."

BEFORE AND AFTER.

Merion—What detained Reggy in the vestibule so long last night? Myrtle—He said he wanted to give me a bushel of kisses. Merion—You did well to accept. After marriage it will be a mere peck.

GOSSIP.

"Is Percy Pinkweek really so effeminate?" "I should say so. Why, he never goes to the club except on ladies' nights."

SCANTY ATTIRE.

Mr. Shopkeeper—Are these shirts the correct thing? The Haberdasher—The best dressers wear nothing else.

CUNNING.

Marie—It's singular Mazie is so coy. Maude—Not at all; her object is to decoy.

MUCH ADO ABOUT NOTHING.

"Talk about useless activity! Swift has a hundred frogs in the fire and hardly one of them ever gets hot." "Yes, and if one does he only succeeds in burning his fingers with it."

The San Marino cigar (clean Havana filler) we can conscientiously recommend to all smokers of ten cent or even higher priced cigars. We have been "trying it out" in a small way for about two years and found that it suited nine in every ten persons. Our price is 5 cents straight, $2.25 for box of fifty. Don't neglect trying them simply because they're sold for 5c, they are 10c quality. Howard, the druggist, 137 Central street.

Camp Life and Clicquot Club go well together

In thousands of camps, every summer, Clicquot Club Ginger Ale is considered an essential. Its delicious flavor makes it the satisfying summer drink, and its purity and wholesomeness make it the refreshing drink. It is non-astringent, and safer than water—especially doubtful water. When Clicquot Club appears, it awakens anticipation of pleasure.

Clicquot Club Ginger Ale is made of the finest Jamaica ginger, the best confectioners' sugar and the purest citric fruit flavors that money can buy. All combined in pure, wholesome, Clicquot Club spring water, perfectly carbonated. Better ginger ale than Clicquot Club can not be found.
